Welcome

We are pleased to announce the addition of the following new members to the Kehilath Jeshurun Family: Mr. Louis Berk, Mr. Louis W. Yohann, Mr. Frank Morgenstern, Mr. Alex Morgenstern and Mr. Alfred Rottenstein. We sincerely trust their association with the congregation will prove to be a source of happiness and comfort to them.

Synagogue Choral Group Organized

A fine group of men and women met last Monday night and formed the nucleus of a permanent Synagogue Choral Society. Under the able leadership of our Cantor, Robert R. Fingerth, the group familiarized themselves with old and new melodies to the delight of everyone present. In fact, so great was the enthusiasm that another meeting has been arranged for this Friday night, at 8:30, at the home of Rabbi Lookstein, 106 East 85th Street. All men and ladies, boys and girls, who are desirous of enhancing the services in our Synagogue are invited to join this choral group.

George Jacobs Organizes Ushers

The Committee of Ushers, with George Jacobs as Chairman, will consist of Isadore Schlang, veteran usher, Sidney J. Silberman, Charles Silberman, Charles Schlang and Harry Silberschutz. Additional ushers will be announced later.

Board of Trustees to Meet

The Board of Trustees of the congregation will meet next Thursday evening, September 25th, in the library of the Synagogue. Every Trustee is urged to set that evening aside and to let nothing interfere with his attendance. Very important matters will be discussed which makes it absolutely essential for every Trustee to be present.

JOHANNES STEEL SAYS

"ALLIES WILL WIN"

AT FIRST MEN'S CLUB MEETING

Samuel Grafton, brilliant New York Post columnist, to speak October 21st

The 1941-42 season of the Men's Club began under auspicious circumstances with an open forum meeting on Thursday evening, Sept. 18th addressed by Johannes Steel, well-known news analyst. Mr. Steel's discourse held the audience spell-bound for over an hour. He told of conditions in Europe as he found them on his recent visit to London and Lisbon. The war will be won by the Allies said Mr. Steel.

The new Club Activities Committee, consisting of Mr. Saul Lance, Jacob Rudd and Alvin Austin, asked for volunteers from among the members for the various activities in which the Club is engaged. An active season is contemplated in affairs of Jewish, civic and federal importance.

The Program Committee announced an exceptional find for the October Men's Club meeting to be held on Tuesday, Oct. 21st. The speaker will be Samuel Grafton, noted columnist on the New York Evening Post, whose writings are syndicated throughout the world.

Personals

Benedict Lubell (Camp Shelby, Miss.) has been promoted to the important position of "Chief Assistant to Property Officer", who supplies the needs of more than 50,000 soldiers. The area comprises three different camps and is the most important Army unit in the South.

Heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Austin who last Sunday celebrated their twentieth anniversary.

Sisterhood News

REMEMBER THE OPEN MEETING to be held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, Monday, Oct. 20th, at 1:30 o'clock. All members and their friends are invited to be the guests of the Sisterhood at this Tea, Bridge and Mah Jong. Those who recall the very delightful afternoon spent at this hotel last year will need no urging to attend this year. Bring as many friends as you wish. All will be welcome.

CAN YOU KNIT? Under the very able Chairmanship of Mrs. Jacob H. Alpert, Sisterhood members will again knit sweaters and blankets which will be sent to the American Hospital in Britain. All those wishing to assist in this very essential phase of relief work should call Mrs. Alpert or the office for wool and instructions.

HOW ABOUT THE ANNUAL DONOR LUNCHEON? Mrs. George Jacobs, the enthusiastic and energetic Chairman, who by this time, is a veteran in this role, is just chuck full of new ideas to make this year's affair surpass last year's. In the vernacular, that is "going some" . . . But it is a promise. So - - - get busy immediately, either giving or getting the $10.00 required for membership admission. And line up your friends, who will be assured of a glorious afternoon for $2.50 per person. If you choose, you may even earn your friend's admission. Consult the "ways and means" card recently mailed to you. Select one or several methods of raising your quota.

The date is Wednesday, Nov. 12th.

The place is the charming Henry Hudson Hotel.

PERSONALS. The Sisterhood offers a sincere apology to Dr. and Mrs. Isador Givner for having neglected to announce their recent anniversary. Mrs. Givner is the author of the very charming notes of congratulations sent to our members. She neglected to report her own anniversary, however, and we take this means of extending belated but none the less sincere wishes for many more years of happiness. We also send greetings to Mrs. Leo Edelman and Mrs. Jacob H. Alpert and wish them each a happy birthday. To Mr. and Mrs. Irving Scheinblum, our best wishes for many more happy anniversaries.

Ramaz Academy Starts Fifth Year

Last Monday the Ramaz Academy began its fifth year of existence with an enlarged enrollment of students and faculty. There are still a few vacancies in the kindergarten and parents of children of four and a half or five years of age are urged to consult Rabbi Lookstein about registration without further delay. The Ramaz offers unusual opportunities for an integrated Hebrew and English education in a modern, progressive way. Parents of school-age children should take advantage of these opportunities.
