Congratulations

Our very best wishes are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Gold who have joyously announced the birth of a son at the Woman's Hospital, on Saturday, Dec. 4th. May the Almighty bless the happy family and grant them many many years of simchoth.

Have You Forgotten?

Have you forgotten to send a contribution to the office for the Kehilath Jeshurun Benevolent Fund? Many destitute people are depending upon this "Chanukah gelt", and we therefore urge you, if you have forgotten, to please send in your donation without further delay.

Ramaz Academy

A most inspiring Chanukah program was presented by the children of the Ramaz Academy last Sunday morning in the Auditorium of the Synagogue.

The program began with the impressive lighting of the Chanukah light by little Haskel Lookstein, with the entire School acting as the chorus. Then came a selection of Hebrew songs rendered by the children, which were followed by the splendid presentation of "Danny Bumps into Chanukah", a really delightful play. The little stars in the cast were: Larry Pearce, Haskel Lookstein, Naomi Jacobs, Arthur Rosenfeld, Bernard Koenigsberg, Stanley Sheinblum, Shirley Adler, Naomi Samuel, all of whom performed excellently.

An interesting message was delivered by Dr. David Andron, and greetings were extended by Miss Rose Fredda Cohen, senior teacher, and by Mrs. George Jacobs, president of the Parent-Teacher Association. Chanukah gifts were distributed to all the children, and delicious lotkes graciously donated by Mrs. M. Messing, one of the mothers, were distributed to the parents and the many guests.

Everybody agreed that the entire celebration was most enjoyable, most inspiring and one of the most delightful programs they had ever witnessed.

Hebrew Teachers Training School For Girls — Open Meeting

The Hebrew Teacher's Training School for Girls cordially invites members and friends of the Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun to attend an open annual membership meeting and school convocation on Tuesday evening, December 14th, at 8 o'clock, in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. There will be in addition to an interesting business session, a fine musical program, election of officers and directors, and a pleasant social hour during which refreshments will be served.

Before the Curtain Rises

There are just two days left before our affair. For weeks, members, friends of the Congregation, the Sisterhood, the Men's Club, and everyone else to whom the life of Kehilath Jeshurun is dear, have been busy and occupied, working incessantly, getting ads, disposing of tickets, and helping in every way to assure the success of the Dinner Dance.

The curtain is about to rise. December 12th is immediately before us. All the effort, activities, imagination, and enthusiasm that were brought to the venture have resulted in an overwhelming and unprecedented success.

During the past week we could not accept any further reservations because we had reached capacity, and accordingly had to close our reservation books. We wish to voice our sincere acknowledgement to Mrs. Samuel Levy, the chairman of the Dinner Dance, under whose able leadership we were able to achieve our goal.

The Journal will be one of the most impressive and valuable features of the entire celebration. We wish to express our earnest appreciation to Mr. Ben Gottfried, chairman of the Journal, who together with his very capable Committee and their associates, has assisted us in translating our hopes into concrete achievements.

And now we shall advance to the program of the evening. The guests have arrived — there is much joyous conversation — excitement — talk of success — happiness and gaiety — congenial atmosphere — friends greeting one another. The dinner has been served and many couples are dancing. Suddenly everybody is hushed, expectant — they have heard of the show, they have heard that Mr. Jan Peerce, eminent star of Radio City Music Hall, acclaimed as one of the most glorious tenors of our time will be one of the featured guests; and then — then, Dan Eberstein, our Chairman of the Program Committee presents something unusual, something delightful, a program you will not forget for a long, long time, — a program of entertainment that will hold you in its spell until the night has passed!

Sunday night, December 12th at the Rainbow Room, we look forward to the pleasure of greeting you and of being your host at the most outstanding event of the season.

Sisterhood Plans Bazaar

Now that all the excitement and the preparation for the Dinner Dance is at an end, the members of the Sisterhood are concentrating on their approaching Bazaar. New merchandise of all kinds will be sold, and members of the Congregation in business are requested to kindly send discarded numbers, samples, seconds, anything that can be spared to the Synagogue office care of the Sisterhood. All contributions will be greatly appreciated, and YOUR little bit will go a long way toward helping the Sisterhood make a financial success of the Bazaar.

Sisterhood Meetings

Ensuing meetings of the Sisterhood will be conducted on:—

JANUARY 10—At the home of Mrs. Fred Margareten, 20 West 86th Street.

JANUARY 24—In the Social Hall . . . informal meeting, followed by Bridge.

FEBRUARY 7—At the home of Mrs. Jos. H. Lookstein, 119 East 84th Street.

Members are urged to record these dates on their calendars and to surely attend all meetings. The Board has endeavored to make the meetings as interesting as possible, and many pleasant afternoons are to be anticipated.
