Girl Scout Group Starts Meetings

The girl scout group of Kehilath Jeshurun started their regular weekly meetings on Wednesday. Very capably led by Miss Thelvin Finkler, the group this year promises to be an exceptionally active one. Those children desiring to join the group may do so by applying at the synagogue office.

Talmud Class to Meet

The Talmud Class, under the leadership of Rabbi Lookstein, will hold its first session Monday, October 30th. Watch the Bulletin for further details.

Sisterhood Meeting

The next meeting of the Sisterhood will be held at the home of Mrs. Albert Sokolski, Hotel Alrae, 37 East 64th Street, Monday, October 23rd. Luncheon will be served promptly at 12:30. It is hoped that every member of the Sisterhood will make an effort to attend. It is very essential for each member to realize that cooperation is the backbone of an organization and that without it not much can be accomplished. There is so much to be done! And there is so much enjoyment and self-satisfaction in the knowledge that one's time is nobly spent. Come and participate in Sisterhood activities!

Sisterhood News

Sisterhood Plans Novel Function

At the last meeting of the Sisterhood it was decided to have a social function which would bring together members of the Sisterhood and their friends. Mrs. Jacob Rudd was appointed Chairman of this affair. Known for her exuberance and enthusiasm, Mrs. Rudd immediately chose her committee and started working. She found a most desirable place — the ROOF — GARDEN OF HOTEL PIERRE, for Wednesday, November 15th, where a delicious luncheon will be served. That however, was not sufficient for our active Chairman. Arrangements have been completed for a FASHION PREMIER including "AROUND THE CLOCK FASHIONS FOR MILADY" PRESENTED BY LENTHERIC SALON! Could anything be more exciting and yet—that is not all! JEWELS by MARCUS & CO. will be displayed! Can you think of anything more thrilling? We can almost hear your exclamations of delight. You will pause to ask, "And what will this cost?" And jubilantly the answer rebounds—merely $2.50 per ticket. Your reaction will unquestionably be "Sounds too good to be true." Still, every word of it is true. We are anticipating a huge crowd. Reservations will be limited, so—rush your orders in. Invitations have been sent to members. Additional tickets may be had by calling Mrs. Rudd, ATwater 9-1643 or the synagogue office.

Congratulations!

Once more the congregation is pleased to extend congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bornstein upon the engagement of their daughter Ethel, to Mr. Milton Rich of this city. We wish the young couple every happiness.

DINNER DANCE NEWS

Contract Blanks For Souvenir Journal Distributed

You have of course set aside SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16th, for the outstanding event of the season . . . the FIFTH ANNUAL DINNER DANCE of KEHILATH JESHURUN at the WALDORF-ASTORIA. It will be a glorious social affair. The financial end? A great deal depends on YOU and the amount of cooperation you offer.

We need ADS — ADS and MORE ADS. If you cannot solicit ads yourself send a list of names of friends or business associates to the office and it will be taken care of there. DON'T DELAY. Send in the blanks or the list immediately. Remember that success can only be obtained through the wholehearted cooperation of everyone.

Parent Teacher Association Meeting

The opening meeting of the Parent Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy was a most interesting and stimulating one. Well-attended and spirited, the meeting was thrown open to general discussion, during which parents voiced their suggestions and criticisms. When Rabbi Lookstein, Principal and Dr. Benjamin Brickman, Supervisor, finished explanations of the various questions raised, the seeming problems vanished into thin air. Parents had a opportunity of meeting new teachers and discussing specific and individual problems. Enthusiasm prevailed throughout the evening.

An important part of the evening was the election of officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. George Jacobs, President, read a report, written in poetry, of the growth of the Ramaz Academy from its inception up to the present time. Beautifully written, and beautifully delivered, it was very well received by all. Mrs. Jacobs then appointed a nominating committee, headed by Mrs. Jack Rudd. The committee returned, after due deliberation, with a slate which was presented to the membership body. A motion was made to accept the ballot as read and the following officers were unanimously elected: Mr. Sidney Fine, President; Mrs. Joseph Haas, Vice-President; Mrs. Irving Kobrin, Secretary; Dr. Henry Blum, Treasurer. The new officers took their seats on the platform and the newly elected President spoke briefly and well of the ambitions of the regime.

Rabbi Lookstein concluded the meeting with a word of praise and thanks to the outgoing officers and a prayer to the new ones for the continued success of the Ramaz Academy. Refreshments and a social hour followed and it was long after midnight before the meeting adjourned.

Requests From The Ramaz Academy

Now that the Ramaz Academy will have its own office there are a few essential needs for it. A desk, a day-bed or chaise, a few chairs, a book-case which locks, a typewriter. Will anyone volunteer to get any of these items for us? We will deeply appreciate any contribution.

Have You Delayed?

Have you delayed sending in your Kol Nidre Night Appeal pledge? If so, may we remind you that the United Jewish Appeal is very much in need of funds. The Synagogue, too, can use the money immediately. Send your check at once and know that you have fulfilled a promise made on one of the holiest nights of the year.
