FRED MARGARETEN NAMED CHAIRMAN OF YEAR BOOK

It is with real pleasure that we announce that Fred Margareten, veteran AD-getter, has accepted the Chairmanship of the Synagogue Year Book.

Mr. Margareten is an old-timer at getting ADS but he rightfully declares this is not a One-Man job. Every member can and should help to make this year's Journal a huge success.

Ad blanks are in the mail. If you prefer having the office contact your business associates and friends, let us know. Send us a list of names and addresses and we will do the rest. Don't be the kind of person who sits quietly by and let's the other fellow do it all. This is YOUR synagogue, members and seatholders, and it is YOUR duty to help in any and all its projects.

Therefore—get busy—tell your friends that the Kehilath Jeshurun Year Book will be a thing of beauty, published in connection with a coming event, about which you will hear very soon.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Happy Day Fund Established

At the last meeting of the Sisterhood it was decided to start a Happy Day Fund. Two members responded immediately, Mrs. William Schwartz contributing to it in honor of her birthday and Mrs. Joseph E. Adler, because of the birthday of her husband.

The Fund welcomes contributions from anyone celebrating a joyous occasion or from anyone observing the anniversary of the death of a departed one. These charitable remembrances may be sent to the Chariman, Mrs. Robert R. Fingerroth, 155 East 91st Street, or directly to the Sisterhood c/o the Synagogue office.

Members are urged to attend the meeting this Monday, in the Social Hall, at 12:30. A report of the Donor Luncheon will be given and many other important matters discussed.

* * *

Members who wish to contribute to the Chanukah Gift Fund for our men in Service, are requested to send their dollar to the office immediately. Let each of us help to make a Jewish boy happy this Chanukah. One Dollar will do the trick!

Members wishing to purchase War Bonds are urged to call the Chairman, Mrs. Louis J. Singer, who will gladly take care of the matter.

Congratulations

This Sabbath, in our Synagogue, Louis Samuel Kurke son of our members Dr. and Mrs. George Kurke, will become Bar Mitzvah. The congregation takes this means of extending sincere congratulations and best wishes to the entire Kurke family.

"THE WORLD TODAY"

Mr. James G. McDonald, humanitarian, educator, reporter and radio commentator, is a recognized authority on foreign affairs and is internationally known for his work as League of Nations High Commissioner for German Refugees, 1933-36. He was the first president (1918-1932) and one of the founders of the Foreign Policy Association and is at present its Honorary Chairman. While League of Nations High Commissioner for Refugees he supervised and directed the placing of 60,000 refugees in new homes throughout the world. He received the American Hebrew Medal "for outstanding service in promoting better understanding between Christians and Jews" in 1934. In April 1936, he joined the editorial staff of the New York Times, relinquishing this post upon assuming office as President of the Brooklyn Institute. More recently, in May of this year, he was appointed Chairman of the President's Advisory Committee on Political Refugees. In addition to which, he is a Trustee of the American Council of the Institute of Pacific Relations, the Twentieth Century Fund and a member of the Board of Directors of the National Advisory Council on Radio in Education. He has been a member of the teaching staff of Harvard and Indiana Universities and of Radcliffe College. At present he can be heard daily at 2:30 P.M. on WJZ in an analysis of the news.

Our own Rabbi Lookstein will deliver a short talk on "Jews in the News", prior to the principle address.

RAMAZ NEWS

An original playlet in two acts was presented at the Ramaz School assembly last Friday in celebration of Columbus Day. The children of the Fifth Grade wrote the play which was enacted by Lawrence Kobrin and Mathilda Naiditch as King and Queen in resplendent costumes while Fred Zuckerman played the role of the adventurous discoverer of the New World. Other children in the play were Jacob Bloom, Elliot Messing and Alan Putterman. The children based their play upon an idea suggested by Mr. Ellman, their teacher, who also directed the production.

The opening meeting of the Parent Teacher Association will be held Tuesday, October 27th, in our Social Hall.
