Mollie Picon to Entertain at our Dinner Dance

We are very happy to announce that through the efforts of Mr. Margareten we were able to obtain Miss Mollie Picon, internationally known Jewish stage star, to appear at our Dinner Dance with a special program of songs and dramatic bits. To hear Miss Picon alone is worth the price of five dollars and we are giving for that price in addition an entire dinner and dance. So don't delay and send in your reservations.

What a Man

Our esteemed Trustee, Bernard Feifer, handed to Mr. Margareten, one hundred dollars in cash which he obtained for advertisements for the Souvenir Journal of our Dinner Dance to be held on January 12th. "That's only a beginning," said Mr. Feifer. To which we add, "may others follow your example."

Incidentally we are also happy to report that Mr. Ben Gottfried sent in signed Ad blanks to the amount of $100.00 which he obtained from friends and business associates for our Souvenir Journal. Good work Ben and keep it up.
