Mr. Goldman Responds

In response to our appeal in last week's bulletin for the book and talesim fund, a generous contribution was received from our esteemed member, Mr. Herman Goldman who made his donation in memory of his recently deceased nephew, Arthur Rothstein. Our heartiest thanks to Mr. Goldman and we hope that others may follow his example and donate towards this fund in memory of some departed dear one.

Bulletin Bids You Farewell

With this issue, the Kehilath Jeshurun Bulletin discontinues publication for the summer and will appear again shortly before the High Holidays. The Bulletin bids all its readers a very happy and healthful summer.

Shovuoth in the Synagogue

Our synagogue, as usual, will be fittingly decorated in honor of the Shovuoth Holiday. The Sisterhood is in charge of the floral decorations and they promise to make the synagogue look like a veritable garden. We are expecting a large attendance both days of the holiday to share with us in the beauty of the festival.

On Saturday night after dinner, at 9:30, the old custom of saying "Tikkun" will be observed in the synagogue. As usual of course, to the religious part of the evening will be added the social, with smokes, drinks and other holiday refreshments provided in abundance. All men are cordially invited.

Ramaz Academy Completes First School Year

On Friday, June 17th, with the close of sessions, the Ramaz Academy will complete the first year of its existence. According to the opinion of a prominent educator sent down by Prof. Joseph G. Cohen, the school's consultant, to visit the school and observe its progress, the Ramaz Academy is definitely established as one of the best private schools in the city.

Registration is already in progress for the new school year to begin in September. Rabbi Lookstein may be seen every morning in his office at the synagogue for information and particulars that parents may seek. A kindergarten, first, second, third and fourth years will be available when the new school year begins. Before your children leave for camp and before you leave for the summer, come in and make the necessary arrangements for your children's educational future.

The Rabbi's at Home

Rabbi and Mrs. Lookstein will be at home to the members and friends of the congregation on Monday, the second day of Shovuoth, from 3 to 6, in the afternoon. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Sisterhood Closing Meeting

The closing meeting of the season will be held by the Sisterhood of the congregation on Monday, June 13th, at 1:30 p.m. in the social hall of the synagogue. A full report will be submitted by the president of the year's activities and the budget for the new year will be presented by the Budget Committee. Election of officers and board members will also take place. The "drawing" for the vacation at the Catskill Mountain House will be held at the close of the meeting. Members of the organization and women of the congregation who would like to join, will all be welcome and are urged to come.

Social Convention and Week-end House Party at Andron's Mountain House

The Young People's League is participating in a social convention and week-end house party sponsored by the Young Folks Leagues of various synagogues and organizations. This "unconventional" convention affords young people the opportunity of meeting other young people in a delightful and congenial atmosphere and having a grand and glorious time.

The fun starts early Friday afternoon, June 24 and continues through a gala Sunday night supper-dance on June 26.

The all-inclusive nominal charge is $10.50 per person, which includes a rebate to each organization. For further information call Nat Kogan, WH 4-0999

Ramaz Children to Present Play and Dance Recital

As a closing function of the Ramaz Academy school year, the children will present a play and Dance Recital on Wednesday June 15th at 1 p. m. in the Social Hall. In connection with this presentation, the children have published a school paper called "The Ramaz Annual" which will be distributed that afternoon. Mothers of the children and all women of the Congregation are cordially invited.

Get Your Rummage Ready

As you prepare to leave for the summer, you will most probably be discarding wearing apparel, house furnishings and other various things about the house. Whatever you may have no use for will be saleable at the Rummage Sale that the Sisterhood will hold next season, Please, therefore, save all these discards and if you phone the synagogue or drop us a card, we will be glad to send for them.
