Children's Services to be Resumed

The Children's Saturday Morning Services, so well-attended and enthusiastically received last year, will be resumed on November 12th, at 10:30 A.M. These services are conducted in Hebrew and in English, and the children participate in Congregational singing. Bible stories are told and ethical messages imparted to them by their able leader, Charles Schlang. A "Kiddush" concludes the services.

Send your children to these special services so that they may be inspired through their own participation in a Jewish religious ceremony and in a manner attractive and interesting to them.

Sisterhood News

Plans for an active year will be discussed at the first meeting of the Sisterhood, to be held Monday, October 31st, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Lookstein, 106 East 85th Street.

All members are not only invited but are urged to attend, and may feel free to bring as many friends as they wish. A cordial welcome will be extended to everyone.

The guest speaker is a gentleman of note; the former editor and publisher of Parents' Advisor Magazine and at the present time is Guest Lecturer of the Board of Education Forums, representing the Federal Theatre. DR. J. L. RAZEY will speak on "CURRENT PLAYS of the FEDERAL THEATRE".

Do not miss an opportunity to spend a truly enjoyable afternoon. Show your interest in your Sisterhood and your loyalty to your Synagogue by attending this meeting.

Remember!

The TALMUD CLASS will hold the first session of its third year Monday evening, October 31st, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Library of the Synagogue.

These classes are under the leadership of Rabbi Lookstein who expounds the Talmud in a most interesting manner.

ALL MEN ARE WELCOME.

SAMUEL LEVY BECOMES DINNER-DANCE CHAIRMAN

"But Everybody Must Cooperate" He Says In Accepting

Mr. Samuel Levy, favorite son of Kehilath Jeshurun, accepted the chairmanship of the dinner-dance to be held this year at the Plaza Hotel on Sunday night, December 18th.

His acceptance was received over the telephone by Rabbi Lookstein to whom he said, "Mrs. Levy had it last year and enjoyed it so much, that I cannot easily let it out of the family."

He was very enthusiastic about the prospects of this year's affair and expects all of our trustees and the entire membership to join with him and cooperate in making this year's affair a memorable one, financially and socially.

A dinner committee is now being formed which will soon be called, to meet with the chairman.

When Mr. Margareten, president of the congregation, upon his return from the West was informed of Mr. Levy's acceptance, he said, "We are all most grateful to Mr. Levy for assuming leadership in an undertaking which means so much to the congregation in carrying on its program of religious and educational work. We feel honored and heartened by the splendid spirit his acceptance shows."

Our membership, Sisterhood, Men's Club and Young Folks League should now get fully behind the chairman and make this affair the greatest and most outstanding event of many years.

HAVE YOU A CHILD OF KINDERGARTEN AGE?

The kindergarten of the Ramaz Academy is available for all children from the ages of four to six. A progressive program of activities is offered to the children, incorporating Hebrew and English features, beautifully blended and properly integrated.

Arts and crafts, music, dramatics and a good deal of supervised outdoor play are provided. The hours of attendance are from 9 to 12:30.

Parents who are interested may fill out the following form and obtain full information:

I should like to meet a representative of the Ramaz Academy for full information about it. If possible, I should like to arrange to visit the kindergarten.

Parent Teacher Association of Ramaz Academy

The first meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy will be held Wednesday, November 9th, at 8 P.M., in the Social Hall of the Synagogue.

Here is an opportunity for you to meet the new teachers on our Faculty and to renew acquaintances with old ones. Reports of School activities will be given, and Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein, Principal of the Ramaz Academy, will address the guests. Refreshments will of course be served, followed by a Social Hour.

ENCOURAGE THE ENTHUSIASM OF YOUR CHILD BY SHOWING HIM YOUR INTEREST IN HIS SCHOOL.

(Mrs. George) Lillian Jacobs,
President.

Girl Scout Leader Needed

Any young lady, with girl scout experience, eager to lead an active group, may apply to the office of the Congregation.

Appeal for Red Cross

The Red Cross is making its Annual Appeal for funds. Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun proposes to take an earnest part in that campaign. This year above all others the Red Cross needs funds.

You will be called upon by various organizations for your contribution; we earnestly request you to make your contribution through Kehilath Jeshurun.

We appeal for a generous response.

(Mrs. Henry A.)

Young Folks League

A large and enthusiastic group, under the leadership of NATHAN D. KOGAN, President, met in the Social Hall of the Synagogue Monday evening, October 24th. A very active program was outlined and standing committees appointed. Foremost amongst their objectives is to provide a FREE SCHOLARSHIP to a German Refugee child, in the RAMAZ ACADEMY.

Plans to actively participate in the Dinner Dance project, and particularly in the sale of tickets for the Reception after the Dinner, are in full sway.

Good luck to you, Young Folks League!
