Rabbi Lookstein Addresses Jewish Student Society

The Jewish Student Society, of Columbia College, a group which meets every week for discussion of various aspects and problems of Judaism, had the privilege of listening to Rabbi Lookstein at their last meeting. The Rabbi gave them an exposition of the theory and practice of Orthodox Judaism, which was followed by a question and answer period. It was the consensus of opinion that the group felt greatly benefited by the Rabbi's talk.

No Talmud Class This Monday Rabbi Lookstein Guest at Raleigh, N. C.

Rabbi Lookstein has been invited to be the guest speaker at the annual conference of the South Atlantic region of Mizrahi, at Raleigh, N. C., this Sunday night. The Rabbi will be the guest of Governor Hoey of North Carolina and his address will be broadcast over a hook-up of the Southern networks.

Since the Rabbi will not return until Tuesday, there will be no Talmud class this coming Monday night.

Synagogue Suffers Severe Losses

Last Monday night, while Rabbi Lookstein was conducting his regular Talmud Class, thieves entered the building, broke open and ransacked every closet and stole many valuable pieces of silver, including the two silver basins and vessels used by the Cohanim, many wine cups, trays, and other religious articles. The police are working on this but as yet no clue has been found.

Synagogue Recipient of More Prayer Books

We are very happy to announce that additional prayer-books have been received from the Jane Fischel Memorial Fund. We are deeply grateful to the family of the late Jane Fischel for their thoughtfulness and kindness, and it is our earnest hope that we will always merit their cooperation and support.

C. J. I. Dramatic Society to Present Play

"And The Tree Will Grow" a new play of current Jewish interest will be presented at the Central Jewish Institute, 125 East 85th Street, Saturday evening, March 9th.

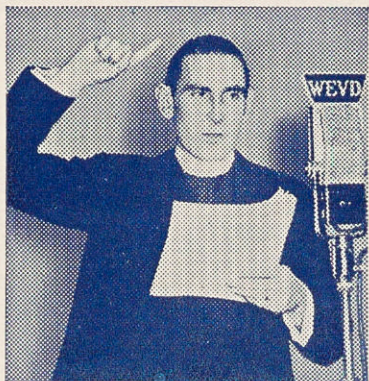

"And The Tree Will Grow" had its first performance before a capacity audience several weeks ago and is being presented again to give those interested in Anglo-Jewish educational and dramatic projects an opportunity to see the play.

"PROPAGANDA TERMITES"

This Christian Clergyman has a vital message for you! This Christian Clergyman is valiantly fighting your fight! This Christian Clergyman has dedicated all of his time, his energy and his life, if need be, in behalf of all who are the victims of organized hatred and injustice. The Men's Club can indeed feel proud to present this active proponent of the oft quoted but seldom practised Golden Rule.

Sisterhood News

Although the last meeting of the Sisterhood was a small one, due to the very inclement weather and the many illnesses prevalent at this time, a great deal was accomplished. Seated around a table replete with delicious refreshments, with Mrs. Ben Wohl, a very gracious hostess presiding, plans for the final Tea were discussed and a committee, with Mrs. Jack Rudd as Chairman, was appointed to complete the details.

An informal discussion of ways and means of increasing the membership took place and many constructive suggestions were given.

A report of the progress of the Bazaar was given, which pleased those present very much.

There will be a meeting MONDAY, MARCH 18th, at which a complete report of the Bazaar and final arrangements for the Tea will be presented.

Boy Scout News

It is certainly interesting to note the activity and hustle-bustle about the Scout room every Thursday evening. The boys have been working on beaded troop numerals and are planning leather work to be commenced as their next project. In addition, plans are being made for the charter night, the troop's birthday, to be held at the end of March. The plans include demonstrations of scoutcraft, presentation of awards, skits, and a scout movie. Not content with working on all of the above, the scouts and the scouters have been preparing for an inter-troop contest in first aid, signalling, knot tying, and flint and steel.

If any of the boys of the congregation desire to join in these worthwhile activities, drop in at the C.J.I. at one of the weekly meetings and get a first hand glimpse of the doings; in fact make it a date for this Thursday night!

Bazaar-Rummage

Sale Closes—A Success

The Bazaar and Rummage Sale is over and the Sisterhood members who have toiled tirelessly can rest and relax once again. And, while resting and relaxing, they will recall the joy and satisfaction they felt each evening, knowing full well they had achieved some success that day. They will remember the delight of opening packages and assorting and arranging merchandise; the fun they had in their capacity of saleswomen. But above all, will be the happiness they will experience in the knowledge their pledge to the Ramaz Academy, for three full-scholarships, will be fulfilled.

Although the workers want no word of praise or thanks, it is only fitting to mention those who were directly responsible for the success of this project. To Bessie Goodman, Chairman of the Bazaar, who gave of herself unstintingly every day to supervise all activity at the store, whose experience and advice was indispensable, we offer a trite but very sincere "Thank You". To her many co-workers, the Mesdames Alpert, Lookstein, Jacobs, Gross, Margareten, Cooperman, Pofsher, Adler, Harris, Schlang, Rudd, Wohl, Fischman, Cooperman and Miss Muriel Margareten, we extend sincere thanks and unlimited praise for the earnestness with which they opened the Bazaar and the efficiency with which they concluded it.

We are indebted to the following for their generous contributions: Dutchess Fabrics, Inc., Princely Mfg. Co., Rose Laiken, Friedman Bros., Morris Asinof & Sons, Universal Brassiere Co., Mrs. Schwartz, Mrs. Dworkin, Mrs. Herman, Mrs. Cooperman, Mary Elizabeth Frocks Co., Katz & Burkin, H. Hertzfeld & Son, Inc., M. J. Lehner, Miles Shoe Co., Horowitz-Margareten, A. Goodman & Sons, Miss Mitchell, L. W. Yohann, Pechter's Bread Co.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

We of the Men's Club are embarked on an interesting and needed project. We seek with all our hearts to bring together in harmonious understanding those elements of our Jewish population who need an effective agency to permit them to participate in the type of work in which we are engaged.

Our aims are wide and deep: the promotion of fellowship and goodwill; a cultivation of the intellectual and the cultural; and the desire to participate in such benevolent and humanitarian endeavors as our resources will permit. That there are many who are in accord with us is best attested to by the fact that our membership is daily increasing. Furthermore, we have maintained and we mean to maintain a high standard of operation which is entirely in keeping with the worthiness of our goal. You are welcome to attend our meetings and see for yourselves.

PERSONALS

We want to publicly thank Samuel Sacks for his needed contribution of a large hand-made "badge-rack". It's a splendid example of the personal effort of a very busy man. It is likewise an example of the basic principle that an organization in order to be successful must properly attend to every detail.

Booth Tarkington long ago wrote a famous play called "Seventeen", but seventeen men were not playing last Thursday night when they sat for three and one half hours animatedly discussing the affairs of the Men's Club. We salute the Executive Committee.

Alvin Austin, not bare-foot but with cheek of tan, has returned from Florida. Welcome home.

The Rabbi isn't nervous, he's just pinching himself to see if it is true! Yes, the Men's Club is functioning on all cylinders.
