Edward Bernard of Blessed Memory

The entire congregation was shaken by the untimely death of Eddie Bernard, the esteemed and well liked member of the congregation who, in the last few years, has won a place in the hearts and affection of the entire membership.

This fact was very visible not only in the eulogy of Rabbi Lookstein, but also in the outpouring of the membership of the congregation, Sisterhood and Men's Club who filled every available space in the Riverside Memorial Chapel and even filled the corridors. The oldest members of the congregation were there to pay respect to their young colleague and to share in the sorrow of the Bernard Family. The feeling could everywhere be sensed that one of the best sons of Kehilath Jeshurun was taken from our midst and our congregational family was left bereaved.

We express here once again our sincerest sympathies to his dear wife and children, to his beloved mother and to his devoted brother and sisters. May the Almighty comfort them in their hour of sorrow and may He keep all further grief from their door for many years to come.

Bulletin Closing Number Next Week

Next week with the appearance of the Shevuoth number, the Bulletin will discontinue publication for the balance of the season and will reappear again shortly before the High Holidays.

Ramaz Lag B'Omer Outing

The children of the Ramaz Academy made Tibbetts Brook Park look like a Palestinian prairie at their outing last Wednesday. Arriving in a large bus accompanied by their teachers and a number of mothers of the children, they took possession of the park and enjoyed a regular field day and picnic party. There were games and contests and of course, ice cream and lolly-pops and all things that delight the hearts of children. Incidentally, the ice cream was the gift of Rabbi Lookstein who promised it to the children as a prize when they "stole the Afikomon" at the model seder that he conducted for them. The lolly-pops were given by Mrs. George Jacobs in honor of the birthday of her daughter Naomi, who is a student at the Academy.

A Hint to the Generous

Our stock of prayer books, machzorim and talesim is running low and we pass this information along to those who are seeking a fitting way of serving the synagogue and its worshippers. For services to be orderly and decorous every worshipper should hold a uniform prayer book and every male worshipper should wear a talis. A call to the synagogue office will bring the necessary information as to cost and quality. Mr. Adler may be seen for this information as well.

Incidentally, many of the books in the synagogue library need binding badly and a contribution to the book-binding fund will be greatly appreciated. Here is a fine opportunity with the approach of Yizkor services on Shevuoth to make a useful donation in memory of a dear departed one.

Training School Bridge

The Women's Organization of the Hebrew Teachers Training School for Girls will hold a bridge in the social hall of the synagogue on Wednesday, June 1st, at 2 o'clock. The subscription is only $1.00 and the proceeds will go entirely to further the work of the institution. Refreshments will be served and prizes offered. Tickets may be obtained by phoning the synagogue office or at the door the afternoon of the party.
