Parent Teacher Association Meets

The Parent Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy met last Tuesday and after the business of the meeting, discussed the possibility of a fund-raising project. Rabbi Lookstein was called upon to speak about the progress of the Ramaz and the needs for a progressive school such as ours. It was decided to appoint a committee who would formulate plans for raising funds. Mr. Sidney Fine, President of the P.T.A. will head the committee. Mr. Brickman, Supervisor of the Ramaz Academy, spoke to the parents, emphasizing the need for intelligent vacation-activities. He stressed the necessity for parents spending as much time as possible with their children during the coming holiday session. The next meeting of the Association will be held January 16th.

Men's Club

We are all agreed that the charter meeting of the Men's Club on the night of December 14th was most successful. The new officers were officially installed and tentative plans for the remainder of the season outlined by the President. (You will soon know about them!)

The Rabbi then delivered an illuminating address on the history of the congregation on its outstanding contributions to varied Jewish activities. The group was a large and representative one and more than thirty-five of those present signed membership application blanks. Many of these new members had never been in the Synagogue before, but we are happy to state that they found what they wanted and so joined our ranks. (Since then an additional number have affiliated themselves with us.)

Starting with January 9th, regular meetings of the Men's Club will be held on the second Tuesday of each month. Your men friends are always welcome. Remember, the second Tuesday is Men's Club Night!

Many, Many Thanks

We are deeply indebted to Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Cooperman for their contribution of a set of The Talmud. We want them to know how much we appreciate their kindness and generosity.

Welcome!

Kehilath Jeshurun is very happy to announce the addition of a new member. Mr. Charles Goell has just signed an application and we want him to know that the congregation welcomes him and hopes his affiliation with us will always be a happy one.

Dinner Dance Exceeds All Expectations Souvenir Journal Goes "Over The Top"

There were no two opinions about it! Everyone, with one accord, acclaimed this Fifth Anniversary Dinner Dance the best ever. Kehilath Jeshurun has always run beautiful affairs—but—this one surpassed all others. From the moment the first guest entered, until long after the last strains of the orchestra had died away, a spirit of gaiety, of happiness, of good-fellowship prevailed. The Jade and Basildon Rooms of the Waldorf-Astoria are beautiful, and, with the tables profuse with colorful flowers and lit candles, the setting was perfect. The women exquisitely gowned, exuberant with the joy of living, could veritably be called a "Galaxy of Beauty".

The music was divine! Herbert Steiner and his orchestra, were truly superb. And the Entertainment!!! We owe an everlasting debt of gratitude to MAXWELL SHAPIRO, who, in his own unostentatious manner, procured the finest talent one could wish for. Well-known entertainers, from some of the finest clubs in the city, were there to provide additional fun and enjoyment. The dinner was par excellence. Everyone felt there was nothing left to be improved upon. The fact that at 3 A.M. guests still lingered, is proof positive that Kehilath Jeshurun KNOWS how to do things!

MR. ALBERT SOKOLSKI, Chairman of the Dinner Dance, and his able committee, are to be congratulated. We cannot be too profuse in our thanks to MAXWELL SHAPIRO. To MAX ETRA we are also greatly indebted; he was here, there, and everywhere—a perfect host, who could be, and was called upon to assist in many ways and who gladly gave of his services. The entire Reception Committee deserve honorable mention: Rabbi and Mrs. Lookstein, the Alperis, the Margareten, the Jacobs, and many others, all helped in great measure to have DECEMBER 16th, indelibly imprinted in the minds of all who attended.

The SOUVENIR JOURNAL, of which BEN GOTTFRIED was Chairman, went "Over the top". Thanks to the boundless efforts of such friends as the Chairman, Murray M. Rosenberg, Fred Margareten, Benedict Lubell, Hyman Weiss, Elliot Siegel, Benjamin Jacoby, Mrs. George Jacobs, Mrs. Jack Rudd, Mr. L. W. Yohann, Max Etra, Mrs. Irving Sheinblum, and others, the Journal was bigger and better than in previous years.

And we must not neglect to mention our host of young folks who flocked to the RECEPTION. Their jubilant faces were an indication of the grand time they were having. Reluctantly, at about 3 A.M., the last guests left. All with a single resolve—never to miss another Kehilath Jeshurun event!

SISTERHOOD BUSY ON BAZAAR

Now that the Dinner Dance is over, the energetic members of the Sisterhood are ready for their next project—the BAZAAR AND RUMMAGE SALE. Mrs. William Goodman will again assume the chairmanship of this Bazaar, and, let it be said, that a more conscientious and efficient chairman was never found! A bazaar and rummage sale is a wonderfully easy way to raise a very substantial amount of money. The Sisterhood is now ready to embark on this project and is counting on the generosity and cooperation of the members and seatholders of the congregation.

Letters have already been sent to those individuals and firms who contributed merchandise last year. Letters to the general membership of the synagogue will soon be in the mail and it is hoped that everyone will respond in some way, either by sending a package to the office or by sending a list of people from whom we may solicit merchandise. WE DO NOT ASK FOR NEW MERCHANDISE! DAMAGED, SOILED, DISCONTINUED NUMBERS, RETURNS, DISCARDED ARTICLES — anything YOU can no longer utilize, WE can! Just drop a line to the synagogue office—or telephone—and we will send for your package. Or—the package can be mailed directly to the office. The Sisterhood will be grateful for any assistance.
