Congratulations

The congregation extends sincere congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. Isador Givner upon the birth of a daughter and a hearty welcome to little Joan. We trust the young lady will bring additional joy to the proud and happy parents.

Welcome!

An application for membership in the congregation has been signed by Mr. Hyman Weiss. Mr. Weiss is a very welcome addition to our synagogue and we trust he will now become a very active asset.

Good News

We are very happy to report that Mr. Jacob D. Cohen, devoted member of Kehilath Jeshurun, is recovering from his recent illness. We earnestly wish him a speedy return to good health.

Many Thanks

In answer to the recent appeal for equipment for the Ramaz Academy, an immediate response was received from our good friend and benefactor, Mr. Herman Goldman. Mr. Goldman sent a check which has been used for the purchase of oil-cloth table-cloths for the dining room of the Ramaz students. We are truly grateful to Mr. Goldman for his generosity.

Benevolent Fund Boxes

Once more we appeal to those people who have our benevolent boxes to return them as soon as possible. The need for funds for the many cases which reach us is very great. We will greatly appreciate a response from those who have our boxes.

DINNER DANCE NEWS

DECEMBER 16th NEARS

Six more weeks—that is all! And then— a distinguished group of guests will congregate at the WALDORF-ASTORIA in celebration of KEHILATH JESHURUN'S FIFTH ANNUAL DINNER DANCE. Just visualize the JADE ROOM of the Waldorf; hear, in your mind, the delightful strains of music by HERBERT STEINER and his orchestra; think of all the friends and acquaintances you will meet! What a wonderful time you will have! Everything possible is being done to make this affair truly outstanding. MR. MAXWELL SHAPIRO, Chairman of the PROGRAM COMMITTEE, promises unusually fine entertainment.

MR. ALBERT SOKOLSKI, CHAIRMAN OF THE DINNER DANCE, is very anxious to know whether YOU have sent in your reservations for the dinner. If not, won't you please do so at once?

SOUVENIR JOURNAL NEWS

ADS for the souvenir journal are coming in nicely—BUT—and a BIG BUT—there are many people connected with the Synagogue who have not sent in any ads or any list of names for the office to contact. MR. BEN GOTTFRIED, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOURNAL, sent a special message to all members, saying "Without any effort whatsoever everyone can procure at least ONE AD. With just a little effort, everyone can get SEVERAL ADS." Won't you start right now and get your quota? It is not right to thrust the burden on to the shoulders of a few industrious people. Remember, that without a Synagogue, religion is lost. We must maintain our House of Worship and all it stands for. Send in your AD at once. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Every year we devote some space in the Souvenir Journal to our youngsters. There is hardly a child—boy or girl—who does not get a genuine thrill seeing his or her name in print. For just ONE DOLLAR you can give your youngster that thrill and happiness. He'll be so excited and so delighted especially when you tell him that the one dollar will help some child achieve a scholarship in the Ramaz Academy. MRS. GEORGE JACOBS, Chairman of the Children's Page, will be happy to accept your dollar and to arrange to have your child's name listed.

Mrs. Jacobs will also take charge of the YOUTH'S PAGE—so—all you young people in your TEENS, send us ONE DOLLAR and get the same thrill in the knowledge you have contributed to a very worthy cause.

Journal To Have Memorial Page

There will be space reserved in the beautiful Souvenir Journal for the names of departed ones. Those who wish to list the names of dear ones may do so, space being allotted according to the amount sent. The office will accept any contributions with gratitude.

Rabbi Lookstein Addresses Jewish Culture Society

Rabbi Lookstein was the guest speaker at the Jewish Culture Society at New York University last Thursday. The Rabbi spoke on "Judaism in Theory and Practice."

Rabbi Lookstein To Speak At Warren, Ohio

Rabbi Lookstein has been asked to open the drive for the United Jewish Appeal at Warren, Ohio, on November 12th. Rabbi Lookstein's reputation for successful appeals is spreading.

Young Folks, Attention!

Immediately following the Dinner on December 16th, there will be a RECEPTION AND DANCE for all the young people of the synagogue and their friends. Tickets are priced at $2.00 per person. A novel way of being able to attend this reception and dance is to earn it! How? Just by sending in $10.00 worth of ADS for the journal! Easy? Of course it is! Get busy, young folks, and mail or bring in those ads. You can be assured of a marvellous time in a gorgeous environment.

Talmud Class Starts Sessions

Rabbi Lookstein, who leads the Talmud Class every Monday evening in the library of the synagogue, was very much pleased at the fine attendance at the opening session. This course is open to all men desirous of studying the Talmud. The class starts promptly at 8:30 every Monday evening.

Sisterhood News

Luncheon Progresses Beautifully

Wherever one goes these days the primary topic of conversation is the LUNCHEON AND FASHION PREMIERE the KEHILATH JESHURUN SISTERHOOD is sponsoring. Mrs. Jack Rudd, Chairman of this function, is most enthusiastic about the response. 'Tis said a word to the wise is sufficient! Therefore, with the space at HOTEL PIERRE limited, you had better hurry and let us know how many reservations to make.

Remember the place, HOTEL PIERRE; and the time—WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15th; and the occasion—LUNCHEON—FASHION PREMIERE by LENTHERIC—MUSIC by HERBERT STEINER—JEWELS by MARCUS & CO. Definite reservations must be in by November 7th. PLEASE let us hear from you!

Don't Forget

The Sisterhood meeting at the home of MRS. JACK ALPERT, 519 East 86th Street at 12:30 o'clock sharp. There will be surprises galore! Don't miss this important meeting.

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON JOB

Mr. Jacob Alpert, Chairman of the House Committee has been actively engaged in supervising the improvements of the synagogue. The steps and the platform leading to the main synagogue have been completely repaired. Closets to house the prayer books, talcism, etc. have been installed in the rear of the synagogue. We are greatly indebted to Mr. Alpert for his interest and service to the synagogue.

RAMAZ ACADEMY KINDERGARTEN

There are a few vacancies in the kindergarten class of the Ramaz. Children, from 4½ to 6 years of age may be enrolled in this class. The advantages are manifold and unique. Rabbi Lookstein will be glad to consult with any interested parents. Mrs. I. Saltes, our new kindergartner, is a very charming and capable teacher, one well able to guide the children in their daily routine.

RAMAZ ACADEMY HAS NEW TREASURER

At a recent meeting of the Advisory Board of the Ramaz Academy, Mr. George Jacobs was elected Treasurer. Mr. Jacob Alpert, former Treasurer, asked to be released because of the pressure of other duties. Mr. Jacobs, who has always been active in Academy affairs, will, we are certain, continue the fine work of Mr. Alpert.

AN URGENT REQUEST

Statements have just been sent, as of the first of the month, for outstandings on dues, seats, Kol Nidre pledges and other offerings. A prompt remittance, especially for the Kol Nidre pledges, will be greatly appreciated.
