Rabbi Will Discuss Sholem Asch's Book

A book which has become a national best seller and which has already created much controversy, will be discussed by Rabbi Lookstein in his sermon this Saturday morning, at 10:45 A.M.

The subject will be "The Nazarene — Reflections on Sholem Asch's Biographic novel."

Sisterhood News

Because of unforeseen circumstances, Mrs. Bessie Goodman will be unable to have the meeting at her home, as scheduled. MRS. JOSEPH H. LOOKSTEIN will be the hostess at this meeting, on MONDAY, JANUARY 8th, at her home, 106 East 85th Street. You are urged to bring your friends and enjoy an afternoon consisting of LUNCH — BUSINESS — ENTERTAINMENT. There will be a review of the current play "KEY LARGO" by a member of the cast. The hostess asks that members come promptly at 12:30 so as to have enough time for the entire program.

Children's Services

Sabbath morning services for children will again be initiated, starting January 13th, at 10:30 A.M.

This is an additional activity in our Synagogue program which should be of paramount importance to our parents. For at these services, which are very capably conducted, the children participate in prayers, community singing, listen to a sermonette, receive a Rabbinical benediction and hear the Kiddush recited. A miniature congregation of this type is an intelligent medium for providing a spiritual impulse to our children.

Urge your children to attend these services regularly, starting next Saturday. Let them bring their friends. We know they will find it interesting and inspiring.

THE MEN'S CLUB

A Request from the Bazaar Chairman

Our very capable and energetic Chairman of Bazaar, Mrs. Bessie Goodman, wishes to make a very special request to all the members and friends of Kehilath Jeshurun. At the present time, the Bazaar is progressing beautifully. It is most encouraging and gratifying to see the packages come in each day. Mrs. Goodman wishes to urge the men of the congregation to send in as much merchandise as they can and to solicit their friends to do the same. A few letters sent out by each man in the Congregation would assure us of a really tremendous Bazaar. The ladies, too, can play an important role. First, they are urged to keep on reminding their men-folk to send merchandise and second, to contribute to our Rummage department. For a special feature of the Bazaar will be the Rummage Sale Department. We can use any and all old wearing apparel, china, glass-ware, bric-a-brac, etc. Call the Synagogue office and your package will be called for, or, if possible, you will be assisting to a larger extent, if you can send your package to us.

We are deeply grateful to the following concerns who sent merchandise this past week: J. Mittelmark, Mrs. Max Singer, Paul Cohen, Eisenstadt & Co., Paul Rus Jewelry Co., Ohrbach's, A. Schlang, Mrs. Sam Gross, Cisco, Inc., Eagle Pencil Co., Packers Tar Soap, Inc., A. Stein & Co., Louis Silverman & Co., Eaton Paper Co., Annabelle Beauty Shop, Sol Mutterperl, A. Miller & Co., A. Katz, A. Friedland, Levine Bros., Henry Edelstein, Joseph Julie Co., Chas. A. Saretsky.

Trustees Vote to Establish Afternoon Hebrew School

One of the best attended meetings of the Board of Trustees in recent years was held last Thursday night in the library of the synagogue. The Board heard reports of the successful dinner-dance, of the newly formed Men's Club and of the remarkable progress of the Ramaz Academy.

In elaborating upon the academy report, Rabbi Lookstein explained that what was needed to give the congregation a comprehensive educational system was an afternoon Hebrew School to meet three afternoons a week. The Rabbi reported that in his conversation with parents who were affiliated with the congregation, the request for the establishment of a school sponsored by the congregation was continually made. They felt that it was rightfully due them in return for their membership and that in the absence of such a school, they had no other alternative but to avail themselves of Sunday schools in the neighborhood that were in no way adequate.

After much discussion a resolution was unanimously passed to establish an afternoon Hebrew School to begin its sessions with the opening of the school year in September, 1940. The president was authorized to appoint a committee to make all the necessary arrangements for the carrying out of this resolution. This news has been happily received by all those who have heard of it and inquiries from interested parents are already quite numerous.

In the absence of Mr. Margaraten who was out of town, Mr. Sokolski, the vice-president, turned the chair over to Mr. Max Etra who presided at the meeting.
