MEN'S CLUB NEWS

The final meeting of the year of the Executive Committee was held on Monday, June 8th. The following officers were elected for the year beginning October 1st, 1942: President, Ira F. Weisman; Vice-Pres., Alvin Austin; Treasurer, William B. Fischberg; Secretary, Hyman I. Bucher. The following standing committee chairmen were appointed: Alvin Austin, Public Relations; Samuel Sacks, Entertainment; Alex Garfein, Charities; Abe Wiener, Hospitality; Jack Alpert, House; Dr. A. A. Klatzkin, Program; Saul J. Lance, Membership.

The Membership Committee reported that the Men's Club now has the largest membership in its history, approximately 150 members. Among the newly admitted members are the Honorable Judge Bernard L. Shientag, former Borough of Manhattan President Samuel Levy, Benjamin Gold, Samuel M. Gold, Charles Goell, Louis J. Singer, Eli Garfein, Edward Freedman, Milton Hoffman, Louis I. Brown, Dr. Edward Schweiger.

The Men's Club is acceding to the wishes of the Red Cross and is abandoning the distribution of the victory kits to the soldiers for the reason that the army has made arrangements for such distribution by the Red Cross in the future.

The entire executive committee has volunteered its services to the Greater New York USO Appeal.

The Men's Club has provided ten camp weeks for youngsters who would otherwise not be afforded an opportunity to attend camp.

Ira F. Weisman has been appointed a member of the synagogue coordinating committee, representing the Men's Club.

The Men's Club requests the cooperation of all its members and congregants to partake in its campaign of public service over the summer months — aid in civilian defense, purchase war bonds, give your old clothes to our committee at the congregation office, send in suggestions for speakers for the Men's Club forums for the ensuing winter season.

Best wishes to all for a joyous summer.

Yizkor Appeal Donors

If you have not yet sent in your contribution pledged at the Yizkor Appeal on Shevuoth, please do not delay. These things have a way of being forgotten, especially with the lapse of a summer. Please, therefore, if you are one who made a pledge at Yizkor, send your remittance while the matter is yet fresh in your mind.

Condolences to Mrs. George Kurke

The congregation conveys its heartfelt sympathies to Mrs. George Kurke on the loss of her mother and prays that she may henceforth be blessed with happiness only.

The Bulletin Bids You Farewell

This is the last issue of our weekly bulletin for the current season. It will not appear during the summer weeks. The next issue of the bulletin will be in your hands the week of August 28th. Until then the bulletin bids all its readers farewell and wishes them all a pleasant and restful summer.

May we suggest that you keep this issue for the special calendar of summer dates that it has and which you will find helpful for your guidance.

Sisterhood Elects Officers

Mrs. Jacob Rudd was reelected president of the Sisterhood at a well attended meeting at her home last Monday. Mrs. Harry Etra became vice-president of the organization. The other officers elected were Mrs. Isadore Givner, Treasurer; Mrs. S. Lawrence Brody, Recording Secretary; and Mrs. Ben Gold, Corresponding Secretary.

A major activity was undertaken by the Sisterhood, namely to start a war bond unit in connection with our congregation for the purpose of selling war bonds. Mrs. Louis J. Singer was made chairman of the unit and over $1,000 worth of bonds have already been subscribed.

At this meeting Mrs. Joseph Stroock spoke most impressively about the work of the USO. She made a stirring appeal to those present to help that organization. Mrs. Samuel Rosen was made chairman of a USO Appeal Committee which is now circularizing the membership and is expected to raise substantial funds for the USO work.

Rabbi Lookstein closed the meeting with an appropriate address and then installed the newly elected officers and members of the Executive Board.

The Sisterhood urges all its members and friends to start collecting for its bazaar and rummage sale next season. The office will be glad to call for your package, if notified.

The Sisterhood takes this means of wishing all its members and all the women of the congregation a happy and refreshing summer.

Mazel Tov

Good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Pollack on the marriage of their daughter, Helen R., to Monroe S. Brown. The wedding will take place in our synagogue on Sunday afternoon, June 14th.

To Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Schwartz go our greetings on the forthcoming marriage of their daughter Rose to Sigmund Berger in our synagogue on Sunday, June 21st.

To Fred Kahn, brother of our esteemed member, Alfred Kahn, we extend heartiest wishes on his forthcoming marriage to Miss Miriam Meyers, daughter of Abraham Meyers. Their wedding too will be held in our synagogue on Sunday, June 28th.

Congratulations, Sidney

Sidney Silberman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seppy I. Silberman, received his Bachelor's degree from Columbia University last week. In addition he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and also won honors in history. He is already in his second year at Columbia Law School. Good luck, Sidney, and keep it up.

Synagogue Roll of Honor

Slowly the Roll of Honor of our synagogue, comprising the names of Kehilath Jeshurunites in the service of our country, is taking shape. We know, however, that there are many whose names have not yet been sent in. We ask you, therefore, to please send us the name of any one of your close relatives in the service so that we can have a star for him on the Service Flag which will be presented as part of the Father's Day Services.

Zuckerman Bar-Mitzvah

On Saturday, June 20th, young Matthew Zuckerman will become bar-mitzvah in our synagogue. Matthew is the second student of the Ramaz Academy to be confirmed in our synagogue. The bar-mitzvah will not only read the maftir but the entire weekly portion of that day.

We extend to Dr. and Mrs. Morris Zuckerman, his parents, and to the entire family our heartiest wishes of mazel tov.

RAMAZ ACADEMY NEWS

On May 26th at Steinberg's Restaurant, the Ramaz Parent-Teacher Association held its closing meeting in the form of a dinner. Brief talks by the Rabbi, Dr. Brickman and several of the parents were given. The drawing for the defense bond took place and the winner who donated the prize back to the Academy was Julius Hanover.

A number of the parents, dissatisfied that the full quota of anticipated proceeds from the drawing was not reached, undertook to raise the balance and there and then did it to the delight and satisfaction of all.

Mr. Shalom Altman of the school's music department and Mr. Joseph Adler entertained the gathering with solo selections and led also in community singing.

Registration For New School Year In Progress

Children for the kindergarten and the elementary grades may now be enrolled in the Ramaz Academy for the new school year to begin in September. A phone call or a post card will bring a response from the school office. Appointments may be arranged with the Rabbi who will be glad to consult with parents on the enrollment of their children.

Rabbi Addresses Jewish Education Committee Meeting

The Jewish Education Committee, established under the Friedsam Foundation, held its annual meeting on May 26th and had our Rabbi as one of its principal speakers. The Rabbi explained the philosophy and program of the Ramaz Academy which is one of the model schools sponsored by the Jewish Education Committee. The gathering, which was presided over by Justice Samuel I. Rosenman and which counted many outstanding Jewish educators, listened with great interest to the Rabbi's exposition. We are told that the Rabbi's talk made many friends for Ramaz.
