Beauty Culture

At Next Sisterhood Meeting

Mrs. Long of the Helena Rubinstein Institute will address the next Sisterhood meeting on beauty culture. Lives there a woman who is not interested in beauty?

The meeting will be held on Monday, November 27th, at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. Jack Rudd, 1049 Park Avenue. Mrs. Rudd will be happy to welcome the members of the organization and all Kehilath Jeshurun women who may care to come.

Our Flying Rabbi

Rabbi Lookstein enjoyed his maiden air voyage when he flew in by plane from Cleveland Monday morning. The Rabbi was returning from Warren, Ohio, where he addressed the campaign gathering of the United Jewish Appeal. From the New York office of the U. J. A. we hear that the campaign speech netted $15,000, which is above the quota that the community set for itself.

Parent-Teacher Association

To Hear Famous Psychologist

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy will meet in the social hall on Tuesday evening, Nov. 21st at 8:30. The guest speaker of the meeting will be Dr. Henry Hansburg, Psychologist of the Bureau of Child Guidance of the Board of Education. Dr. Hansburg who ranks high in his speciality, has chosen as his subject, "The Value of Mental Tests." A general discussion will follow and parents are cordially invited and urged to bring their friends.

Ramaz Recipient Of Beautiful Gifts

Mr. George Jacobs, loyal member of Kehilath Jeshurun and treasurer of the Ramaz Academy, is responsible for the beauty and comfort of the new Ramaz office. The gorgeous Oriental rug, the steel cabinet, the beautiful mahogany desk, the many chairs—these articles were all contributed by Mr. Jacobs. We are confident that he knows how great is the appreciation of the faculty, student body and all who, like the Jacobses, are seeking always to advance the welfare of the school.

Dinner-Dance Makes Haste Rapidly

The officers of the Dinner-Dance Committee are overjoyed with the warm response to this year's function, which will be held at the Waldorf on Saturday night, Dec. 16th. Reservations are pouring in fast. The leading members of the congregation are reserving full tables for themselves, their families and invited guests. We are expecting the Jade Room to be crowded to capacity that night.

And as for the ads, to use a colloquialism, "don't ask." Benedict I. Lubell, Elliott Siegel, Hymen Weiss, Emanuel Simon, Max J. Etra, are only a few of those who are joining the ranks of the ad-getters. Our old standbys, Fred Margareten, Ben Gottfried and Murray M. Rosenberg are of course busily at work. There is real competition among these latter three, with each competing against his own record of last year. May they all win!

But there are still many who can and should be of help. Remember that the proceeds of the souvenir journal go to subsidize the work of the Ramaz Academy and some of the other important activities of the congregation. Every member can get a few ads and swell the grand total. Call the office for any assistance which will be gladly offered.

Thanksgiving Service Will Be Memorable Event

According to the plans that have been made, the Thanksgiving Service which will be held in our synagogue on Thursday morning, Nov. 23rd, at 11 o'clock, promises to be one of the most impressive occasions of its kind.

Mr. Max D. Steuer who so graciously accepted to be the guest speaker, is himself looking forward eagerly to the first service of its kind being sponsored by an orthodox congregation.

Cantor Fingeroth with the famous Machtenberg Choir have arranged a program of appropriate music which will undoubtedly thrill the large audience we expect. All the neighborhood synagogues have been invited and we are sure of sizeable representations from them all. Leaders of the non-Jewish community have promised to attend.

In addition to the regular service, we will on that morning dedicate the Scroll of the Law which was salvaged from a burning Vienna synagogue and which was brought to us for safe-keeping by a refugee. All in all, Thanksgiving morning in the synagogue will be an occasion long remembered.

Come! Bring your friends! Bring your children! Let us thank God for America!

Sisterhood Luncheon Huge Success

If ever the terminology "Bevy of Beauties" was applicable to a group of women, it was at the Luncheon and Fashion Premiere held at Hotel Pierre on Wednesday. Over two hundred and fifty women gathered at this function and enjoyed every moment of it. The delicious luncheon—the "Around The Clock With Milady" fashion show given by Lenthéric—the exquisite jewels by Marcus & Co.—the music by Herbert Steiner—every detail was meticulously taken care of by the very efficient chairman, Mrs. Jacob Rudd. Mrs. Rudd was ably assisted by her co-chairman, Mrs. Maxwell Shapiro, and her committee of workers and hostesses. The Sisterhood is indebted to Philip Morris & Co. for their very liberal donation of cigarettes. Special mention must be made of the beautiful silver vase contributed by F. Wallach; through the efforts of Mrs. Albert Levey, of the gorgeous cigarette case received through Mrs. Alpert—for the exquisite bags donated by Best & Co. and Bonwit Teller—for the lovely bottles of champagne and cognac, received through Mrs. Rudd — to Lenthéric, Inc., for the exquisite bottle of perfume used as a door-prize, and to Helena Rubinsten for her contribution of a huge box of powder, we extend our sincere thanks. All we can say is that those who did not attend, truly missed an eventful afternoon. We reiterate special thanks to Mrs. Rudd.
