Tickets for the Bridge and Tea, to be held November 28th, at the Hotel Croyden, 12 East 86th Street, have been distributed. There will be Mah Jong, Bingo, Bridge! Anyone who has attended Sisterhood functions knows what a delightful time is had. Then, too, the proceeds of this affair will go towards the new Kitchen the Sisterhood plans to build. So, ladies, keep the date open. You will be doing two good deeds at one time: enjoying yourself and helping your organization.

Children's Services

Great enthusiasm prevailed at the first session of the Children's Services, held last Saturday morning. Master Haskel Lookstein, acted as first Cantor; Master Matthews Zuckerman as second Cantor, and Joseph Backer as President. After the Kiddush Mrs. Fishberg, a mother of one of the congregants, distributed candy to all. Many thanks, Mrs. Fishberg, for your generosity!

Mr. Charles Schlang, leader of the services, is eager for a larger attendance. Children, come and bring your friends. Parents, send your children to us, every Saturday morning, at 10:30 sharp.

Rabbi Lookstein to Conclude Talk on "Balfour Declaration"

Those who attended services last Saturday will look forward with eagerness to the conclusion of Rabi Lookstein's discussion on "The Balfour Declaration," this Saturday morning. In his first lecture Rabbi Lookstein gave the historic background of the Balfour Declaration and the early pioneering efforts of the Jews to build up Eretz Israel. This week we will learn of the operation of the Balfour Declaration in practice under the Mandate.

An interested group of young ladies and men met in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. Mr. Nat Kogan, President, presided at a short meeting, during which future plans were discussed.

Dr. Al Winter, Chairman of the Cultural Program Committee, announced that a Forum, at which notable speakers would be invited, was being arranged for.
