Among the Graduates

We wish to congratulate Miss Judith Wald and Miss Joan Roeder both of whom are graduating this term, and to extend our sincerest good wishes for successful careers and outstanding achievement in the schools of higher learning.

Happy Occasions Celebrated This Week

Mazelto

On Sunday our synagogue will be the scene of a happy and joyous simcha. Miss Gertrude Frederica Bornstein, daughter of our dear Treasurer of the Congregation, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bornstein, will be married by our own Rabbi Joseph Lookstein to Mr. Sidney George Mills. The ceremony will be held in the synagogue at 2 o'clock, and will be followed by a reception in the Social Hall.

All of our members and friends join us in wishing the young people a long life together of happiness and prosperity and a beautiful Jewish home life permeated with the true traditional spirit of their parents. Any may the nachas enjoyed by the happy families be everlasting.

It's A Boy!

Mazelto and sincerest good wishes are extended to our Associate Trustee Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nightingale, who have joyously announced the birth of a little son at the Doctor's Hospital last Thursday. We know that this fine little fellow will bring added joy and happiness to his dear parents, and to his loving grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Leibowitz and Mrs. Fanny Nightingale.

It's A Boy Here Too!

Mr. and Mrs. I. Fitz Levy are to be congratulated upon the happy arrival of a little son on Saturday, January 29th at the Lenox Hill Hospital. To the little newcomer, to his delighted parents, and to his happy grandmother, Mrs. M. Bernard, we extend our sincerest felicitations and best wishes for continued simchas.

SISTERHOOD TO HOLD NOVEL LUNCHEON MONDAY

On Monday the members of the Sisterhood will gather at noon in the Social Hall of the synagogue to enjoy a most delicious and tempting luncheon and to spend a delightful afternoon together.

The nominal price of $1.25 has been set, so that everyone who would like to participate in the function can come and invite their friends as well. Card playing and games will follow Luncheon. Several novel features will be inaugurated.

A large crowd is expected and a wonderful afternoon is anticipated by all. WILL YOU BE THERE?

About the Bazaar and Rummage Sale

Mrs. William Goodman, chairman of the Bazaar-Rummage Sale reports that a number of the men folk were surprised this week by unexpected visits in their offices by their wives and other charming ladies, who, on behalf of our coming Bazaar-Rummage Sale, invaded their downtown havens of refuge and came forth triumphantly laden with packages. As one generous husband laughingly said, "They came, they saw, and they TOOK!"

Friends! The time is drawing near now when we shall open the doors of our store for the sale. DO NOT DELAY ANY LONGER! Send us those remnants, old samples, discarded and discontinued numbers that YOU HAVE BEEN SAVING FOR US, or just saving for no good reason. MAKE THE OCCASION OF THE BAZAAR THAT "GOOD REASON."

Junior League to Be Organized

The organizing meeting of the "Junior League" of Kehilath Jeshurun will be held one night next week in the form of an informal, social evening at the home of Mrs. Andron, 490 West End Ave. The group, headed by an enthusiastic and capable pair, Jerome Margaretten and Miss Helene Cohen, will be made up of boys and girls of high-school age. We'll tell you more about it next week.

Ramaz Academy Notes

The Parents-Teachers Association of the Ramaz Academy held an interesting meeting on Wednesday evening in the Social Hall.

A most interesting talk on the importance of "Reading to Learn" was rendered by Miss Rose Freda Cohen, Senior Teacher. Demonstrating her talk with charts used in the classroom, Miss Cohen's message to the parents was most informative.

Glowing reports of the progress and development of the Academy were rendered.
