Don't Delay!

If you were kind enough to pledge a contribution in answer to the very stirring appeal our Rabbi made Kol Nidre Night, don't delay in sending your check. If you did not answer the appeal that night—and wish to contribute—we will greatly appreciate your donation. - You will feel better for having helped so splendid an organization as the United Jewish Appeal and for having aided so worthy an institution as your Synagogue.

An Invitation

In accordance with their usual custom, Rabbi and Mrs. Lookstein will be at home to the members of the congregation and their families Thursday, October 5th, at 3:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Hashana Rabba Night

The chapel and vestry rooms of the Synagogue will be open for the usual Hashana Rabba night gathering. The traditional services of the night, the recitation of "Tikkun" will be followed by refreshments. All men are cordially invited to attend this service Tuesday night.

The Children on Simchas Torah

As usual, the congregation will act as host to the children of the neighborhood on Thursday night at the evening services. The children will assemble in the social hall at 5:00 P.M. and will then be escorted to a special section in the main Synagogue. Holiday goodies and souvenirs will be distributed to them and they will participate in the Hakofoth procession. Arrange to be with us on Thursday night and bring your children with you.

THE TWO GROOMS

A definite innovation has been decided upon in the appointment of the Chasan Torah and Chasan Bereshith this year. Heretofore, these honors used to be conferred upon two laymen. This year two of the Synagogue's officials have been designated. Rabbi Lookstein will be Chasan Torah and Cantor Fingereth, Chasan Bereshith. The former is celebrating his sixteenth anniversary as Rabbi and the latter, his fifth anniversary as Cantor of our Congregation. It is fitting indeed that these anniversaries be celebrated in such fashion. The Seudah in honor of the two grooms will take place on Shabbath Bereshith. The Congregation congratulates the two grooms and rejoices in their selection.

The recipient of the honor of Chasan Maftir is Mr. Jacob Rudd, one of the esteemed younger members of the Congregation and ranking student of the Talmud Class.

Our Succah Fund

We want to thank all those who contributed to our Succah Fund and to assure them that as a result of their generosity our Succah was truly beautifully decorated this year. Special thanks are due Mrs. Rae Oppenheim, who not only helped so much in the actual decorating of the Succah but who provided us with almost all the fruits and vegetables used in the decorations. To Mrs. Lookstein and Mrs. Jacobs we also owe a debt of gratitude for their help in making the Succah so "Homey" this year. Just a word to those who still wish to contribute to this fund: we will appreciate any amount you care to send!

Ramaz Academy News

Registration at the Ramaz Academy has grown in leaps and bounds. The Kindergarten opened Monday with a fine enrollment. There are still a few openings in some of the classes. Give your child this unusual opportunity of an education in English and Hebrew taught in a progressive way. For detailed information, call the office of the Synagogue.

Sisterhood Plans Bazaar Soon

If you have moved, or are redecorating your home, you undoubtedly are discarding many articles of clothing, furniture, china, etc. which you can no longer utilize. The Sisterhood is planning their annual Bazaar and Rummage Sale in November. They need all your discards, be they old, worn, torn, it does not matter. All of it means money to the Sisterhood. Send word to the Synagogue office and we will call for your packages. Or, better still, send them to us. Everything and anything will be greatly appreciated.

Many Thanks!

Daily worshippers were delighted with the beautiful blue velvet mantle for the Sefer which was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alpert in memory of their son, Gerald. A most fitting way to honor the memory of a dear one!

Sisterhood News

At a very well attended Board meeting recently held, many plans for the coming year were discussed. The enthusiasm was such that it was agreed to start regular membership meetings as soon as possible. Therefore the date was set for MONDAY, OCTOBER 9th. Mrs. Isidor Schlang graciously volunteered to have this meeting at her home, 225 East 74th Street, and extends a cordial invitation to all Sisterhood members and their friends to attend. Mrs. Schlang asks that you come at one o'clock in time for dessert and coffee. Rabbi Lookstein, who, with Mrs. Lookstein, has just returned from Europe, has consented to tell us of his experiences there. This will be a meeting worth attending. We urge you not to miss it! Come equipped with suggestions and plans. We anticipate an active season. There is so much to be done! Can we count on YOU?

Have You Moved?

Many of our members have moved. At the present printing, we know of several additional ones since the last Bulletin. We want to take this means of wishing good health and good fortune to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alpert, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wohl, Mr. and Mrs. I. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Max Berenstein, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Wiener.

The office will be pleased to know of any change of address of any of its members.

Congratulations!

To Mrs. Charles Garfiel and Mrs. Samuel Gross who are celebrating birthdays this week we extend hearty congratulations. To Mrs. J. Pofsher go our best wishes for many more happy anniversaries.
