Sisterhood To Open Bazaar

On Saturday night, March 8th, the Annual Bazaar and Rummage Sale will open, at 7 o'clock, at 907 Columbus Avenue (Between 104th and 105th Sts.). Thereafter, the store will be open daily from 10 to 6, excepting Friday, when the store will be closed at 3:30, and re-opened Saturday night at 7 o'clock.

Beautiful merchandise has been procured and committees are still collecting additional bundles. This project is one of the easiest and best methods for fund-raising. The Sisterhood depends upon the success of this Bazaar to continue its many philanthropic and educational enterprises. Every member of Kehilath Jeshurun, active or otherwise, should and can help the Sisterhood. Send, or let us call for, a package of old or new merchandise. But, do it at once! The Sale will last only ten days so that quick action is needed.

The Sisterhood is grateful to the following for their generous contributions: Jacobs Bros., Mrs. Nathan Binder, Lidz Bros., Ma-Ro Hosiery Sales Co., Markay Blouse, Dana-Epstein, Inc., Raritan Shirts, J. Freezer & Son, Inc., Billig Housewares Co.

New Memorial Tablet To Be Built

The Sisterhood of the congregation is about to donate another handsome yahrzeit tablet for the east wall of the synagogue to balance the one that is now on the west wall. The old tablet is entirely filled and the new one will afford an opportunity to those who would like to inscribe the names of their departed dear ones as a tribute and as an eternal memorial.

The tablet will shortly be placed and reservations of plaques may be made immediately. The price of a plaque is $100, plus an installation charge of $5.00. Lights are provided on either side of each plaque and are kindled on the yahrzeit for the person whose name is inscribed on it. In addition, the name on each plaque is recorded on the yizkor scroll of the congregation and appropriate memorial prayers are recited at every yizkor service.

Spaces on the Memorial Tablet may be reserved by families for use whenever occasion demands. Fuller details may be obtained by writing to the synagogue office.

Ramaz Students Give Novel Performance

As a very fitting celebration of Washington's Birthday, the students of the Ramaz Academy gave an excellent performance of the current popular "Ballad For Americans". In beautiful costumes and with appropriate scenery and lighting effects, the performance was so effective and enjoyable that requests for a repetition were heard for days after. Many parents were present and all were thrilled and impressed. Those who missed it need not despair, however, for an opportunity will be given to witness a second performance.

Miss Leah Jaffa, music instructor at the Academy, was responsible for the actual performance. Mrs. Toder was in charge of costumes. Able assistance was also given by Mr. Nathan Gainen and Mr. Kast.

The school and the Faculty are to be congratulated for the very fine rendition given.

THE MEN'S CLUB

Cordially invites you and your lady and men friends to attend its regular monthly meeting on in the Social Hall to hear

WILLIAM E. DODD, JR., A.B., PH.D., M.A.

This talented and altogether worthy son of the former American Ambassador to Germany served as his father's personal and confidential secretary. Through personal contact he probably has more first hand information and as clear an insight as to the growth and history of the Nazi cancer as any man now living. If anyone can adequately and authoritatively describe the frightful impact of Hitlerism on a nation and its people—this is the Man! Widely traveled, he has made numerous speaking trips through Spain, Portugal, Germany, the Baltic Lands, Soviet Union, China Manchuria and England in behalf of decency, justice and tolerance. Here is a perfect example of the ideals of American Democracy functioning—and making of them a living dynamic reality! Yours is the privilege of hearing him on March 12th.

The Congregation's Cemetery

Morbid fear of death very often makes people postpone the purchase of a cemetery plot until a death occurs in a family. Then unscrupulous societies and other agencies take full advantage of the period of pain and anguish and capitalize fully on it. Besides, the final resting place of members of one family are often distributed over several cemeteries and periodic visits are made difficult and hence infrequent and unpleasant.

We ought to show as much concern for our final resting place as we do for our home in life. Members of one family ought to be united in death even as they are in life. In that way the family plot becomes not so much a burial ground as a family shrine.

Our synagogue has plots available on its Mt. Carmel Cemetery. They are very nominally priced. We shall be glad to hear from those who are interested. A call to the synagogue office will receive the prompt attention of the Cemetery Committee and of its chairman, Mr. George Jacobs.
