No Talmud Class This Monday

Because of the absence of the Rabbi from the city there will be no Talmud Class this week. The class will be resumed on February 5th.

Condolences

Sincere condolences are extended to Mrs. Eli Goldstein upon the death of her dear father, Mr. Samuel Kleppner. The Congregation earnestly hopes she and her dear ones will know only happiness for many, many years to come.

Sisterhood News

There was a splendid attendance at the last Sisterhood meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Fred Margareten. Mrs. Jacob Alpert, President, opened the meeting with profuse thanks to the very gracious hostess and then proceeded with the business. The most important issue was the decision to hold the Bazaar and Rummage Sale during the early part of February.

Kehilath Jeshurun Sisterhood meetings are known to strike a new note at each gathering. At Monday's meeting there were many "New Notes" struck! MRS. HILDA HOLT, musician, teacher, composer, gave a most interesting talk on "AN APPRECIATION OF MUSIC", demonstrating her lecture with piano and victrola selections. It was truly a most delightful afternoon and the Sisterhood is very grateful to Mrs. Holt for giving so freely of her precious time.

No specific date was set for the next meeting for all members are expected to assist at the Bazaar. Watch the Bulletin for further news

Rabbi Leaves For Florida

Rabbi Lookstein left for Miami, Florida, on Thursday, for a speaking engagement and will return, Please God, on the 2nd of February.

Rabbi Margolies' Portrait Exhibited

A magnificent portrait of our own sainted RABBI MARGOLIES, is on exhibition in the library of the Synagogue. This unusual piece of art is the work of the well-known portrait-painter, GEZA FISCHER. The public is cordially invited to see this portrait which is a perfect likeness of our revered Rabbi. Anyone wishing to purchase it will find it very moderately priced. And, a hint to the wise is sufficient! — what more appropriate place could be found for a portrait of Rabbi Margolies than the Synagogue which he served so long and so well.

Last Call For Merchandise

There are just a few weeks left before the doors of the BAZAAR and RUMMAGE SALE will open. That means — just a few more weeks in which to give — or get — merchandise. Remember, friends, they can utilize everything YOU can no longer use! Call or write to the Synagogue office and we will send for your contribution. This is a comparatively easy way for the Sisterhood to realize money for their many activities. With little or no effort you can help them! There is hardly a business firm which is not deluged with requests for bazaar merchandise. Why not help your own? Charity begins at home, and, while it should not end there, we must not neglect our own to the exclusion of others.

We are indebted to the following for the donations they sent this past week: H. Haussman Hosiery Co.; Mrs. R. Simon; Bernard Bernstein Textile Co.; Petite Baby Wear; Markay Waist Co.; Mrs. M. Bernard, Mrs. J. Haas; Leo J. Epstein; Princely Mills; I. Greenman; Simco, Inc.; Barney's; Joy Doll Co.; Ansonia Shoe Co.; Alfred I. Simon Co.; Feist Fabrics, Inc.; Cone Export & Commission Co.; Fownes Gloves; J. H. Alpert.

Watch the Bulletin for the place and date of opening! Volunteer your services for the sales force! Let us know what day is most convenient for you to spend in the store. Help your Sisterhood and your Synagogue!

Cultural Class News

At the last meeting of the Cultural class, Rabbi Lookstein, as a preliminary to his discussion of ACHAD HAAM, spoke of the causes which gave birth to Zionism and discussed briefly its various phases or concepts. In speaking of the causes the Rabbi mentioned the Emancipation of the Jews; the Emancipation of European masses from Feudalism and the growth of Nationalism; and lastly, the cycles of Jewish persecution after their emancipation.

The large group which had gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alpert were intensely interested and are looking forward to the next session, to be held Wednesday, February 7th, at which time Rabbi Lookstein will continue with "THE NATIONAL PHILOSOPHY OF ACHAD HAAM".

Members and their friends are always cordially invited to attend these lectures. No one should miss the unusual opportunity of studying the lives of the founders of Zionism, given in a manner in which Rabbi Lookstein excels and in a most congenial atmosphere.

Sydney J. Silberman Wins Essay Contest

Kehilath Jeshurun is proud of its young sons who distinguish themselves. One of these is Sidney J. Silberman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seppy I. Silberman, whose essay on "Religion and Democracy" won him a prize offered by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Congratulations, Sidney, and may you win many more honors!

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

We are endeavoring to build a firmer and deeper foundation in the interest of a wider and more lasting influence which is at once fraternal, intellectual and beneficent.

This will take both time and effort. It will further require the continued interest and participation of all those who are like-minded; who have a kindred desire to attain the same end; who see in our aim the attainment of a keener and higher sense of awareness and understanding.

To just such aims and purposes have we, the MEN'S CLUB, dedicated ourselves. All who would join our ranks are welcome—and wanted.

Personals

Dr. Heckler has a really fine collection of first editions but that does not help his pinochle game.

* * *

The man behind those chuckles is none other than—DAVID J. COLTON.

* * *

Even a new Men's Club has to SIMON-IZE! And we're happy to advertise the fact in the persons of DANIEL, AARON J., EMANUEL and ABBOTT SIMON.

The Florida Shuttle

JACOB RUDD returns.

Max J. Etra leaves.

Sam Sacks returns and

Alvin Austin is about to leave;

To say nothing of the Rabbi.

The bed-ridden during the week were Judge Samuel M. Katz, Benedict I. Lubell and Ira F. Weisman. We are glad to report all are back to normal.
