A HAPPY HOLIDAY TO ALL

Ramaz Academy Receives Charter From State Department Of Education

We are pleased to announce that this week the Ramaz Academy received a Charter from the Board of Regents of the State of New York.

Last Spring the Ramaz Academy was visited by representatives of the State Board of Education who made a searching examination of the secular and religious curriculum of the school, the methods of teaching, the staff qualifications, the school plant and the school finances. They presented their findings to the State Board of Regents. Rabbi Lookstein, Principal of the Academy and Dr. Benjamin Brickman, Supervisor, were called by a Sub-committee of the State Board of Regents to answer further questions about the Academy.

The fact that the Ramaz did receive the Charter speaks for itself, for it means that the State Board of Regents found the financial status and the course of education satisfactory.

We are deeply grateful to our Vice-President, Saul J. Lance, through whose efforts the Charter was received.

Welcome To Our Succah

The Synagogue had planned to erect a new Succah, but due to fire regulations found it was impossible. However, we are confident our Succah will be a beautiful one and a cordial invitation is herewith extended to all worshippers to partake of Kiddush after each service during the holidays. The Sisterhood will, as usual, act as hostesses.

By the way, have you sent your contribution towards the Succah? Big or small, it will be greatly appreciated.

The Synagogue Religious School

Registration for the Synagogue Religious School has begun and will continue until Sunday, October 11th, when sessions will start. Classes are available for children from the ages of six to fifteen. Sessions will be held Sunday mornings, from 9:30 to 12:30.

The Synagogue office will be open for registration every day from 9 A. M. until 5 P. M.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN WILL PREACH BOTH DAYS OF SUCCOTH AT 10:30 A. M.

Our Sympathy

We extend sincere sympathy to our member Mrs. Morris Zuckerman, upon the death of her dear brother, Mr. Samuel Stein. We hope that this new year will bring her and her family a large measure of happiness.

Synagogue Goes Over The Top

In Kol Nidre Appeal

In his Kol Nidre appeal, Rabbi Lookstein prefaced his remarks with this statement: "I know my people; I know their generosity, their kindness, their sensitiveness to Jewish needs". The Rabbi was right — for without tearing at the heartstrings of his congregants, but by merely explaining the needs of the three participants of the appeal, the congregation went over the top. Congratulations, members and seat-holders of Kehilath Jeshurun! You ran true to form, true to Kehilath Jeshurun traditions and, above all, true to yourselves.

There remains just one more request. Please send your contribution without delay so that the beneficiaries, the Synagogue, the United Jewish Appeal and the Yeshiva College, can receive their portion of the appeal soon.

Ushers Function Well

The synagogue owes a sincere vote of thanks to Mr. George Jacobs, Chairman of the Board of Ushers and to those who worked with him, for the fine manner in which they functioned. The decorum during the services was excellent. Our thanks are due Charles Schlang, Dr. Elmer Alpert, Sidney J. Silberman, Charles Silberman.

Hearty Welcome!

The congregation is very happy to welcome as one of its new members Mr. Harry W. Golding, son of our beloved Joseph Golding, of blessed memory, and Mrs. Golding. We are confident Mr. Golding will find comfort and joy in his association with us even as we will find pleasure in having his affiliation.

Yom Kippur Services Acclaimed

By All

All this week the Rabbi and officials of the congregation have received letters from worshippers who were most enthusiastic about the Yom Kippur services. It is truly encouraging and heartening to read these notes of commendation and to realize how appreciative so many of our people are of the efforts put forth to make our services impressive.

We welcome all our readers to our services for Succoth confident they will enjoy them.

Sisterhood Meeting September 28th

All Sisterhood members are urged to attend the opening meeting this Monday, in the social hall, at 1:30 o'clock. Refreshments will be served in the Succah, with Mrs. Lookstein, Mrs. Rudd and Mrs. Singer acting as hostesses. There are so many important matters to be discussed it is hoped every member will be present. Guests of members will be welcomed.
