Herbert Roeder on Ramaz Advisory Board

Mr. Frederick Margareten, president of the congregation, announces the appointment of Herbert J. Roeder, the congregation's vice-president, to the Advisory Board of the Ramaz Academy. Mr. Roeder will, together with Dr. Henry A. Ratsky appointed last year, represent the congregation on this Board.

Sisterhood Fashion Show Great Success

The Fashion Show, Tea and Bridge which was held by the Sisterhood at Sherry's last Tuesday, was the most successful function that the organization held in a long time. Socially and financially, the affair was another indication that the Sisterhood knows how to plan and how to execute well laid plans. The congregation's women folk were all there. The best and the oldest families of the congregation were represented and the spirit and atmosphere that prevailed augurs well for the future.

In the absence of Mrs. Edward Bernard who, because of the illness of her husband, had to relinquish some of her duties as chairman ten days ago, the work was taken over by Mrs. Harvey Gardner and Mrs. Samuel Gross who labored diligently and effectively. The organization expresses its gratitude to them, for their splendid service.

To Mrs. Bernard who did all the preliminary work of planning and preparing, go the organization's good wishes that her husband may speedily be restored to good health, so that she and all the members of the Bernard family may with happy hearts and free minds continue serving the congregation.

Dinner-Dance Scheduled for December

Negotiations will shortly be completed for the fourth annual dinner-dance of the congregation which will be held some time in December. The date and place will soon be announced. Wherever and whenever it will be held, our congregants and friends may look forward to a fitting repetition of our successful affairs in the past.

Our Condolences to Mrs. Rosenthal

We express our heartiest sympathies to Mrs. H. L. Rosenthal on the passing of her sister, Ida Rosenthal. The deceased was a daughter of the late Samuel Grodinsky, one of the pioneers of Kehilath Jeshurun and one of its most esteemed members for many years. We convey to Mrs. Rosenthal and to all the members of the Grodinsky family our hopes that they may be spared all further sorrow for many years to come.

This will be the first meeting of the new administration and the trustees old and new, are expected to attend. Mr. Margaretan announces that beginning with this meeting, which will most probably be the closing one for this season, regular meetings of the board will be held next season the last Wednesday of every month.

Training School Women's Organization Will Hold Meeting

The Women's Organization of the Hebrew Teachers Training School for Girls, of which Rabbi Lookstein is principal, will meet in the social hall of the synagogue on Tuesday, May 24th, at 2 P.M. At that meeting officers will be elected for the year and a plan for further activity will be presented. The women of the congregation will be very welcome at this meeting and they are urged to affiliate with this new organization, dedicated to the support of the only orthodox girls' seminary in the country.

Registration for Ramaz Academy

New students may already be enrolled in the Ramaz Academy for the new school year to begin in September. Children may be enrolled in the kindergarten, first year, second year, third year and fourth year. Rabbi Lookstein will be glad to confer with any parents regarding enrollment. The advantages of the Ramaz Academy are by this time quite well known and members of the congregation, as well as all residents of the neighborhood, are urged to avail themselves of these advantages for their children.
