Young People's League

The last meeting of the Young People's League was a veritable thrill, to be placed in the ne'er-to-be-forgotten category. The guest artist, Mrs. Hilda Holt, teacher, composer, and acknowledged authority on Music took her audience on a musical tour through the ages. Starting with Bach, through the medium of gorgeous victrola records, Mrs. Holt explained the difference in the types of music of such artists as Mozart, Beethoven, Brahms, Debussy, Stravinsky. It was truly a privilege to have been present for Mrs. Holt, with unusual charm, a unique personality, extraordinary wit and above all, an unlimited amount of information, gave a liberal education to all. There were many questions which Mrs. Holt graciously answered. The audience showed their appreciation by the ovation given her.

Nathan B. Kogan, President of the League, after thanking Mrs. Holt, asked Rabbi Lookstein, one of the enthusiastic audience, to say a few words to the group. Whereupon the Rabbi correlated the different cycles of music with that of religion, in so beautiful a fashion that everyone realized how closely related religion is to music and the other arts. That the evening was an intellectual and social success can be reiterated again and again. Here's hoping the Young People's League have many more such interesting meetings.

Congratulations

Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun extends to Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Weiss of 146 Central Park West sincere congratulations upon their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary and wishes them and their family perfect health and continued happiness. Mrs. Weiss is the sister of our President, Fred Margareten and the daughter of the charming Mrs. Regina Margareten.

Ambitions of Girl Scout Group Realized

At last the rehearsals are over and the Girl Scout group are prepared to give an evening of entertainment to all who care to attend. "The Clown of Doodle Doo" is the name of their ambitious undertaking. Admission is very nominally priced at ten cents. Everyone is invited — young and old — all will be welcome.

Welcome, New Members

It is with a great deal of pleasure that Kehilath Jeshurun announces the addition of several new members to their family. A cordial welcome is extended to them and it is hoped each one will participate in the varied activities the synagogue offers. To Dr. Eugene Fischer, Messrs. Benedict Lubell, Jacob Schneider, Jacob Rudd and Mrs. Charles Garfiel we wish many years of pleasant association.

Bazaar Merchandise Increases Daily

We are so very grateful to the many kind donors of merchandise for our forthcoming bazaar and wish to acknowledge our thanks to them. Those who have already contributed new merchandise are: Mrs. Maximilian Goldstein, Cisco & Co., Sol Mutterperl, Friedman & Co., Louis Wolf & Sons, Paul Rue, Harry Meyers, Morris Levine, Abraham Katz, Morris & Co., Arthur Siegman, Paris Neckwear, Aronson-Caplin, Lubell Bros., Raymond Turk, Phillip-Jones.

"Cultural" Class

The class in "Jewish Culture Through The Ages" will meet Wednesday, January 25th, in the Library of the Synagogue. Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs will act as hosts for the evening. All members and their friends are invited to attend.

Sisterhood News

Mrs. Max Berenstein extends a cordial invitation to the members and friends of Kehilath Jeshurun to attend the next meeting which will be held Monday, January 23rd, at her home, 22 East 88th Street. Luncheon will be served and everyone is urged to come promptly at 12:30.

A report of the fine progress of the Bazaar will be given by the Chairman, Mrs. William Goodman, who, with her committee, is sparing no effort to procure merchandise. Further plans for the contemplated Cake Sale will also be discussed. Every member should make an effort to attend this meeting, and thereby evidence her interest in the Sisterhood and encourage their endeavors.

Talmud Class Postponed

There will be no Talmud Class this Monday evening, due to the fact that the Rabbi has an important speaking engagement for that evening.

Condolences

The Congregation extends heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Max Backer for the loss of her dear mother, Mrs. Kailes. We earnestly trust Mrs. Backer and her family will be spared further sorrow.

Men's Club Plans Evening of Fun

Members of the Men's Club have invited all Kehilath Jeshurun members and their wives, all Sisterhood members and their husbands to enjoy an evening of games and fun — Thursday, January 26th — in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. Admission will be 35c; the proceeds to go to the Benevolent Fund. Come at 8:30 o'clock and have a good time amongst your friends and acquaintances.

WHAT OUR SYNAGOGUE OFFERS

Have you ever been confronted with the question "What does my Synagogue offer?" Kehilath Jeshurun stands ready to answer that question emphatically and enthusiastically. For there are many, many advantages to membership in Kehilath Jeshurun. Let us start with the newest affiliation, the RAMAZ ACADEMY, a progressive school offering a comprehensive and combined Hebrew and Secular education to boys and girls of elementary school age. Classes range from the kindergarten through the fifth grade. The synagogue sponsors a BOY SCOUT TROOP and a GIRL SCOUT GROUP; the former meeting at the Central Jewish Institute every Wednesday from 6:30 until 8:30 and the girls meeting every Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock in our social hall.

The YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEAGUE is an active group of fine young men and ladies who have as their objective the establishment of a scholarship for the Ramaz Academy. Their program is a cultural and social one, and their meetings are held on alternate Monday evenings.

The MEN'S CLUB is what its name implies: a fine organization of married and unmarried men, whose program is a combined social and cultural one. Meetings of the Men's Club are held every other Thursday night.

The SISTERHOOD is a very vital part of and plays a major role in the life of Kehilath Jeshurun. Having as their goal the acquisition of three scholarships for the Ramaz Academy, they are striving hard towards its realization. So far one and a half scholarships have been awarded and there is every evidence that before very long the balance will be had. The Sisterhood contributes generously to many, many appeals which reach them from individuals and from organizations and assists materially in the upkeep of our Synagogue.

There are several affairs sponsored during the year so that the social aspect is not neglected.

Sisterhood Membership is open to wives, daughters and friends of Kehilath Jeshurun. Anyone wishing to join will be accorded a hearty welcome.

Membership in Kehilath Jeshurun entitles one to a man's and a woman's seat for the High Holidays and for the entire year. Services are held three times each day; an impressive service including an inspiring sermon delivered by Rabbi Lookstein is held each Sabbath and a special children's service is held each Saturday in the Chapel, at 10:30. Free instruction and preparation for Bar-Mitzvahs is given to the children of a member. Reduced rates for the rental of the Synagogue, chapel, or social hall are given. Those interested in the cultural program of the Synagogue are invited to the Mishnah class which meets after services every morning, to the Talmud Class which meets every Monday night in the Library, and to the class of Jewish Culture Through The Ages, which meets on alternate Wednesday evenings.

As can be seen there is much to be derived during one's lifetime from membership in Kehilath Jeshurun. Yet Kehilath Jeshurun service extends even when life has departed. For it provides free burial facilities and funeral provisions for the immediate family of a member and furnishes a minyon, if it is desired, during the week of mourning.

If you have not already done so, will you designate your intentions to join us? Or, perhaps you would like more details before joining. If so, call the office of the Synagogue or get in touch with the Membership Chairman, Mr. Max J. Etra. Further information will be cheerfully given.
