Unveiling of Memorial Plaques Feb. 24th

Have you reserved a plaque for your dear departed one? There is still time to have one inscribed on the beautiful new Tablet which will be unveiled at the special Memorial Services to be held Tuesday evening, February 24th. Call the office for details.

Special Services for Jan. 31st

Friday, January 30th, is President Roosevelt's sixtieth birthday. The whole country will observe this day fittingly. We of Kehilath Jeshurun will observe it on Saturday morning, Jan. 31st, as part of our regular services. There will be special prayers and an appropriate patriotic touch added. As a tribute to our President and in honor of the occasion, let us all attend.

Books Needed for Army and Navy

A request has been broadcast for books for our men in service. Every home has some books which can be given to the army and navy. Call the Yorkville Branch Public Library, 222 East 79th Street, and they will call for them. If possible, deliver them to the Library. The giving of books will be just another "mitzvah" you can earn.

Sisterhood Meeting Feb. 2nd

The next meeting of the Sisterhood will be held Monday, Feb. 2nd, at the home of Mrs. Jacob H. Alpert, 519 East 86th Street. Please keep that date open!

Of course, the Knitting and Sewing Group will meet prior to the meeting, in the social hall, at 10:30, as well as this coming Monday. Come and sew for the Red Cross. And remember if you can lend the group a sewing machine, much more work can be accomplished.

Red Cross War Fund Luncheon Successful

Kehilath Jeshurun Sisterhood members are alright! Despite the very inclement weather last Monday, a good-sized group of members and friends gathered to help the Red Cross War Fund.

A committee, headed by Mrs. Jacob H. Alpert, assisted by Mesdames, Adler, Hornstein, Fischman, Kahn and Dr. Casper, prepared delicious sandwiches. All the cake, bread, etc. was donated so that the total receipts will be given to the War Fund, as a contribution from the Sisterhood. If there is anyone who found it impossible to attend who would like to add her contribution to this fund, it may be sent to the synagogue office. The admission to this affair does not preclude members from contributing as individuals. All donations should be sent through the synagogue and made payable to the Red Cross War Fund.

Bazaar Progresses

The Committee is at work and is showing marked success. Following is a list of those who have already contributed: Raybrooke Sportswear Co., Bee Drug Co., Max Messing, Flexees, Joe Mittelmark, Goldy Novelty Mfg. Co., Madeira Linen Importing Co., A. Miller & Co., Gerstenzang-Werner Co., Betty Worth Frocks, Reefer-Galler, Dana-Epstein, Jacobs Bros., Eagle Pencil Co., Leo J. Epstein, Mrs. Albert Levey, Mrs. A. R. Winer, Mrs. Pofcher, Mrs. Scher.

Ramaz News

The P. T. A. of the Ramaz Academy met on Tuesday evening, January 20th.
Dr. Joseph Haas, a parent of one of the Ramaz students, rendered a very interesting explanation of the importance of vitamins in our daily lives. Through the courtesy of the Squibb Company, a movie was then shown carrying out the theme of Dr. Haas' talk.

Ramaz Students Contribute to Red Cross

The Ramaz Academy is embarking on a defense program and has made an excellent beginning by contributing to the Red Cross War Fund. Twenty dollars was sent to that organization recently.

Purim Gift Week Starts Feb. 13th

At a meeting of the Religious Committee of the Greater New York Army and Navy Committee of the Jewish Welfare Board, it was decided that the giving of gifts at the time of Purim would be a very effective way of demonstrating our desire to help our men in service. The week beginning Monday, February 13th, was designated as Purim Gift Week.

Gift packages may contain all or part of a varied number of inexpensive items, such as cigarettes, hard candies, chocolate bars, cookies, jams and preserves, canned fruits, toilet articles, writing paper, stamps, handkerchiefs and games. The packages should contain the names of the individual as well as the organizational donor. They should be mailed or delivered to the Jewish Welfare Board Army and Navy Club, c/o Temple Emanu El Community House, 1 East 65th Street, not later than Monday, Feb. 20th, in order to allow sufficient time for gifts to reach the various camps on Purim.

Kehilath Jeshurun members and friends are urged to respond.
