SYNAGOGUE THEATRE PARTY

TUESDAY JANUARY 12th, 1943

at the Guild Theatre

"THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE"

with Leon Ames, Luther Adler and many other notables

Prices range from $1.10 to $6.60

At some time during its predicted long-time run you will want to see "The Russian People". Why not arrange to see it on Jan. 12th? If you have not already made your reservations, call the Synagogue office. Remember that this is the only fund-raising function the Synagogue will run. Why not help towards its success?

Did You Hear Rickenbacker's Story?

If you heard Eddie Rickenbacker's story over the radio last Sunday you would have been touched by the fact that he read the Bible daily. He told how eight people facing death found courage, comfort and strength in daily recourse to the word of God. That is why the Bible is still the world's best-seller.

You will have an opportunity to get a closer insight into the Bible if you attend Rabbi Lookstein's Bible class which will begin Wednesday, Jan. 6th, at 8:30 in the social hall.

Those interested in joining this class are requested to register at the office. A registration fee of $1.00 will be charged for each one.

Dec. 30th Dead-Line for ADS

The Year Book goes to press this week. No ADS will be accepted after Dec. 30th. We are very, very happy to say that we have almost reached our goal.

We can eliminate the "almost" if a few more people would make one last effort to get just one AD. How 'bout it?

Buy A Memorial Plaque

A fitting way to perpetuate the memory of a dear one is to buy a plaque on our memorial tablet. On every yahrzeit and yiskor service, a light is kindled and appropriate prayers recited. The price is $100 plus an installation charge of $5.

SISTERHOOD CHATTER

Despite the zero temperature a staunch and ardent group of Sisterhood members gathered in the Social Hall for Monday's meeting. Delicious refreshments were served by our hostesses and all felt duly sustained.

A short but active business meeting followed, and much good was accomplished. Rose Rudd, our President, presented on behalf of Sisterhood, another scholarship to the Ramaz School, a befitting and worthwhile accomplishment. A donation of $25.00 was voted for the Federation of Jewish Charities, always a worthy cause. There was talk of Purim plans, but more news of that will be forthcoming at a later date.

Among those missing were Hannah Adler, Blanche Etra, Alice Gold, Mimi Singer and Rose Schlang. We hope the reasons for absences were valid but not serious. Felicitations to Mary Margareten who celebrated a birthday on Dec. 23rd. May there be many more.

Here's hoping that Cel Silberman enjoys a swell week-end with her son, Ensign Sidney Silberman.

Our next meeting will be held on Jan. 11 in the Social Hall. Our hostesses, Martha Givner and Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel, ask you to set aside that day and be their guests at dessert luncheon.

MEN'S CLUB MURMURINGS

Are you getting ready for our annual affair? You know, of course, that each member may bring with him one (and please, only one) male guest. This is one time when we really can socialize together. And from first hand knowledge we can promise you a barrel full of laughs by this fellow Davidson. All in all this should be an evening long to be remembered. We expect a huge turn-out so come early. . . Rabbi J. X. Cohen will continue his inspiring lecture on "The Jews of South America" at a special meeting set for TUESDAY, FEB. 2nd. . . Sam Sacks, Hy Bucher and Ben Leifert are beginning to press Arnold Livingston for his AD-getting championship. Arnold may still be the champ when the AD battle is over; but he will at least know he was in a fight before the final gong. Meanwhile, how about the rest of us getting into the scrimmage? Let's make it a free-for-all. The last date for them is Dec. 30th. . . "The Russian People" is definitely headed for the top of the list of best plays. Have you your tickets? You'll find many of your Men's Club members there . . . Letters have begun pouring in from the boys in service who received our Chanukah Gift Boxes. In future editions we intend printing excerpts from some of the letters. In the interim we assure you, you may take pride in the happiness you brought these boys. . . Have you invested in Democracy this week? Buy war bonds and stamps.

Our Benevolent Fund Boxes

Recently we sent a small questionnaire regarding the Benevolent Fund Boxes to our members and friends, requesting a reply. The response has been negligible and we are therefore reiterating our plea for the desired information. Have you a box you would like us to call for? Have you a box you will bring to us? If you have none, may we send one to you?

We urge you to let us hear from you on our Benevolent Fund. The demands are growing daily. It is so simple to start filling a box by making it a habit to drop a few coins into it before lighting the Sabbath candles, in celebration of a birthday or anniversary, or at any other joyous occasion. Resolve to start a box to-day. You'll feel better for it!
