FOR THE CHILDREN

One of the features of the Simchas Torah festival this year will be the formal participation of the children in the services and Hakofos on Tuesday evening, October 14th.

The children's Hakofos procession will be led by Mr. Irving Goldberger who is leader of the Children's Services conducted on Saturday mornings.

The Sisterhood will act as hostess and will distribute appropriate holiday gifts to all the children.

Be sure to bring your children to Hakofos !

A SUCCAH SOCIABLE

Members of the Sisterhood and their husbands are cordially invited to the Succah Sociable of the Sisterhood which will be held on Friday evening, October 10th at 8:30 in the Succah of the synagogue.

A real holiday good time is assured to all.

WELCOME TO THE SUCCAH

Our worshippers are cordially invited to the synagogue Succah where Kiddush will be served after all holiday services.

The Succah provisions and decorations this year were arranged by the Sisterhood, a committee of which will act as hostesses at every Kiddush.

TO THE PARENTS

REMINDER

With the opening of the general school season, many parents are undoubtedly confronted with the problem of the Jewish education of their children. There are some parents who prefer private instruction in Hebrew for their children. For their benefit, Rabbi Lookstein, will be glad to recommend well trained and qualified teachers to whom the instruction of the young may safely and profitably be entrusted. These teachers will be selected from among the senior students of the Yeshiva College and the Hebrew Teachers Training School for Girls. Any requests in this matter will receive the prompt attention of the Rabbi.
