HONOR SCROLL DEDICATED AT IMPRESSIVE THANKSGIVING SERVICES QUINCY HOWE DELIGHTS LARGE AUDIENCE

Year Book Report

About thirty men and women of the Year Book Committee met last Monday evening, with its Chairman, Fred Margareten, to discuss ways and means of reaching the $5,000.00 goal set for the Journal. The report to date was a good one, but not nearly good enough. There was a very evident dearth of new ad-getters! Amongst those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jacoby, quietly but efficiently working; Hyman Weiss, who, ever since the Synagogue has run Journals made it a policy to give up several complete days to getting ads, and who gets them! The Leiferts, new additions to the list; and Sam Sacks, Chairman of the Men's Club division of the Year Book.

It was the consensus of opinion after the Chairman had given his committee a stimulating pep talk that those people who had not as yet sent in any ads or who had not sent in enough ads would be called and urged to work harder. It would be so nice if you would anticipate that call by starting TO-DAY to get those easily procured ads and sending them to the office! WE MUST reach our goal, and we can, if YOU will help.

Another Thanksgiving Service has taken its place in the history of similar services conducted in the past. A large congregation attended the service. Quincy Howe, famous radio commentator and student of current affairs, thrilled all with his masterly analysis of the present war situation.

As was to be expected, the most impressive feature of the service was the dedication of the Honor Scroll on which are recorded the names of sons of Kehilath Jeshurun serving in the armed forces of our country. The Scroll was presented by Ira F. Weisman, president of the Men's Club and was received appropriately by Max J. Etra in behalf of the congregation.

There was a tense and touching moment when, before the open ark, Rabbi Lookstein offered a special prayer composed for the occasion in behalf of our boys. On many an eye glistened a tear. Cantor Finger-oth, assisted by Machtenberg's Choir added in no small measure to the impressiveness of the occasion.

Saul J. Lance, vice-president of the congregation, read President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving Proclamation and the ushering was done by members of the Men's Club.

SISTERHOOD CHATTER

Reminder — Mrs. S. B. Cooperman, Mrs. Robert R. Fingeroth and Mrs. Frank Tisch as hostesses look forward to greeting you at our meeting on Monday, NOVEMBER 30th at 12:30 for dessert luncheon. . . Come and hear the grand reports of the Donor Luncheon and the plans for our Chanukah meeting. . . There will positively be Bridge, Mah Jong and Gin Rummy. We want to apologize, at this time, for the fact that there was no time for games at the last meeting because of the unexpected length of the address given by the guest speaker.

It is with pride and joy that Sisterhood welcomes its newest prospective member (dues commence 1962), baby daughter of Mrs. Bernard D. Fischman. (Good work, Membership Chairman Aunt Gertrude).

Now that the Luncheon is over our women are back at their war work with added zest. Mimi Singer is occupied with her Staff Assistant Course. As ever, she is doing a good deed. . . Blanche Etra, too, may be found giving voluntary legal advice to A.W.V.S. on Tuesday mornings. . . Hannah Adler is indeed a very versatile woman and should conduct a sewing course. . . Lillian Jacobs should be referred to Mayor La Guardia to succeed Grover Whalen. Her warm and friendly manner has won many a member to Sisterhood. . . And then, our energetic President, Rose Rudd, who is busily occupied with Russian War Relief, Red Cross, Federation, U.J.A., etc., etc. can be classified as Public Relations Woman par excellence.

THE MEN'S CLUB

in conjunction with

THE SISTERHOOD

cordially invites you and your friends, both men and women to attend its CHANUKAH meeting and forum in the Social Hall to hear

RABBI J. X. COHEN

speak on

"JEWISH LIFE IN SOUTH AMERICA"

Rabbi Cohen who is associated with Rabbi Stephen S. Wise at the Free Synagogue, is recognized as a foremost champion of economic equality for the Jew. As lecturer and author he is an authority on Jewish Life in South America. In addition, Rabbi Cohen is an accomplished photographer. He will fascinate you with his illustrated lecture on the current world scene and its relationship to the Jew.

An additional feature will be the lighting of the Chanukah candles by our Cantor Fingeroth.

This being a Chanukah meeting the Sisterhood will act as hostesses, which means special Chanukah goodies for everyone!

Men's Club Murmurings

The Men's Club as usual "came through" in helping to make the Thanksgiving Service an inspiring occasion. Our membership was handsomely represented. Our ushers did their part and of course the Honor Scroll is the gift of our organization. We do not overlook the fact that it is the special gift of our esteemed member, Samuel Sacks.

The Men's Club welcomes Joseph Livingston and Isidore Schlang into its ranks and hopes their association with us will be a long, happy and active one.

Congratulations

The congregation, Men's Club and Sisterhood extend sincere congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard D. Fischman upon the birth of their daughter and express a very sincere Mazel Tov to the entire Schlang and Fischman families.

Felicitations and best wishes are extended to our Secretary, Abraham Wiener and Mrs. Wiener, who celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary this week. . . Also to Mr. and Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel upon the occasion of their anniversary.

A Unique Request

A correspondent in the Sousa Settlement in Santo Domingo wrote a letter to us requesting a dozen Tefillin, a dozen Siddurim and about two dozen Siddurim for the immigrants in the Dominican Republic. We wonder if any of our readers would like to contribute towards the purchase of these articles.

Don't Forget

Don't forget the Kiddies Page at $1.00 per name and the names of your relatives and friends who are in the armed forces, at $1.00 each, for the Honor Roll Page.

Ramaz News

The Ramaz School is happy to make note of the following events among the Faculty: the recent marriage of Miss Selma Bloch, to Mr. Joseph Grossman; the birth of a daughter, Judith, to Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Gainen and the arrival of baby Louise to Mr. and Mrs. Shepard Ellman. We extend best wishes for many years of health and happiness to all.

Once again students of the Ramaz are arranging to distribute baskets of food for Thanksgiving to the children of the Hebrew Day Nursery. What fine training in the art of giving!
