PASSOVER BULLETIN

The Rabbi on Passover

The Jew celebrates his festival of redemption by praise and prayer. The Seder Service at home is an occasion for joyous prayer and the service in the synagogue is a continuation of that prayer. Liberty and emancipation are won and preserved through man's communion with God.

I trust, therefore, that you will assemble with your families in joyous worship on the Seder nights. Impart to the young the glorious beauty of the Passover festival. Impress upon the old the eternal message of hope and freedom that it conveys.

In a world that is divided against itself, that is part free and part slave, let the Passover festival inspire the spirit of dedication to the battle for freedom, to the emancipation of those in bondage and to the ultimate and speedy triumph of liberty, equality and justice.

Passover this year comes to us when our citizens of other faiths, celebrate an important religious holiday of their own. They too will assemble in their respective houses of worship, and bedecked in their loveliest will welcome nature's spring and pray for the dawn of a new day. Let our people do the same. Come to the synagogue, bring your children along, draw inspiration from the holiday songs and prayers, ac-

Sale of Chometz

The sale of Chometz is not merely a formality but rather an important law, the observance of which is necessary for the maintenance of the Kashruth of a Jewish home. Chometz (food or utensils) that is retained over the Passover holidays may not be used after the holiday unless previously sold through the procedure prescribed by the Jewish Law. The sale of Chometz will begin Sunday, March 29th and will continue until Wednesday, April 1st. Rabbi Lookstein may be seen for that purpose in the Synagogue every morning and evening.

Service for the First Born

The traditional service for the first born will be conducted on Wednesday, April 1st, following the regular morning services which will be held at 7:30. It is obligatory upon all first born to attend this special service. Where the first born is a minor, the parent may attend the service in his place.

I wish you happy Seder nights at home and I shall eagerly look forward to extend personal greetings to you after services in the synagogue.

Sisterhood News

Kehilath Jeshurun Sisterhood members rarely need a reminder when asked to contribute to any worthy cause. This year, however, the Pass-over Relief contributions have fallen considerably. We deem it superfluous to emphasize the dire need for funds for this purpose. We can only urge our friends to respond as is their wont and to do so immediately.

Mrs. S. B. Cooperman and Mrs. Rae Oppenheim, hostesses for the next meeting of the Sisterhood urge all members to attend, April 13th, at 1:30 o'clock, in the library of the synagogue.

Congratulations

We extend sincere felicitations to our good friends Mr. and Mrs. Albert Levey, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rudd, and Dr. and Mrs. Henry A. Rafsky, who are celebrating anniversaries next week and we wish them many more years of health and happiness. To Mrs. Samuel Stark, Mrs. Harry Fischel and Mrs. Lillie Rosenthal, we offer best wishes for a very happy birthday with many more to follow.

Musical Notes

At the last meeting of the Men's Club, Mr. Ira F. Weisman announced that Cantor Fingerth had offered to form a Men's Club Glee Club. The announcement was enthusiastically received. A meeting of those who wish to join this Club will soon be announced. Get in touch with the Cantor or Mr. Weisman for particulars. We can also use the services of a pianist to act as the Glee Club accompanist.

Mazel Tov

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Wasserberger, and their son David who will become Bar Mitzvah in our Synagogue this Sabbath. We wish the parents and the Bar Mitzvah ever-increasing happiness.

THE MEN'S CLUB

cordially invites you and your friends to attend its regular monthly meeting on

TUESDAY NIGHT, APRIL 21st, at 8:45 P. M.

in the social hall to hear

JOHN B. KENNEDY

Speak on

"This Intolerant and Intolerable World"

Mr. Kennedy was born in Quebec, Canada, and was educated, as he himself puts it, "Partly in England, partly in Canada, mostly in the United States, at St. Louis University." Immediately upon graduation from college, he entered the newspaper field and soon became Associate Editor of Colliers. In 1933 he joined the staff of the National Broadcasting Co. When the American Tobacco Co. arranged to sponsor the Metropolitan Opera broadcasts, they engaged Mr. Kennedy to do the back-stage comment. Mr. Kennedy will also be remembered for many other important broadcasts, such as the Magic Key and the famous RCA Victor programs. He is well-known as the voice on Fox Movietone News and is the Master of Ceremonies of the "Listen America" WJZ Sunday radio program.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

Plans are now being made for the Men's Club Annual Dinner to be held in May. The exact date will be announced later.

Those who were present last year will recall with pleasure the excellent dinner and fine entertainment. According to preparations being made by the committee, it is expected that this year's dinner will surpass in attendance the excellent turnout of last year.

Upon receipt of your invitation, which will be in the mail shortly, the committee will be obliged if reservations are made promptly.

B. I. Lubell Transferred

Benedict I. Lubell, Associate Trustee of our synagogue and former Secretary of our Men's Club has been transferred from Ft. Ontario, N. Y., and is at present stationed with the 715th Military Police Battalion, Headquarters Co., Peekskill, N. Y.

More Books Needed for Service Men

It seems almost anachronistic that the appeal for books for our men in service remains practically unanswered. It is asking so little for people to give discarded books to these men who are doing so much for our safety. Yet the response is almost negligible. There is hardly a home which cannot give at least one book. It is so easy to collect many books from neighbors. The Citizens Committee for the Army and Navy will gladly call for books. Call MU. 3-5366, or send them to the office of the synagogue.

On Exhibition

Mr. Norman Tress, instructor at the Academy of Arts and Crafts, has the distinction of having one of his lithographs on display at the Brooklyn Museum. Congratulations, Mr. Tress!

RAMAZ ACADEMY NEWS

Model Seder to Be Given

A model Seder, conducted and participated in by the students of the Ramaz Academy, will take place Tuesday, March 31st, at 10 A. M., in the auditorium. Each class will be headed by a "king" and "queen". It is hoped the children will experience the thrill and joy of Passover as did our forefathers of yore.

Refreshments in the form of Passover foods will be given to the children. Parents are cordially invited.

Students Contribute to Passover Relief

The joy of helping the less fortunate is being inculcated in the students of the Academy, as was evidenced by the very generous contribution they gave to the Passover Relief Fund. We are confident the children will have a happier Passover knowing they have helped others in need.

Passover Contributors

This week contributions for the Passover Relief Fund were received from the following: Dr. E. Endreny, Mrs. R. H. Golden, Dr. H. Theaman, Boris Pregel, Elliott Siegel, Isaac Gilman, Judge Bernard T. Sheintag, J. Feldman, Miles Rosenberg, William Kram, Adolph Steiner, Misses Shapiro, Jacob D. Cohen, Nathan J. Binder, Jerome Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morganstern, Alex Morganstern, S. H. Rosenberg, Max Doctrow, William T. Golden, Sam Rubinsky, Mrs. Irving Bachrach, Benjamin Jacoby, Hyman Cohen, William B. Fischberg, Mrs. E. Schneider, Albert Sokolski, Louis Robbins, Barney Schlinger, Samuel Baum, Jacob H. Alpert, Aaron J. Simon, Abraham Wiener, Mrs. R. W. Sundelson, S. Klein.

Max J. Etra and Mother Return

We are informed that our President, Max J. Etra, and his Mother will return from Florida this week. We extend a very happy welcome to them.
