Sisterhood Meeting Beyond Expectations

Although everyone knew the membership meeting held last Monday at the home of Mrs. Samuel Rosen would be successful, it went beyond all expectations. Mrs. Jacob Rudd, President, opened the meeting with a profuse vote of thanks to the very gracious and charming hostess who had provided a most delicious dessert-luncheon. Because of illness, Rabbi Lookstein could not be present to participate in the induction of the new members. This was very efficiently handled, however, by the Chairman of Membership, Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein. Mrs. Rudd explained in detail the many and varied activities of the Sisterhood and then officially welcomed the new members.

The musical program was par excellence! The Gotham Trio, a piano, violin and cello ensemble, entertained with Spanish music to the delight of all. Ranya Rim sang a group of Palestinian songs beautifully. It was indeed an afternoon well spent and everyone left with a better understanding of what Kehilath Jeshurun Sisterhood means not only to the Synagogue but to the community at large.

Our President In Florida

Mr. Max J. Etra and his Mother have gone to the sunny South for the winter. The congregation trusts they will both enjoy their stay in Florida to the fullest.

Synagogue To Celebrate Bar Mitzvah

The congregation extends to Simeon L. Feigin and his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Solomon S. Feigin, sincere congratulations upon the occasion of his Bar Mitzvah and trusts his entrance into the Jewish fold will mark the beginning of many happy events for them all.

Knitting Group Enthusiastic

The Sisterhood has voted another contribution of wool to make blankets and sweaters for Bundles For Britain, Inc. The first shipment to them was very gratefully received and a plea to continue this essential project was made. It is being answered by an ever-increasing group of women who earnestly and conscientiously utilize every spare moment to knit a blanket or a sweater for some unfortunate baby in England.

The group meets every Monday, in the social hall of the synagogue, from 1-5 o'clock. Anyone desirous of assisting in this cause, will be welcome to attend these meetings.

Daily Prayer Books Needed

The Synagogue is very much in need of about 75-100 daily prayer books. Uniform books are used and they are priced at $.75 each. Anyone desiring to donate some of these books may communicate with the office. This is a truly fine way of commemorating the memory of a dear one.

Symposium At Ramaz Parent-Teacher Meeting

MR. JACOB RUDD, MR. DAVID PUTTERMAN AND MRS. JOSEPH HAAS will participate in a symposium on "WHAT I EXPECT EDUCATION TO DO FOR MY CHILD" at the next meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy to be held TUESDAY, JANUARY 21st, at 8:15 in the social hall of the synagogue. RABBI LOOKSTEIN will summarize the discussion. All parents and their friends are invited to be present.

Did You Remember?

Although Chanukah is gone and undoubtedly forgotten, we are reminded every day of the depleted funds in the Benevolent account. Did you remember to send a contribution in response to the Chanukah Candles you received? If you have delayed in sending it, won't you please do so at once? Any amount will be gratefully accepted. The response this year has been less than in any prior year, yet the demands are greater. Will you help?

First Men's Club Smoker Voted Splendid Success

The first smoker in Men's Club history was held Tuesday night in the social hall with an attendance 50% greater than anticipated. In the point of enjoyment and all-around good time it was voted a huge success by all present.

A new Men's Club star was born in the person of Bill Levenson who kept the audience in stitches with his humorous stories. Another outstanding hit of the evening was Mr. Adler's most entertaining bar-mitzvah speech. The evening's highlight was the artistry of Josef Lengyal who gave caricatures in song. Mrs. Lengyal charmed with several delightful vocal selections. Humorous anecdotes were told by Ben Steiner and Dr. A. Klatzkin. Mr. Wm. Fischberg announced the sale of tickets at box office prices for the big hockey game on Sunday evening, March 2, 1941 the proceeds to go to the Bundles for Britain and other charitable purposes. President Ira F. Weisman as usual, effectively performed the function of toast-master.

Credit: Thanks to Frank Lowenthal for pretzels and popcorn and to Mr. Thomas Bornstein for frankfurters.

An exceptional attraction has been secured for the meeting of Tuesday, February 11th, in the person of Sir Sydney A. Moseley, international newspaper correspondent, who has covered the Near East, Africa and practically every part of the world for British Journals. His topic will be "HOW IMPORTANT TO AMERICA IS BRITISH VICTORY."

B A Z A A R N E W S

Letters have been sent to all members of the congregation and Sisterhood telling about the Bazaar and requesting a response. Many, many letters have been sent to strangers, with the same information and the same request. It is extremely disappointing to the committee to find that the response had been greater from the latter group than from the former. WHY? Surely every household discards something, sometime! Certainly every business has some merchandise which is unsaleable! We do not ask for new merchandise—although we would appreciate it. We are grateful for old, damaged, discarded and discontinued lots, even soiled merchandise! We ask, too, for your cooperation in sending us the names and addresses of friends and business associates who can be contacted for a package and who would unquestionably be glad of an opportunity of clearing their shelves of unwanted merchandise.

GET THAT PACKAGE READY TODAY! Return the card you received telling us when you will send your contribution or when we should call for it. Act quickly, for a prompt response means encouragement to the committee.

We are indebted to the following for the very generous contributions they sent: Wrigley's Co., Harry F. Shill Co., A. Katz, Sol Mutterperl, Susquehanna Waist Co., Harmony Bag Co., Universal Brassiere, Justrite Corset Co., Orpheum Corset Shop, Artflex Foundations, Eagle Pencil Co., Cisco, Inc., Mrs. T. Landau, Mrs. I. Klein.
