Synagogue Religious School To Open Early In October

The Board of Trustees at its meeting this week officially approved the establishment of a Sunday Religious School by our congregation.

The school will be housed in a magnificent structure now occupied by the Walt Whitman School and located at 78th Street and Madison Avenue. It will enjoy splendid and modern facilities and the best in school equipment.

Registration will begin on the day after Yom Kippur, September 22nd in the synagogue office. Children from the ages of six through thirteen may be enrolled, and special classes for boys and girls from thirteen through sixteen will also be available.

Call the synagogue office for full particulars and for prospectus of the school setting forth all information.

Kol Nidre Night Appeal

To contribute to charity on Yom Kippur is not only a custom, it is a religious obligation. That is why all congregations have a Kol Nidre Night Appeal. The worshippers who are with us respond generously. Many, however, are away for one reason or another. We appeal to those through this Bulletin not to forget our appeal. We shall share the proceeds with the United Jewish Appeal and the Yeshiva College. For the maintenance of the Synagogue and in the name of Charity we urge those who will not be with us to send their contribution and it will be announced from the pulpit on Kol Nidre Night.

Esrogim

On account of war conditions there is a definite scarcity of Esrogim. Those, therefore, who want to obtain Esrogim and Lulovim should communicate without delay with Mr. Joseph E. Adler. Mr. Adler will be able to procure domestic as well as some Palestinian Esrogim.

Synagogue Plans New Succah

Plans for a new Synagogue Succah are being made and there is every evidence of the fact that this "temporary dwelling" will be a truly beautiful one.

Of course, we must again resort to contributions from our worshippers in order to properly care for the construction, decorations, and refreshments. We trust many of our readers will avail themselves of the "mitzvah" of contributing towards this Succah Fund.

Please mail all contributions as quickly as possible to the office of the synagogue. Our thanks in advance for your contemplated generosity.

Hearty Welcome !

We are very happy to announce the addition of two new members to our congregation and we extend a very hearty welcome to Mr. Simon Vogel of 895 West End Avenue and to Mr. Benjamin Gold of 420 East 86th Street. We sincerely trust their association with Kehilath Jeshurun will be a long and happy one.

At The Bedside Of The Ill

There were several people missing from our midst for the Rosh Hashanah services, because of illness. The absence of Mr. Isadore Schlang and Mr. Jacob H. Alpert was keenly felt. It was the first time in the memory of many of our worshippers that they were not present for the Holy Days. We are happy to state that they are both progressing nicely and it is our fervent hope that they will be with us in perfect health very, very soon. We are happy to note that Mr. Jacob Lookstein, father of our dear Rabbi, is improving daily. We wish him, our good member Mr. Paul Hirsch and Miss Frances Bernhardt a speedy restoration to good health.

Mazel Tov To The Samuel Levys

The congestion in Washington has been increased this week through the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Levy, now residing in that city. Lawrence is the son of our esteemed Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Levy. Congratulations to the happy parents and the proud grandparents.

Congratulations

The congregation takes this means of extending to Mr. and Mrs. Saul J. Lance sincerest congratulations upon their anniversary and wishes for them many years of continued happiness.

The Concensus Of Opinion Was...

and still is, that never before were the Rosh Hashanah services as beautiful and impressive as those held in our synagogue this year. The Rabbi's elucidation of important prayers and passages made for a comprehensive appreciation of those verses and enabled every worshipper to pray with greater fervor and sincerity.

The congregational singing, led by Cantor Robert R. Fingerth, was very beautiful and added greatly to the impressiveness of the services.

The blowing of the Shofar, so ably done by our Mr. Adler, held new meaning to the congregants, after the explanation given by the Rabbi. All in all, these New Year services will long be remembered by those who attended.

A Reminder

May we remind our members and friends of the Benevolent Fund, which is very much depleted at the present time? Please send your Charity boxes to the office, so that we can utilize the contents immediately. Your promptness will be appreciated.

Sisterhood To Meet September 28th

A Board of Directors meeting of the Sisterhood took place this week at which many plans for the coming season were discussed. When completed, these plans will be announced. In the interim, all Sisterhood members are urged to set aside Monday, September 28th, for the opening meeting. It will be held in our beautiful social hall, with the President, Mrs. Jacob Rudd, Mrs. Lookstein and Mrs. Louis J. Singer acting as hostesses.

Bonds For Sale!

Mrs. Louis J. Singer, Chairman for the Sale of Bonds, is very proud of the response from our Synagogue members. About $50,000.00 worth of bonds has already been purchased. Mrs. Singer is confident there will be a very steady and constant increase. If and when you contemplate buying a bond, please communicate with Mrs. Singer, at 1050 Park Avenue.
