Classes this Week

Monday Night—The Talmud class will meet in the Synagogue library at 8:30 o'clock.

Tuesday Night—The Class in Customs and Ceremonies will meet in the library at 8:30 sharp. It is gratifying that so large a group of men and women have been attending these sessions. The classes are a source of inspiration and are of keen interest to young and old. All are welcome.

Pleasant Trip to Mrs. Gottfried

We are very happy to record that Mrs. Elias Gottfried has fully recovered from her recent illness and is enjoying good health again. And we wish to extend our best wishes for a pleasant and healthful vacation during her visit to Miami Beach.

Opening of Bazaar - Rummage Sale

The Bazaar will open its doors officially the beginning of this week. Full particulars as to when and where the Bazaar-Rummage Sale will be held will be sent to you in advance of opening date. In the meantime, if you want to send us any merchandise, if you wish to help in the store, if you would like to cooperate in any way, call the Synagogue office, ATwater 9-5760. And please don't forget, we still need lots of merchandise, new and old. We shall be very glad to have any rummage you have about your house that you can spare!

Welcome to New Member

We are very happy to welcome Mr. Hyman L. Rosenthal as a new member of the Congregation family. We are confident that his affiliation with the Synagogue will contribute considerably toward the constructive program of our Institution. It is our sincere hope that he will find inspiration and joy in being one of us.

Young People's League

On Monday evening, March 7th, the Young People's League will hold a most interesting meeting and social get-together in the Synagogue Auditorium. The program for the evening will include

Sisterhood Meeting Well Attended

The meeting of the Sisterhood, held last Monday at the home of Mrs. Lookstein, was well attended by an enthusiastic group of members. Arrangements for the immediate opening of the Bazaar-Rummage Sale were made. The Sisterhood has also decided to wind up the season's activities with an elaborate Tea and Fashion Show, to be held in one of the big hotels.

Ramaz Academy Parent-Teacher Association Meeting on Wednesday Evening

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy is conducting a most interesting meeting in the Synagogue Social Hall on Wednesday evening, March 9th. The speaker of the evening will be one of the teachers, Mrs. Louis Seigel, who will address the gathering on "New Yorkisms in American Speech."

Members of the Congregation, Sisterhood, Men's Club . . . in fact, all interested friends of the Academy, are cordially invited to come. The meeting will start promptly at 8:30.

11 Girl Scouts Pass First Exams

Eleven girls took their Tenderfoot exams this week, and all eleven received a 100% score, entitling them to the right of wearing the official Scout uniform and badge. Those who established this perfect record are: Rosanne Wolff, Joan Scheer, Emilie Moos, Gozela Adler, Nathalie Lookstein, Amy Hirschfield, Enid Somers, Marion Fromm, Ruth Katz, Ann Adelson and Rosalind Grossman.

The Girl Scout troop is one of the newly established organizations affiliated with Kehilath Jeshurun. It is under the capable leadership of Miss Mildred Cohen.
