Registration for Hebrew Classes Going On

The class in Hebrew being sponsored by the Sisterhood and the Parent Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy will begin sessions Wednesday morning, November 13th, at 10:30 o'clock. Registration is still going on and will continue for another week. All those adults interested in the study of Hebrew (reading, writing and speaking) are invited to communicate with the office, or to use the enclosed enrollment blank.

Classes in Bible and Jewish History for High School Boys and Girls

Registration is now taking place for two courses to be given to High School students. One, on the Bible, will be given by Mr. Leon J. Karni, Principal of the Central Jewish Institute Hebrew School. The course in Jewish History will be conducted by Rabbi Lookstein. This is a rare opportunity which every young girl and boy should take advantage of. Send in the enclosed enrollment form immediately. Remember that Hebrew education does not cease when a child reaches the age of thirteen. Parents, give your children the chance to receive instruction from two expert teachers. Neither you nor they will regret it.

Rabbi Lookstein will preach this Sabbath morning on

"NOW THAT THE ELECTION IS OVER"

at 10:30 o'clock.

A Belated Thanks to Our Ushers

Our bulletin has been so chock full of news in recent weeks that we have not had an opportunity to properly thank our ushers for the splendid work that they did during the High Holidays just past.

We wish especially to thank the chairman of the Ushers Committee, Mr. George Jacobs. His work was certainly not a bed of roses, but he performed it with dignity and tact. To Dr. Elmer Alpert, Charles Schlang, Sidney Silberman, Harry Silberschutz and Jerome Margareten go our thanks for their fine job of ushering.

Important Publication by Rabbi

A pamphlet entitled "Orthodox Judaism" and written by Rabbi Lookstein has just been published by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and is available for circulation. Copies of the pamphlet will gladly be sent, free of charge, to those who will write to the office of the synagogue.

Congratulations

Kehilath Jeshurun rejoices at the announcement of the engagement of our Cantor, Robert R. Fingeroth to Miss Blanch Silverman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Morris Silverman. Mr. Fingeroth needs no introduction to synagogue devotees. Of his bride-to-be it may be noted that she is a graduate of Hunter College, Phi Beta Kappa, and is at present Assistant Instructor at Columbia University Extension. Our best wishes for a lifetime of complete happiness go to them.

SISTERHOOD LUNCHEON GALA AFFAIR

When the suggestion was made to run a $10.00 Donor Luncheon, there were many who were skeptical of the results. There were a few, however, confident of success. The enthusiasm of MRS. GEORGE JACOBS, Chairman, and her very able committee won the cooperation of the hesitant group, who soon rallied to her aid. Together they reached the goal they had set. They are to be congratulated for their efforts and the resulting success, both financial and social.

A truly beautiful affair! After the singing of the National Anthem and "Hatikvah" by Mrs. S. I. Silberman, Rabbi Lookstein gave the benediction, after which MRS. JACOB RUDD, President of the Sisterhood, introduced the officers and then turned the program over to the Chairman, Mrs. Jacobs.

In her very charming manner, Mrs. Jacobs, after greeting all the guests, thanked those who had assisted her: Mesdames Rudd, Lookstein, Alpert, Bernard, Fischman, Singer, Gordon, Johann Etra and Silberman.

After a very delicious luncheon, the guests were delighted with the talented GLORIA HOPE, who sang a group of songs in an exceedingly charming way.

HERBERT STEINER'S TROUBADORS, accompanied her and entertained in their own inimitable way to the complete enjoyment of the audience.

There were three beautiful door prizes given and ten other gifts which were donated by the following: Best & Co., Bonwit Teller & Co., R. H. Macy, Selmar Studios, Mrs. Albert Levey, Swank Jewelry Co., Ilsa Wine Co., Bloomingdale Bros., Dale Luggage, Flora-Mir, Henrietta Shops, Mrs. I. Givner.

Rabbi Lookstein was the guest speaker, stressing the importance of religious education, a very timely subject these days. Mah Jong and Bridge followed for those who wished to play. The consensus of opinion was unanimous, a most delightful time was had by all. Repeated requests for more such affairs were heard while guests departed. The committee felt well rewarded for all the effort they had put forth.

SISTERHOOD ACTIVITIES MARCH ON

Now that the luncheon is over, the Sisterhood is turning its attention to the annual Rummage Sale and Bazaar. No definite plans have been made as yet. But it is essential for everyone to start thinking about those people from whom they can receive merchandise. We accept old, discarded, soiled, damaged, seconds, anything you cannot use, we can turn into money. Call the office, if you have any articles of clothing, bric a brac, china, glassware. We will gladly call for it.
