Parent-Teacher Association Meeting

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy will meet Tuesday evening, December 20th, at 8 o'clock, in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. BENJAMIN BRICKMAN, Supervisor of the Ramaz Academy and a member of the Department of Education of Brooklyn College will be the guest speaker. Members and their friends are invited to attend.

LAST CALL

Have YOU sent in your reservation for the DINNER DANCE? Have YOU spoken to your family and friends about the BIG EVENT? You cannot — you MUST not — fail to be one of the participants at this GALA AFFAIR. With this issue goes the LAST CALL for reservations. Hurry, if you have neglected to notify us, and phone the office at once, for reservations.

HOTEL PLAZA!!!

Need anything more be said as to the atmosphere?

MUSIC!!!

CHARLES ECKLE and his orchestra — and how they play!!!

ENTERTAINMENT!!!

PAULINE ALPERT, Whirlwind Pianist of Radio, who recently was invited to Washington to play at the White House; BOBBY MILLER, of Radio fame, who will charm you with her singing; and a host of others, whom Daniel Eberstein, Chairman of Entertainment, has arranged for.

Mr. Eberstein insists this year's list of artists will far surpass any other.

There is so much to look forward to! We urge you not to miss the BIG NIGHT of December 18th.

Reception and Dance

Young Folks, Attention! You all know about the Reception and Dance immediately following the Dinner. Have you made the necessary arrangements for spending Sunday evening, December 18th at the Hotel Plaza? That night will remain indelibly imprinted on your mind for a long, long time. Why? Because plans for the most wonderful affair of the season have been made and will be fulfilled. You cannot afford to miss this event. Come at 9 o'clock, witness the glorious entertainment, participate in the dancing and partake of the refreshments. Come, enjoy yourself. Bring your friends and let them, too, spend a delightful ne'er-to-be-forgotten evening.

NO RESERVATIONS ARE NECESSARY
ADMISSION — TWO DOLLARS PER PERSON

Sisterhood News

RABBI JOSEPH H. LOOKSTEIN TO ADDRESS CHANUKAH MEETING

With Chanukah approaching, the Sisterhood has planned a "Latke" party for Monday, December 19th, in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. All members and their friends are cordially invited to attend as guests of the hostesses — Mesdames Lookstein and Adler. Rabbi Lookstein will address the meeting giving a Chanukah message. Definite plans for the CAKE SALE will be discussed and plans for the forthcoming BAZAAR AND RUMMAGE SALE will be formulated.

Come, participate, and enjoy the spirit of Chanukah with your sister-members. The luncheon will start promptly at 12:30 o'clock. The hostesses urge you to be there on time.

William Kapelman to Address Young People's League

"CAN DEMOCRACY SOLVE THE JEWISH PROBLEM?" will be the subject of the address given by WILLIAM KAPELMAN, member of the Speakers' Committee of the American Jewish Congress, at the next meeting of the Young People's League, Monday, December 19th, at 8:30 o'clock. An invitation is extended to all members and their friends and to all those interested in joining the League to attend. The League meets every other Monday night, in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. A social hour and refreshments follow each meeting.

Congratulations

Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun extends sincere congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob D. Cohen upon the marriage of their son Irving to Miss Sylvia Jacobson. We wish the young couple a life of supreme happiness. May the proud and happy parents continue to celebrate many such joyous occasions.

Ramaz Academy Presents Chanukah Program

On Sunday morning, December 18th, the children of the Ramaz Academy will present an elaborate Chanukah program, in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. Mrs. L. A. Siegel is responsible for the coaching of the many plays, dances, songs and recitations. The plays which will be presented are "What's To-night?"; "A Day in Palestine with the Chalutzim" and "A Mother of Martyrs." An unusual and unique number, called "The Candle Dance" will be given by one group. The entire program is one which will afford a great deal of enjoyment to all.

Parents and friends of the children and all members of the Congregation are cordially invited to come. The program will start promptly at 10:30. Please come on time.

A New Publication —The "Tre-Foil"

The new venture of the Kehilath Jeshurun Girl Scout Group, the publication of a newspaper called the "Tre-Foil," has been launched and the first edition has been issued. Nathalie Lookstein, Editor, and Enid Sommers, Associate-Editor, are to be congratulated for their efforts and success in so ambitious an undertaking. The "Tre-Foil" will be published bi-weekly, at three cents an issue.

Mrs. S. Charles Scheer, Mother of Joan, one of our Girl Scouts, donated a box of toys which was distributed at the last meeting. Great glee was shown by the recipients and a vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Scheer for her generosity.

The Scouts meet very Wednesday afternoon, at 3:30 in the Social Hall of the Synagogue.

Rabbi Lookstein to Act as Arbitrator

Rabbi Lookstein has been asked to act as arbitrator, with Dr. David De Sola Poole and Judge Jonah Goldstein, in a controversy between the Hebrew Teachers Union and the Hebrew School of the Hunts Point Synagogue.

Chanukah Candles and the Benevolent Fund

Chanukah candles have been distributed to all members and friends of Kehilath Jeshurun. It has been the custom of the Synagogue to allocate all monies received in response to these candles to the Benevolent Fund. We solicit your contribution and ask that you respond quickly and generously.

Condolences

Sincere condolences are extended to the family of the late Moritz Weiss, who at one time was a member of our congregation and for many years was a resident of this neighborhood.

To Ira Weisman, our member, and to all his family, the congregation extends heartfelt sympathy upon the untimely passing of their sister, Belle Weisman.

This is a Special Sabbath

This Saturday we recite the Rosh Chodesh prayers and we inaugurate the glorious holiday of Chanukah, which begins Saturday night. This gives to the Sabbath a special character. Those who were with us last month will recall how, through a few added features, we beautified and rendered more impressive the Rosh Chodesh service.

We invite our regular worshipers and all others to come and see for themselves how inspiring and meaningful this service can be.

Shomre Hadath

The third annual Chanukah Party of the Shomre Hadath will be held on Saturday night, December 24th, at 8:30 P. M., at the Kehilath Jeshurun, 85th Street, between Park and Lexington Avenues. There will be dancing, entertainment, games, and refreshments.

Of the proceeds obtained from this affair part will be contributed to the Joint Distribution Committee to enable them to carry on their work in behalf of our persecuted brothers and sisters in minority oppressed countries. The remainder of the proceeds will go toward the refugee employment work which the Shomre Hadath so ably carries on.

Please come and urge your friends to do likewise. You are assured of a pleasant evening and at the same time will be aiding refugee work at home and abroad.

Admission 50 cents

Cultural Meeting Huge Success

The meeting of the class in "Jewish Culture Through The Ages", which met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fischel, was very well attended. Enthusiastic discussion followed Rabbi Lookstein's lecture. The fact that at each meeting an increasing number of people attend, proves the value of such a course. Refreshments were served and "a good time was had by all."

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob D. Cohen, 157 West 79th Street, Wednesday evening, December 28th, at 8:30. Plan to be there; you will spend an interesting evening.
