Men's Club News

Now that our Forum meetings of the present semester have ended we may look back in retrospect at our accomplishments.

Happily we can report a fair measure of progress. We have presented a varied array of nationally important personalities, men who are recognized leaders in their respective field of endeavor. Each has presented his individual point of view on a subject of universal concern which has proven educational as well as informative. We have brought many new faces within the confines of the Synagogue; our membership has long since soared beyond the century mark and the personnel is particularly estimable; there is developing a camaraderie and friendship which makes for unity and constructive action, and some of the newer people have already become members of the congregation. On the benevolent side we have been enabled to give a helping hand to at least one most noteworthy cause. May we continue to have the necessary strength as well as the resolve to undertake such work in ever larger measure. A further helpful and encouraging factor has been the overflow audiences at every meeting—a definite sign that our program is meeting a vital need.

To summarize, our condition since the reorganization of six months ago has emerged from the static to the dynamic; from the apathetic to the active; from the drifting to the purposeful; and from the loosely functioning to a well-organized unit.

SISTERHOOD PLANS "GIVE OR GET" LUNCHEON

Fannie S. Bernard Chosen Chairman

MRS. JACOB RUDD, newly elected President, has started things a-rolling in the Sisterhood. At a recent luncheon-meeting of the Board, held at the home of Mrs. Rudd, there were many pros and cons as to the type of luncheon to be given in the Fall. After much discussion and careful consideration, the "pros" had it—it was unanimously decided to hold a $10.00 Give or Get Luncheon. The date was set for NOVEMBER 6th; the place, SHERRY'S! The enthusiasm which was evidenced was indicative of the attitude of our Board, who always eagerly and conscientiously follow through any and all plans. MRS. FANNIE BERNARD was chosen Chairman for this affair, and, knowing her competence and ability from past experiences, it was a wise choice.

Mrs. Bernard called a small committee meeting subsequent to the luncheon-meeting when tentative plans were discussed. The following committee was appointed to work with the Chairman: Mesdames Michael Adler, Louis Alpert, Jacob H. Alpert, Harry Etra, William Frieder, S. S. Gordon, Charles Jacobs, George Jacobs, Joseph H. Lookstein, Fred Margareten, Abraham Polstein, Henry A. Ratsky, I. Sheinblum, S. I. Silberman, L. W. Yohann. This committee has been called to meet at the home of Mrs. Bernard, Tuesday, May 28th, at which time ways and means of raising the $10.00 will be discussed, and all details of the luncheon arranged for.

There are "Big Things" ahead for the Sisterhood, and, with the cooperation of every member, they must, and will, attain the goal for which they are striving.

SISTERHOOD PREPARES FOR RUMMAGE SALE

If you are dismantling your home and having your Spring cleaning done, you will undoubtedly find many articles of clothing, furniture, china, bric a brac, etc. which you no longer care to use. The Sisterhood will appreciate receiving all your discards in preparation for their Annual Bazaar and Rummage Sale. Call the Synagogue office and they will call for your package. Better still, send it to the office and earn the reward of a good deed done.
