THE CRITICS HAVE ACCLAIMED

"THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE"

an outstanding hit

Everyone will want to see and hear this true story of Russian life. If you have not received tickets as yet, communicate with the office or with Louis J. Singer, Chairman of the SYNAGOGUE THEATRE PARTY, immediately. There are just a few good tickets still available.

COME TO THE GUILD THEATRE

TUESDAY, JANUARY 12th

Heads List of Ad-Getters

Chairman Fred Margareten

Close Second

The last call for ADS was sounded this week and the result has been most gratifying. Hats off to the champion ad-getter, Murray M. Rosenberg. And to our Chairman, Fred Margareten, who is a close second. We utter a very sincere "thank you" to the following who helped so greatly towards the success of our Year Book: Irving Angel, Jacob H. Alpert, Joseph E. Adler, Abbott Bernard, Sam Bucher, Max J. Etra, Robert R. Fingeroth, Nathalie Fischman, Ben Gottfried, Benjamin Jacoby, Mrs. George Jacobs, Jacob J. Lubell, Saul J. Lance, Max Messing, Louis J. Singer, Mrs. Irving Sheinblum, Mrs. Max Singer, Elliott W. Siegel, Hyman Weiss, Abraham R. Winer and Louis W. Yohann.

It will undoubtedly please these ardent workers to know that we have gone above the figures of last year. Knowing this, we are sure they will feel compensated for all their efforts.

SISTERHOOD CHATTER

Sisterhood members have enjoyed a lull in activity. However, it's the "lull before the storm" which in this case is "Renewed Efforts in War Work". This year our activities have been limited in this field. However, the reality of war is facing all of us in many ways and so, to this end, our next meeting on JANUARY 11th will be devoted to the Program Sisterhood will undertake. Various committees are preparing reports to be given at this meeting. This is VITAL work and the duty of EVERY WOMAN. We therefore urge and request you to make definite arrangements to be present at this meeting. With the entire world shocked and awakened to the Jewish plight, we, as Jewish women, have an extra obligation. Therefore, come and do your share.

At the last meeting of Sisterhood it was suggested that every woman member bring a package, (something old, or something new) of SALEABLE merchandise for our Bazaar and Rummage Sale. Its to be our next project.

REMEMBER! JANUARY 11th, at 12:30, in the Social Hall. DESERT LUNCHEON by MARTHA GIVNER and RUTH SIEGEL. COME and REMIND ANOTHER MEMBER TO JOIN YOU!

OUR CONDOLENCES

Men's Club Murmurings

We received with pleasure the news of Lou Bacon's engagement to Miss Marden, daughter of the famous entertainment entrepreneur. Our heartiest congratulations. . . . Well, the Ad drive is over. The Men's Club thanks Chairman Sam Sacks, Ira F. Weisman, Arnold Livingston, Hyman Bucher, Ben Leifert, Bill Fischberg and the many others too numerous to mention for their superb effort. All of you contributed in no small measure to the drive's successful culmination. . . . Keep in mind the continuation by Rabbi J. X. Cohen of his lecture on "The Jews of South America", at a special meeting set for TUESDAY, FEB. 2nd. . . . Our sincere condolences to our member, Pvt. Nathaniel Lubell, upon the death of his dear Mother.

Doesn't This Make You Happy?

The following is an excerpt from one of many letters the Men's Club has received from boys in the service to whom Chanukah gift boxes were sent through the Men's Club and Sisterhood of our congregation. The writer is a private in the Army Technical School at South Dakota and he writes:

"Last Wednesday I was presented with a gift that was made possible by your organization. I find it beyond my ability to thank you in words. It is to you that we are indebted and for you that we are devoting our efforts in this world conflict."

Sentiments like these come from the heart. The knowledge that we make some boy happy by a token of our kindness should add to our happiness and should make us feel that we have shared in the war effort and in the final outcome.

Improving the Bulletin

Recently some opinions have been expressed regarding the improvement of the bulletin so that it may the better serve its readers and congregational needs. We shall be very happy to receive any suggestions from our readers in that connection. Are there any features you would like to have introduced? Are there any changes you might want to have made? May we hear from you and be assured that any suggestion will be heartily accepted and will be gratefully received.

The Sunday History Class

The class in Jewish history for young people which has been in session now for two months is showing remarkable results. The young folks who attend the class are most stimulating by the interest they display in the course of study. At one of the recent sessions of the class a number of reports on the historical contents of some of the books of the Bible were read by the students. They revealed a fine grasp and mature comprehension of the respective fields of research.

What these young folks are doing can be shared by others. Why not encourage your son or daughter to join the class. It meets regularly every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Walt Whitman School under the instructorship of Rabbi Lookstein.

Young Folks Auxiliary News

Oh hello, here we are again. Our little group met at Betty Buchsbaum's home last week and we had a swell time. We had a scavenger hunt and found somethings we hadn't planned to find — some new members! Our next meeting will be held at Nathalie Lookstein's home Saturday Evening, Jan. 16th.

We're also planning a Theatre Party, no less; like father, like daughter. So long.
