Welcome to Our Succah

A hearty invitation is extended to all our worshippers to partake of kiddush in the succah after each service during the holiday. As in the past, the Sisterhood will act as hostesses. Although beautifully decorated every year, it is planned to have the Succah even more beautiful this year.

On Behalf of Mr. Adler

Mr. Adler received a special shipment of Esrogim and Lulovim from Palestine. Members and seatholders can be accommodated by applying to him in person or by telephone, Sacramento 2-7759. Mr. Adler can also arrange for the delivery of the finest brands of Palestine and domestic wines.

Rabbi Lookstein Heard Over WJZ

Rabbi Lookstein participated in a Yom Kippur radio program Wednesday, Sept. 20th, over station WJZ. The Rabbi spoke on "Peace Through Atonement."

Annual Succoth Party

The traditional annual Succoth Party will take place this year on Friday, Sept. 29th, at 8:30 o'clock. A special treat at this Succah Party will be an address by Mr. Abraham Goldberg, renowned Zionist leader, journalist and author. Mr. Goldberg, who is now a worshipper in our Synagogue is a member of the staff of the Jewish Morning Journal and an orator of great reputation. Having been a delegate to the Zionist Congress his address that evening will be of exceptional interest.

Do not fail to attend! Men and women, old and young, are cordially invited.

Sisterhood News

As Chairman of the Friendly Service Committee, Mrs. George Jacobs is anxious to know of events in the lives of Sisterhood members and their families. Mrs. Jacobs requests that all those members who have not as yet sent in the following information for the records of the committee, be good enough to do so at once.

1. Wedding anniversary — month — day.

2. Birthday — month — day.

The Sisterhood extends sincere birthday greetings and best wishes to Mrs. Jack Alpert and to Mrs. Irving Sheinblum.

To Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sheinblum, who are celebrating their wedding anniversary this week, go our very best wishes for good health, continued happiness and prosperity.

Good Luck!

Many of our members have moved to new addresses. The Sisterhood takes this means of wishing Mr. and Mrs. Fred Margareten, Dr. and Mrs. David Krawitz, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Price and their families good health and good fortune in their new homes.

Succah Fund Will Welcome Contributions

Requests for contributions to the Succah Fund have been sent to all Sisterhood members. It is hoped the response will be immediate and substantial.

The Succah is a very definite symbol in Jewish life. This year, in particular, after "living" in a "temporary abode" for eight days, we will be better able to appreciate the safety of our permanent homes in this blessed land of freedom. And, too, we will be able to sympathize more fully with our wandering brethren abroad.

Therefore, send your contribution, large or small; everything will be appreciated. Send it to the office of the Synagogue at once.

Rabbi Appeals to Parents

On the second day Rosh Hashana Rabbi Lookstein made a stirring appeal to Parents to make provision for the religious education of their children. The Rabbi emphasized the importance of regular attendance at a Hebrew School. Private lessons at home are not adequate. Sunday School instruction is of little value. Parents in our Community, he said, have two Institutions of exceptional calibre to which to send their children — the Ramaz Academy and the Central Jewish Institute.

The former offers a combined Hebrew and English education from Kindergarten through the Elementary School grades. The latter offers a three-day-a-week school, meeting in the afternoons and on Sunday mornings, plus special features of education, such as dramatics, arts and crafts and club work.

The Rabbi will be pleased to consult with any parent regarding the religious studies of his child.

Ramaz Academy Kindergarten Enrolling New Members

Enrollment of children in the kindergarten of the Ramaz Academy is still continuing. A number of new children have been registered this week and additional ones are expected to be enrolled. It is difficult to impress upon parents the value of beginning the Hebrew education of their children as early as kindergarten age. Yet it is at that age that most can be done with the impressionable child. Kindergarten in its ideal state is the happiest period of a child's life. It serves as a miniature society, adjusting the child to his social environment.

The kindergarten room is large and airy and adjoining it is a playroom which the children use frequently. The finest equipment has been made available for the kindergarten. The daily program includes arts and crafts, music, dramatics with sufficient time for supervised outdoor play. Children from the age of four to six may be enrolled. Phone the office or see Rabbi Lookstein for further particulars.
