LAST CALL!

Have you sent in your reservation for the DINNER DANCE? Have you spoken to your family and friends about the BIG EVENT? You cannot — you must not — fail to be one of the participants at the GALA AFFAIR. With this issue goes the LAST CALL for reservations. Hurry, if you have not yet notified us, and call the office at once, for reservations.

AMBASSADOR HOTEL!!!

Need anything more be said as to the atmosphere?

MUSIC!!!

Herbert Steiner and his Orchestra — and how they play!!!

ENTERTAINMENT!!!

Mr. Lou Bacon, Chairman of the Program Committee, reports that every outstanding club in the Fifties and every prominent hotel will be represented by the outstanding stars of their respective floor show. The entertainment will literally be a Night of Stars.

The Last Round-up

We're headin' for the last round-up on Monday night, December 8th, which will be the final rally of the dinner-dance workers. All reports on "ads" and reservations must be in and last minute arrangements will be decided upon.

Those who have been attending these rallies know that in addition to work, there is a great deal of fun and play and this time the refreshments will be more than tea and cookies. Please come. Bring your last minute "ads." Surprise us with last minute reservations. 'Git along little workers, git along!

Congratulations

The congregation extends hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Max Berenstein upon the birth of a granddaughter, and to Mrs. Reuben Simon, who is the Grandmother of a baby boy born to her daughter, Mrs. Becker. We wish the babies, parents and all members of both families ever-increasing happiness.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The next meeting of the Sisterhood will be held at the home of Mrs. Alfred Kahn, 19 East 89th Street, Monday, January 6th. This meeting will be devoted entirely to a social afternoon with Bridge and Mah Jong. All members are cordially invited to attend. The admission to this meeting will be a PACKAGE for the coming Bazaar. Bring with you something old, something new, but something which will be saleable at the Bazaar.

At the last meeting held at the home of Mrs. Max Berenstein, a large committee was organized to assist Mrs. Isadore Schlang, who is Chairman of the Bazaar and Rummage Sale, with preliminary details. The Committee will address envelopes and contact concerns for merchandise. Members are urged to send all rummage to the Synagogue office. Mrs. Albert Levy started the ball a-rolling, by not only getting a contribution of fifty dresses but by bringing them to the office. Who will be next?

Ramaz Parents Hear Famous Psychologist

Dr. Henry Hansburg, well-known child psychologist, addressed the parents of Ramaz at their last meeting on Tuesday night. Numerous interesting questions were asked after the lecture which were most ably answered by the lecturer.

On the practical side of the meeting there were a few gratifying reports concerning the activity of the Ramaz parents in procuring ads for the Souvenir Journal of the congregation. A number of parents have also made reservations for the dinner-dance and it is expected that a representative contingent of Ramaz parents will be with us on December 13th.

Ramaz Children Observe Thanksgiving

The Ramaz children sent a number of well-filled baskets of food and goodies to the Hebrew Day Nursery, which is presided over by our own Bessie Goodman. Thanksgiving apparently to these children is more than mere lip service. Shall we say that the elders may well profit by the example of the children?

The Ramaz Academy Needs

A flat-top office desk, a typewriter and two pianos.

All of these items are needed immediately by the Academy. The office would appreciate hearing from anyone having any of these articles for our use.

HAVE YOU YOUR CHANUKAH CANDLES?

We have available special boxes of Chanukah candles enclosed in which are also directions for lighting them and copies of the traditional prayers and songs. You may obtain all of that by notifying us on the following form:

Please send Chanukah candles to
