Board of Trustees to Meet Thursday, April 6th

In advance of the annual membership meeting, which will be held later in the month, the Board of Trustees of the Congregation will hold an important meeting Thursday, April 6th (Chol Hamoed) in the library of the Synagogue, at 8:30 o'clock. It is extremely important that every Trustee and Associate Trustee attend this meeting and help us review the past and plan for the future.

It Is Not Too Late!

It is not too late to send in your contribution to the Passover Relief Fund. We are pleased with the results so far but the demands are still great, and we are in need of additional donations. Act quickly and really enjoy your holiday in the knowledge you have helped others.

Our Bazaar

The Bazaar and Rummage Sale is over! And the results are excellent! May we take this opportunity once again to thank all those who contributed merchandise directly or through recommendations, and to assure them of our deep appreciation. To Mrs. William Goodman, our indefatigable Chairman we owe a special debt of gratitude for her untiring efforts in making this venture a success. Mrs. Goodman gave of her time and energy unstintingly. She was assisted by a group of women who deserve unlimited praise because of the earnestness with which they entered this project and the efficiency with which they concluded it. To Mesdames Alpert, Lookstein, Schlang, Jacobs, Oppenheim, Gardner, Harris, Hirschfield, Gross, we extend sincere thanks. We know they will feel compensated for their efforts in the knowledge of what was accomplished.

To the Tudor Storage Co., of 205 East 76th Street, we are greatly indebted for their kindness in storing our merchandise for several months without any charge. We urge our members and friends to reciprocate by thinking of them when in need of moving or storing furniture. You will be assured of excellent service and courteous treatment.

Those who contributed to the bazaar since the last printing were: Abalene Blouse Co., Denville Silk Co.; Max Messing; Kapell's Book Store; Leo Sobel; A. S. Beck Shoe Co.; Miles Shoe Co.; Murray Resnick; Horowitz Margareten; Jacob Bros.; Mrs. Samuel Gross; Mr. Michaelson; Jos. Silberschutz.

OVER TO ALL!

Pupils of Ramaz Academy

Hold Model Seder

The pupils of the Ramaz Academy, seated at a long table properly set, conducted a model seder in preparation of the Passover festival. It could truly have been called a "model" seder, for in every detail it was performed beautifully and in full accordance with the rituals and ceremonies.

It was an inspiring sight to witness these youngsters, all of whom participated in the service. The chanting of the Kiddush, the asking of the four questions, the traditional replies, the singing, all of it was enthusiastically performed. A goodly number of parents were present to witness this seder and we are certain they benefited greatly by the performance.

Sale of Chometz

Rabbi Lookstein will be available for the sale of Chometz at the Synagogue until Monday, April 3rd, at 10:40 A.M. No Chometz may be sold after that hour. Any Chometz left over the Passover may not be used after the holiday, unless previously sold through the "Sale of Chometz."

The First Born

The traditional service for the First Born will be held Monday morning, April 3rd, following the regular morning service, which will be held as usual at 7:15.

Passover Warnings

With the approach of Passover, Rabbi Lookstein finds it necessary to caution our congregation about certain matters.

1. Great care must be used in the purchase of Passover food articles. Nothing should be bought loose. Only articles which are packed and sealed and bear the stamp of approval of a recognized Rabbi or Rabbinic organization may be bought.
2. The fact that something is sold in the Passover department of a department store, is not sufficient guarantee of Kashruth.
3. Many are not clear about the method of koshering utensils for the Passover. The Rabbi will be glad to answer any questions pertaining to that.
