Sisterhood News

Mrs. Mary Bernard was hostess at a very lavish lunch last Monday after which the meeting was opened by Mrs. Jacob Alpert.

The Sisterhood voted to give their annual contribution to the Hebrew Teachers Training School For Girls, which is another indication that Kehilath Jeshurun Sisterhood does not work for itself alone but rather that its interest stretches far and wide. It might be well to report here that the response to the Red Cross Appeal was greater than in any previous year.

It was decided to hold an open meeting on Jan. 8th, at which members will be privileged to bring as many friends as they wish. An entertainment is being arranged for that meeting and members are urged to keep the date open. Mrs. William Goodman will be hostess on the 8th.

Cultural Class

The cultural class will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Garfeil, 308 East 79th Street, Wednesday, December 20th, at 8:30 P.M. At this session Rabbi Lookstein will discuss the life of Samuel Mohilever. This group is growing steadily but has unlimited capacity. Therefore—if you are interested in the study of Jewish Prophets, come to the next meeting and join the crowd. You will be assured of a hearty welcome and your one regret will be that you did not attend all the previous classes. Remember the date — December 20th, promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

Rabbi Lookstein Heard Over Station WARD

Rabbi Lookstein participated in a round-table discussion over Station WARD. The subject was "If Judah the Maccabee Were Alive Today What Would He Do?" This program was sponsored by The Day, and, from all the comments and reports it was very well received.

THE CURTAIN RISES

There is just one day left before our affair. For weeks members, friends of the Congregation, the Sisterhood, the Men's Club, and everyone else to whom the life of Kehilath Jeshurun is dear, have been busy and occupied, working incessantly, getting ads, disposing of tickets, and helping in every way to assure the success of the Dinner Dance.

The curtain is about to rise! December 16th is immediately before us! All the efforts, activities, imagination, and enthusiasm that were brought to the venture have resulted in an unprecedented success.

Reservations have been coming in nicely and for this we are indebted to our able Chairman, Mr. Albert Sokolski.

The Journal will be one of the most valuable and impressive features of the evening. For this, we wish to express our sincere appreciation to Mr. Ben Gottfried, Chairman of the Journal, who, with his very capable committee, has assisted in translating our hopes into concrete achievements. Special thanks are due Mr. Murray M. Rosenberg, who has helped to so great an extent in the success of the journal.

Mr. Maxwell Shapiro, Chairman of the Program, has many surprises for us. There will be something unusual, something assuredly delightful, a program of entertainment which will please and thrill all.

Saturday night, December 16th, in the Jade Room of the Waldorf Astoria, at 8:30 o'clock! We look forward to the pleasure of greeting you and of being your host at the most outstanding event of the season.

Refugee Torah "At Home"

Hardly had the bulletin with its request for appropriate vestments been issued, when the response was forthcoming. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Friedberg, parents of one of our Ramaz Academy students, was most generous in his contribution, donating two exquisite silver crowns and a beautiful silver pointer. Although our thanks were most profuse, the Friedbergs felt they had not done enough. Forthwith they induced some friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Furman, to contribute two magnificent mantels—one in red for Sabbath use and one in white for use during the High Holidays. We are deeply grateful to these good friends for their kindness and we hope they will feel compensated in the knowledge they have made this Refugee Torah feel "at home".

There is just one article missing to complete the ornaments — a silver breast-plate! 'Tis said a word to the wise is sufficient! Who will follow the fine example of the Friedbergs and the Furmans?

Ramaz Academy Students Give Chanukah Program

An elaborate program in celebration of the Festival of Chanukah was given Wednesday by the students of the Ramaz. The program was prepared by Miss Dora Buckwald, an instructor, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large gathering of parents and friends. Rabbi Lookstein addressed the audience to the great delight of all. The children were given bags of candy and nuts, a gift from the Parent-Teacher Association, and an ice-cream treat after their lunch was contributed by the teachers. It was a day to be remembered by all the Ramaz students.

Reception and Dance

Many young folks have already made reservations for the reception and dance to follow the dinner, Saturday, December 16th. It is not essential to have made reservations. All young folks will be welcome for the entertainment, the dance and for delicious refreshments which will be served during the evening. Tickets are priced at $2.00 per person. The reception will start at about ten o'clock.
