FROM THE RABBIS

We extend to the officers, members, seatholders, and Sisterhood of our Congregation our best wishes for a happy new year.

May the new year usher in a period of prosperity and growth in the material as well as spiritual interest of life. Conquering depression of all forms, may we courageously face the future and master our individual and national problems.

Undismayed by the many setbacks which we encountered, let us, nevertheless, continue the upbuilding of Palestine, the land of our past glory and of our future hopes. Gaining strength from results already achieved, let us give to the religious education of our youth in this land an ever increasing measure of devotion.

May a year of blessedness begin.

M. S. MARGOLIES

JOSEPH H. LOOKSTEIN

FROM THE OFFICERS

Standing on the threshold of a new calendar year, we are simultaneously about to embark upon a year of increasing activity in Congregational life.

The past few months have witnessed a display of interest on the part of so many of our members towards the synagogue that we are encouraged to look forward with unusual hopefulness to the future. The officers, members of the board, and chairmen of the several committees, are all contributing their share towards congregational activity. An unprecedented sale of seats for the High Holy Days is only one instance of this renewed activity.

May we therefore offer our thanks to those who are helping this revival of congregational spirit. May we also bespeak the cooperation of all those who glory in the past of Kehilath Jeshurun, and are concerned for its future. May the new year bring to our Rabbis, members, seatholders, and to their families the richest blessings of health, happiness, and prosperity.

JACOB D. COHEN, President
ABRAHAM POLSTEIN, Vice-President
THOMAS BORNSTEIN, Treasurer
SAMUEL BAUM, Executive Secretary

FROM THE SISTERHOOD

To the members of the Sisterhood, and to the general membership body of the congregation, we herewith offer our sincerest wishes for a year of health and happiness. May we of the Sisterhood be inspired to continued devotion to the welfare of our congregation. May the new year find us ready and willing to cooperate in all that may reflect honor to God and Israel.

Mrs. Henry A. Rafsky, President

TO THE PARENTS

With the opening of the general school season, many parents are undoubtedly confronted with the problem of the Jewish education of their children. There are some parents who prefer private instruction in Hebrew for their children. For their benefit, Rabbi Lookstein, will be glad to recommend well trained and qualified teachers to whom the instruction of the young may safely and profitably be entrusted. These teachers will be selected from among the senior students of the Yeshiva College and the Hebrew Teachers Training School for Girls. Any requests in this matter will receive the prompt attention of the Rabbi.

CONGREGATIONAL SINGING

Our Cantor Rev. Jacob Jacobowitz urgently requests the worshippers to join in the congregational singing at all services. Not only will that improve and beautify the services generally, but will add to the prayers a deep inspirational quality which will prove most enjoyable.

It is intended that this Bulletin will be issued monthly and will contain among its regular features a social news column. We should like to receive from our members and seatholders notice of social events in their families for insertion in this column.

It might be well to repeat here that no individual congratulatory announcements will hereafter be made by the Rabbis from the pulpit.
