Unveiling

The unveiling of the stone in memory of the late George M. Hyman, scheduled to be held in Union Fields Cemetery, October 10th, has been postponed until this Sunday, October 17th, at 3 P.M.

Outsiders-Looking-In

It has often been urged that religion imposes a burden on its adherents. Religion has been described variously as a hardship, a difficulty, an almost utter impossibility,—particularly for the American scene and in our modern progressive civilization.

This is definitely the view only of those who are "outsiders-looking-in". To those who observe, to those who are affiliated with orthodox institutions, and who breathe its atmosphere, to those who actively participate in the incidents of our Jewish faith, there comes a joy that is uplifting, an inspiration that exalts and permeates our little worlds with ideas that have meaning and a message which translates our loves into something more beautiful, more thoughtful, and more beneficial to humanity.

MRS. DAVID S. ANDRON,
Executive Director.

The Talmud Class

In line with the old tradition of the Beth Hamedrash, Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun has once again inaugurated its weekly "Chevra Shas". This group, under the personal leadership of our own Rabbi Joseph Lookstein, met for its first session on Monday evening, October 11th. We urge all our members and friends who are interested in the study of Talmud "lishmoh" to gather regularly at our Monday evening class at 8:30, to help make our House of Worship a House of Study too, and give the Congregation a bit of the age-old "Yavneh" tradition.

THE DINNER-DANCE

Do you know the new telephone number of the Synagogue? It is ATwater 9-5760. We suggest that you sit down now at your telephone table, and call Mrs. Andron to tell her to reserve a table for you and your friends, at the "outstanding event of the season" . . . the Kehilath Jeshurun Dinner-Dance, scheduled for December 12th in the Rainbow Room, Rockefeller Center.

Sisterhood Holds First Meeting

The first membership meeting of the Sisterhood was held in the Social Hall, Monday afternoon, October 11th. The following calendar of interesting events was presented and enthusiastically received.

Oct. 25th—Harvest Luncheon in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. Moving pictures depicting Jewish life, taken in our own Synagogue, will be shown. Raffle of a lovely silver pin, made and donated by Mrs. Fanny Reif will be held.

Nov. 8th—Social meeting and Tea, at the home of Mrs. Jacob H. Alpert.

Nov. 22nd—Meeting in Social Hall. Program of entertainment.

Dec. 6th—Rally and Tea at the home of Mrs. William Goodman.

Rabbi Lookstein delivered an address. His message was replete with inspiration, and his subject was the Ramaz Academy—its importance and contribution to our lives as well as to those of our children. Dr. Annette Rubenstein reviewed Kronin's newest book, "Citadel", and Maxwell Anderson's play, "The Star Wagon". The afternoon was most enjoyable. Sisterhood members who weren't present are cordially urged to come to the next get-together, the Harvest Luncheon on October 25th.

A New Member

We are happy indeed to cordially welcome Dr. A. D. Kaplan of 145 East 92nd Street, as a new member in our Kehilath Jeshurun Family. We know that his affiliation with the Congregation will add considerably to the welfare of our organization, and contribute a great measure of happiness and inspiration to him and his family.

General Membership Meeting

Next Wednesday evening, October 20th, the first general membership meeting of the season will be held in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. On the agenda will be: the semi-annual financial report, the Dinner-Dance, a report of the Ramaz Academy, the appointment of the Ramaz Academy Advisory Committee.

Members are requested to show their sincerity and closeness with the Synagogue by attending this important meeting, which will begin promptly at 8:30.

A Call for Assistance and Cooperation

A business men's Refugee Committee has been organized to assist Shomre Hadath in carrying on its work of helping the Sabbath observing refugees to find positions and to adjust themselves in the Orthodox Jewish Community. These refugees continue to come over in large numbers, and those who want to observe the Sabbath meet with great difficulty. A telephone call or letter to the employment secretary, Miss Nell Ziff, 120 Wall Street, (WHitehall 4-6546), will be given immediate attention.
