Dr. Honig Guest Preacher This Saturday

Dr. Sidney B. Honig will occupy the pulpit this Sabbath in the absence of Rabbi Lookstein, who is attending the Mizrahi Zionist Convention in Atlantic City. Dr. Honig is a graduate of the Yeshiva and holds a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Dropsie College in Philadelphia. He is the author of several scholarly works, director of the Young Israel Institute for Jewish studies, and is an instructor in Jewish history at the Yeshiva College and the Hebrew Teachers Training School for Girls. Dr. Honig is a very interesting preacher and his sermon this Sabbath should not be missed by our body of worshippers.

Sisterhood to Meet Monday

The Sisterhood will conduct an important meeting on Monday, May 9th, at the home of Mrs. Harvey Gardner, 350 Central Park West. This meeting will be the final one before the TEA-FASHION SHOW and BRIDGE, which is to be held at Sherry's on May 17th. All Sisterhood members are urged to attend this meeting, to bring reports on the disposal of tickets for the TEA and the "Vacation at the Mountain House". The meeting will start promptly at 1:45 P.M.

Judge Katz's Son to Celebrate Bar Mitzvah This Shabbas

Norman Katz, son of Judge and Mrs. Samuel M. Katz, will become Bar Mitzvah in our synagogue this Shabbas. The Congregation congratulates Norman and his happy parents and wishes them continued joy and happiness. The Men's Club, of which Judge Katz is the president, and the Sisterhood extend their felicitations as well, and urge all their members and friends to attend the services this Saturday morning, and to participate in the simcha of the Judge and his family.

Annual Membership Meeting

President Margaretten And Entire Slate
Re-elected; Bernard Feifer Made
Honorary Trustee For Life

Close to fifty trustees and members attended the annual meeting last Wednesday night in the Social Hall, and we were happy to see many new faces among those of our older members. A very fine spirit of cooperation, sincere interest and earnestness prevailed throughout the evening.

Mr. Samuel Kaplan, acting as Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the slate of officers for the new year. Mr. Frederick Margaretten as President, Mr. Herbert Roeder as Vice-President, Mr. Thomas Bornstein as Treasurer, and Mr. Harry Etra as Secretary, were unanimously re-elected for another year. Mr. Herbert Roeder nominated Mr. Bernard Feifer as honorary trustee for life, in recognition of his splendid and tireless service to the synagogue for a period of thirty-five years. The election of Mr. Feifer was unanimous. Mr. A. S. Phillips was elected to the Board of Trustees, and Jacob D. Cohen, Abraham Polstein, Samuel M. Kaplan, Dr. Henry Rafsky and Thomas Bornstein were re-elected to the Board for a term of three years.

The financial statement was rendered by Mr. Sidney B. Kahn, the official synagogue accountant. Votes of thanks were extended to the Sisterhood for its great assistance during the past year, and to Mrs. David Andron for her constructive efforts on behalf of the synagogue program.

Rabbi Lookstein in his remarks at the close of the meeting, explained the need for the return of old-fashioned, personal charity, and displayed the new "tzdorkoh" boxes. He blessed the officers, trustees and members and expressed the prayer that they would be privileged to continue their splendid work on behalf of the synagogue and the entire Jewish community.

Parent-Teachers Association to Meet Wednesday Evening

On Wednesday evening, May 11th, the Parent-Teachers Association of the Ramaz Academy will hold a most important meeting in the synagogue library. The meeting will start at 8:30 promptly. All parents and friends of the Ramaz Academy are cordially invited to attend this meeting at which numerous interesting plans for the future will be presented.
