THE SALE OF CHOMETZ

The sale of Chometz will begin Monday, April 15th. Rabbi Lookstein will be available for that purpose in the Synagogue every morning, until the Eve of Passover. The sale of Chometz is more than a formality; it is an important law the observance of which is necessary for the maintenance of the Kashruth of a Jewish home.

Abraham Wiener, Educator, to Address P.T.A. Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy will be held TUESDAY, APRIL 16th, in the Social Hall of the Synagogue.

Important announcements regarding the registration of children for next term will be made. Since this is the time of year when parents are considering sending their children to camp, a very appropriate topic has been chosen for this meeting. MR. ABRAHAM WIENER, an Educator in the New York schools, who has had many years of experience as a Camp Director, will talk on "WHAT CAMP CAN DO FOR YOUR CHILD".

An open discussion and refreshments will follow the meeting. All parents interested in the Ramaz Academy and in camp, will be welcome.

New Young Folks' League Meeting April 17th

Wednesday night, April 17th, at 8:15 P.M. a new Young Folks' League is being formed on the East Side of New York. The Youth Division of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America, in an effort to build a strong Orthodox-Jewish Youth movement, is organizing this group as a central body for the East Side Youth. The first meeting is taking place in a large auditorium of the Y.M.H.A. at 92nd Street and Lexington Avenue. HONORABLE SENATOR PHILIP M. KLEINFELD will address the meeting.

Since this group, which will favor cultural and educational programs, is designed principally for the East Side, it is requested that the sons, daughters and friends of the Kehilath Jeshurun members attend this meeting. The age limits of the group are tentatively set at 18-35 years.

APRIL 15th will really be a "Blue Monday" if you miss

at the

CAFE MONTPARNASSE — 50 East 79th Street

on

SUNDAY, APRIL 14th, from 3-6

Eleanor Fairchild will be there to demonstrate her terpsichorean ability . . . there will be good music to which you may demonstrate your terpsichorean ability . . . Topped off with hors d'oeuvres and drinks, the afternoon should prove very effective in chasing those Monday "blues."

Sisterhood News

Despite the inclement weather last Monday, a fine group gathered at the home of Mrs. Max Berenstein for the regular meeting of the Sisterhood. Reports of the various committees were given, with special emphasis on the COCKTAIL PARTY to be held April 14th. A resume of the many activities of the Sisterhood was given for the benefit of the guests who were present. As a result, Mrs. Charles Benowitz, daughter of the hostess, evidenced her interest in the organization by joining the Sisterhood.

The piece de resistance was the review of two current books by the outstanding interpreter (of Books and Plays) JULIETTE T. ASHNER, who spoke in a most beautiful and eloquent manner. Those who had not read "How Green Was My Valley" and "Land Below The Wind" determined to lose no time in procuring both books, so great was the stimulation of interest in them. It was truly a rare treat for those who attended.

Mrs. Jacob H. Alpert, President, thanked the hostess for her gracious cordiality. The date for the next and closing meeting was announced for MONDAY, MAY 6th, at the home of Mrs. Maxwell Shapiro. At this final meeting election of officers will take place. Therefore—ladies—keep that date free for your Sisterhood. Come and bring with you any and all friends who are interested in affiliation with us.

Passover Is Coming!

"And had God not delivered our ancestors from foreign bondage, who knows but what we, our children and our children's children would have been compelled to serve . . . Hitler?"

When we sit at our Seder table, surrounded by all our dear ones, we will have a definite feeling of satisfaction only if we have the conviction we have done our share to alleviate the suffering of our less fortunate brethren; if we have done our share in providing the bare necessities for the ever-increasing number of destitute Jews—native and refugee!

WE HAVE NOT REACHED OUR QUOTA! Which means, that not everyone has contributed! We urge you to do so immediately. Make your contributions as liberal as possible! Our slogan for the present is "Give Until It Feels Good!"

Congratulations

The congregation is happy to learn of the engagement of Miss Leona Feifer, daughter of Mrs. Feifer and the late Bernard Feifer, to Mr. Marcy Chanin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Chanin, and wishes for them a life replete with every happiness.

BRILL THRILLS MEN'S CLUB WITH FRANK TALK ON "SEX"

There was a "different" sort of forum meeting held in the Social Hall last Tuesday evening when the eminent psychiatrist Dr. A. A. Brill addressed the Men's Club on the subject "The Psycho-Sexual Life of Man". It was different from any other meeting in the series, in that there was no discussion of current world politics, war or Anti-Semitism. The famous specialist in psycho-analysis, who is said to be the successor to Freud, held the crowded meeting hall spellbound for over an hour, as he told his audience of the restrictions to sex impulses which civilization has imposed upon the highest form of animal, man (and woman).

In reply to a question put to him after the discussion, Dr. Brill said that in his opinion much of the aggression and the sadism that characterize the life of Hitler is due in no small measure to a sex-factor.

Rabbi Lookstein opened the meeting with a fifteen minute period of Jewish news, in which he gave an absorbing account of the great New Zionist protagonist, Jabotinsky, who is now in New York, and a very brief but informative obituary on Dr. Cyrus Adler, who passed away this week.

Ira F. Weisman presided in his usual capable manner, despite cold and fever. The Men's Club is fortunate in its choice of so conscientious and hard-working a leader.

As usual, the Club played host at the meeting's conclusion by serving a delicious buffet and cold drinks.

The next meeting will be held May 7th, when a surprise event is in store.
