NEW SERMON SERIES BEGINS THIS SATURDAY

Rabbi Lookstein will deliver the first of a series of pulpit addresses this Saturday morning on the general subject, "The Post War World." The topic for this week's address will be "The Moral Climate of the Post War World." Subsequent titles in the series are "The Jew in the Post War World," and "Palestine in the Post War World." The series promises to be one of the most interesting ones and should be listened to by all who are concerned with the future as it may affect the Jew in particular and humanity as a whole.

MANY REDISCOVER THE BIBLE

Those who have been attending the sessions of the Bible class conducted by the Rabbi have had to admit to themselves that there was more in the Book of Books than they ever realized. Thus far three sessions were held at which were discussed the Book of Joshua, the Book of Judges and the two Books of Samuel. Next Wednesday night, Feb. 17th at 8:30 P. M. the discussion will center around the schism which divided the Jewish people into the Kingdom of Israel and the Kingdom of Judah. The minor prophets of the Kingdom of Israel and their contribution to their day will form part of the discussion.

New students will be welcome. Every class is an independent session in itself. Those who plan to come are asked to read in advance the first Book of Kings, either in the original or in the English translation of the Jewish Publication Society.

FINKELSTEIN BAR-MITZVAH THIS SATURDAY

Young James Finkelstein, son of Prof. and Mrs. Maurice Finkelstein, will become bar-mitzvah in our synagogue this Saturday morning. In addition to the maftir, the bar-mitzvah will read the entire weekly portion.

Among the guests expected at the services are Rabbi S. I. Finkelstein, grandfather of the bar-mitzvah and one of the most distinguished members of the older rabbinate in the country, and Dr. Louis Finkelstein, uncle of the bar-mitzvah and president of the Jewish Theological Seminary.

We extend our heartiest greetings and our warmest good wishes to the bar-mitzvah and to the entire family.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN WILL PREACH THIS SABBATH AT 10:30 A.M.

OUR BEST WISHES . . .

To Mr. and Mrs. Jacob D. Cohen who are celebrating their anniversary this week. May they enjoy many more years of health — happiness. . . To Hon. Samuel M. Hofstodter for a speedy and complete recovery from his recent illness. . . To Nat Berman of the Men's Club who has recovered from a severe illness.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

"Music hath charm. . . " and so we hope that all Sisterhood members and their friends will be with us on MONDAY, FEB. 15th, at 1:30, to enjoy the musical program prepared. MRS. JESSE MAX will explain, with illustrations, the role of music in Jewish life. Hilda Fischman and Martha Givner, as hostesses, invite you to tea.

Rose Alpert and Helen Brody again appeal to all Sisterhood members to come to do sewing, by machine or hand, as well as knitting, every Monday, from 1 to 5 o'clock, in our social hall. We are working for Bundles for Palestine.

Remember to register for the nutrition course which will start March 1st.

A peaceful "Battle of the Sexes" took place Sunday morning when a representative committee of the Sisterhood and Men's Club met to discuss plans for the Purim Party. Since the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, the ladies let the men decide the menu and the result promises a grand evening of fun, food and frolic. The date is SUNDAY, MARCH 21st.

The tremendous interest aroused by Rabbi Cohen's famous historical films necessitated a continuation of his November lecture. Rabbi Lookstein will open the meeting with a brief address.

LADIES ARE WELCOME

BAZAAR NEWS

Mrs. Sam Sacks, Chairman of Bazaar & Rummage, is quite enthusiastic about this project, for answers, in the form of splendid merchandise, have been coming to the office as a result of her appeal.

Mrs. Sacks, who, as noted before, is a new-comer to Kehilath Jeshurun, is confident every member of the congregation, Sisterhood and Men's Club will cooperate by giving us the merchandise they can no longer use. In fact, she feels the Sisterhood is doing many people a favor by accepting old, worn, discarded articles and thus helping them rid their shelves and closets of unwanted merchandise.

The following have already contributed: Golding Bros., William Carpet Co., Gerstenzang-Werner Co., J. Rose, Dana-Epstein, Madeira Linens, Mrs. R. Simon, Rosebud Dress Shop.

PLEASE HELP

SUFFERING JEWISH STUDENTS

Rabbi Lookstein's appeal in last week's bulletin for the suffering Jewish students in Siberia, Shanghai and other places, has brought gratifying results. A contribution of $250.00 was received from the Etra family. Others who responded were Harry Z. Cohen, Raphael Bing and Mrs. A. Schwartz.

The Rabbi has been assigned a quota of $1,000 for our congregation for this purpose. The students who are the victims of Nazi persecution are undergoing indescribable suffering. Their only means of salvation can come from generous people in this land.

Please, therefore, in the name of mercy, respond. Make your checks payable to the Benevolent Fund of Cong. Kehilath Jeshurun and forward them to Rabbi Lookstein.
