Sisterhood News

Frederic Tozare, who, although contrary to all appearances, portrays the character of the villain in Maxwell Anderson's current play "Key Largo," addressed the Sisterhood meeting last Monday. In giving his explanation of the play and some readings from it, Mr. Tozare, besides stimulating his audience with a desire to see it, provided a most enjoyable part of the afternoon.

After a delicious lunch, with Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein as the very charming hostess, Mrs. Alpert, President, opened the meeting. When the business of the meeting was completed Mrs. Alpert spoke at length urging the women to attend Sabbath services. In these turbulent days, when the entire world is groping for a reason for its chaotic state — for a ray of hope — for some encouragement as to the ultimate solution, the doors of the Synagogue stand wide open, beckoning to its congregants to enter. For it is only through religion, said Mrs. Alpert, that we can hope for an answer. It is only through attendance at Sabbath services that we become inculcated with a desire for religion.

Mrs. Alpert's appeal met with a decision to make Saturday, January 20th, "SISTERHOOD SABBATH." Special features will be inaugurated at these services. We urge all members to attend, with their families. Cultivate the Synagogue-going habit. It will definitely prove a source of comfort to you.

Mrs. Fred Margareten will be the hostess at the next Sisterhood meeting, which will take place MONDAY, JANUARY 22nd, at 12:30 o'clock. Keep the date open, ladies, for there will be a pleasant afternoon in store for you.

FIRST MEN'S CLUB FORUM-MEETING A HUGE SUCCESS
JOHANNES STEEL, FAMOUS RADIO COMMENTATOR, DRAWS CAPACITY CROWD

The 1940 winter series of the new Men's Club forum meetings began under colorful circumstances last Tuesday night, January 9th, when a crowd estimated at nearly two hundred filled the social hall to overflowing.

The meeting was opened by the President, Ira F. Weisman, who announced that a regular feature of these meetings would be a Jewish news period of ten minutes duration, conducted by Rabbi Lookstein. Rabbi Lookstein's initial "News Broadcast" lived up to its promises in two respects; it was newsy and it lasted just ten minutes.

Johannes Steel's address which held the crowd spellbound for a solid hour, was on the subject "What's Ahead of the World for 1940." The speaker, however, went considerably farther in his predictions of world events when he estimated that the present European War would be the First Thirty Year War of the Twentieth Century.

After the address, Mr. Steel conducted a question and answer forum, which provoked discussions among the audience for some time after the meeting adjourned. In addition to the members of the Men's Club who attended this meeting, there were some one hundred guests. An unusual collation was served, at which the ladies of the Sisterhood graciously acted as hostesses. The Men's Club wishes to express their sincere thanks to Mr. Thomas Bornstein, Mr. Sam Bucher and to Mr. Nathan B. Trotsky of the Carlton Caterers, who were responsible for the delicious refreshments.

The next Men's Club meeting, which will be held the second Tuesday in February, (the 13th,) will be addressed by an equally famous speaker and there also will be an entertainment feature.

Cultural Class Growing

The attendance at the Cultural Class meetings has been steadily increasing, we are happy to say. The informality of the group, the earnestness and interest of the audience, is what impresses new-comers. At each meeting exclamations of "Oh, I am so sorry I missed the last lecture/" "I'll never miss one of these meetings if I can help it!" "The Cultural Class date is one we will never change, are heard." All of which indicates the trend of reactions to the lectures.

At the last meeting, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Polstein, Rabbi Lookstein discussed the life of ZEVI HIRSCH KALISCHER, who established the first colony in Palestine and of SAMUEL MOHILEVER, the founder of the "Lover of Zion" movement. Learning of the lives of men who have meant so much to our people but who are not generally known is what creates the interest in the class. Those who have not attended in the past should plan to attend the next class, at which time Rabbi Lookstein will discuss "The National Philosophy of Achad Haam." Because the Rabbi will not be in town for the next scheduled date, the class will meet TUESDAY, JANUARY 23rd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Alpert, 519 East 86th Street.

Condolences

Kehilath Jeshurun and the Sisterhood wish to express their sincere sympathy to Mrs. Bessie Goodman and Mrs. Minnie Herman upon the death of their dear sister, Mrs. Frances L. H. Hepner.

Prof. Joseph G. Cohen to Address Parent Teacher Association Meeting

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy is privileged to have as its guest speaker at the next meeting Prof. Joseph G. Cohen, Dean of the School of Education at Brooklyn College and a member of the Advisory Board of the Academy. Prof. Cohen is an educator of wide reputation and a speaker of charm and great ability. His lectures have been aptly described as "Symphonies of Instruction." The subject of Prof. Cohen's lecture is "The Meaning of Progressive Education" and, being a recognized authority on this subject, it will be a lecture well worth attending. Members of the Association and their friends as well as the general membership are cordially invited to be present TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 16th, promptly at 8 o'clock, in the library of the Synagogue.

The Ramaz Academy Requests—

The office of the Ramaz Academy is very much in need of a typewriter and of a day-bed or chaise, and will be deeply grateful to anyone who is able to furnish either article. Just communicate with the office and we will call for your donation.

BAZAAR PROGRESSES

There is no more encouraging sight than to see the many packages of beautiful merchandise which are brought to the Synagogue office every day. It has often been remarked by the committee in charge of the bazaar that there really are a great many wondrously generous people in this world! The response has been excellent—but we still have not enough merchandise to assure us of the success we anticipate. There are still many Kehilath Jeshurun members and seatholders who have not replied to our request for merchandise or for letters of recommendation to others. Remember, friends—we can utilize all kinds of merchandise. It need not be new tho we'd like it! It may be damaged, soiled, odd lots, discarded numbers. We can use whatever you send. It can all be turned into cash, which means continuing the philanthropic and educational program of the Sisterhood. Will YOU help?

Those who contributed since the last printing are: S. Klein, A. Wald, L. Friedberg, S. Liebovitz & Sons, Aronson-Caplin Co., Berkshire Underwear Mfg. Co., Feltman Bros., F. Schumacher, A. S. Beck Shoe Co., Mrs. Pofscher, Susquehanna Waist Co., Mrs. Mager and Mr. Herman Goldman.

A REMINDER

As was announced last week, the Children's Services will start this Sabbath at 10:30 o'clock. Bring or send your children and let them participate in a delightful service which will imbue them with a true traditional spirit and help them grow into understanding, sympathetic, conscious Jews and Jewesses!
