WELCOME HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Polstein

The entire congregation joins in one mighty and hearty "Sholom Aleichem" to our President, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Polstein. To say that our President was missed during his absence would be obviously unnecessary. For during the years of his presidency, Mr. Polstein has greatly endeared himself to all and has made himself practically indispensable to the well being of our congregation.

We are pleased to learn that his trip was an enjoyable one and are further pleased that he and Mrs. Polstein are both enjoying the best of health.

WELCOME HOME, dear friends, your duties await you.

Our cooperation shall be forthcoming.

FROM THE VICE-PRESIDENT

May I add to the greetings of all our members my own personal welcome to our president, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Polstein, upon their return from their extensive trip.

"BRUCHIM HABOIM"—Blessed are those who come in the name of the Lord to resume their duties in the house of the Lord.

I also express to our rabbis, cantor, sexton, officers, and members, my heartiest wishes for a happy New Year.

LOUIS ROBBINS

THE WANDERING JEWS

There was quite a representation of our congregation in Europe this year. Heading the Kehilath Jeshurun Colony in Europe were Rabbi and Mrs. Lookstein, who spent two months honeymooning on the other side of the Atlantic. Then there were—

Mr. & Mrs. Sam Kaplan
Mr. & Mrs. David Kass and family
Judge and Mrs. Isaac Cohen
Mrs. Edward Rubin
Mr. & Mrs. Albert Sokolsky and daughter
Mr. & Mrs. Sol Hecht

Quite a colony we think. Our greetings and welcome to them upon their return.

THE SUCCAH

As usual the "succah" will be the social center for all activities during the week of "Succoth".

Mrs. Edward Epstein, veteran of many a succah arrangement committee is honorary chairman of the committee this year. Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein, who is trying to make an auspicious start in her duties as a "Rebitzen" is heading the committee composed of the following:—

Mrs. M. Lurie	Miss Edelstein
Miss F. Stavisky	Mr. E. Levy
Miss M. Stavisky	Mr. I. Horowitz
Mr. H. Cohen

The Young Folks League, through its president, Mr. Hyams, has pledged its cooperation.

THANK YOU, MR. SIMON

The congregation extends a hearty thanks to Mr. Mannie Simon for his wonderful work as leader of the Young Folks League. We wish him continued success for the coming season.

We call the attention of our members and seatholders that this bulletin will appear hereafter every month and will contain all synagogue news, announcement of sermon topics, a monthly calender, and social news of our members and seatholders. New features will be added from time to time as a need for them arises, and as a demand for them is made. We solicit the cooperation of our members and seatholders to send in any social news that they would like to have printed to

RABBI LOOKSTEIN,
Hotel Berkshire, Madison Ave. and 92nd Street.

Requests for special sermons, classes, and the like, will receive the immediate attention of the Rabbi.

OUR GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

By Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein

Standing on the threshold of the New Year, the thought comes to my mind that this year marks the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of our congregation. Fifty years have elapsed since that day when a handful of brave pioneering Jews have laid the foundation for a synagogue whose name and fame was in the course of time to become synonymous with Jewish tradition and loyalty. True, their start was modest and humble, but their vision was strong and their hearts yet stronger. From their modest beginning grew our present wonderful structure and organization with which everyone feels proud to be affiliated and identified.

Shall we leave such a holiday as a golden anniversary pass uncelebrated? Ought we not rejoice in proper fashion at this singular achievement of preserving for half a century a congregation which is a living and speaking example of "Orthodoxy triumphant"?

Let us all resolve that this year be a real הג היובל a holiday year during which we shall rejoice in the knowledge that we have compiled during our fifty years of existence an enviable record of religious and philanthropic achievements that can well serve as a model for all synagogues. And let us also cooperatively join to plan for our future that it may be even more glorious and more productive than our past.

I use this occasion to convey to our officers, members, and seatholders, my blessings for a year in which all their material and spiritual aspirations may find fulfillment. My greetings to our President

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Polstein, upon their return from their "round-the-world" trip. May they find us all ready and willing to join whole-heartedly in every undertaking and activity for the well-being of our synagogue, for the good of Israel, and for the glory of God.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH H. LOOKSTEIN

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

How happy I feel to return after my long absence, and greet all our members and friends whose companionship I missed so keenly during my otherwise pleasant journey. After the many interesting sights that I have seen and the wonderful places that I have visited, I do not hesitate to say that one cannot find another place offering such congenial surroundings and religious fellowship as our synagogue can. Its fame is really world-wide, and its benevolent and philanthropic deeds are everywhere in evidence, whether in stricken Poland or in fast flourishing Palestine.

I call upon you now, at the dawn of the New Year, to renew your interests and efforts in our congregation. Let us in the true spirit of Jewish cooperation, endeavor to make this the banner year of our social, philanthropic, and religious activities.

I express to our Rabbis, cantor, sexton, officers, and members with their families, my best wishes for a year of health and happiness.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH POLSTEIN
