SISTERHOOD NEWS

Rummage Sale To Start May 17th

Mrs. Sam Sacks, Chairman of our Bazaar and Rummage Sale, announces the opening of the Sale on Monday, May 17th. The sale will continue for a week. Through the efforts of this energetic and enthusiastic Chairman, a wonderful location has been procured—538 Ninth Ave. corner 40th St.

We appeal to all our readers to send us whatever discarded merchandise they have. We urge all Sisterhood members to contact Mrs. Sacks, or the office, and to volunteer their services during that week.

SISTERHOOD CLOSING TEA JUNE 2nd

At its last meeting plans were made for a closing function which will take the form of a Tea to be held Wednesday, June 2nd, in our social hall.

Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein and Mrs. Benj. L. Leifert were chosen Co-Chairmen which fact is evidence of ultimate success. Tickets are priced at $1.00 per person which will include delicious refreshments. The Executive Board will sponsor the Tea. Bridge, Mah Jong and Gin will be part of the program.

Tickets have been mailed to all members, who are urged to send in their reservations as soon as possible.

PERSONALS

The Sisterhood extends birthday greetings to Rhonnie Sacks, Lillie Levey and Lillie Rosenthal and wishes all the celebrants many happy returns of the day.

FINAL MEETING MAY 24th

Monday, May 24th, will mark the final meeting of the season for the Sisterhood. Details of the program for this meeting will be announced in a later Bulletin. For the present, please make note of the date and let nothing interfere with your attendance.

THE CAMP FUND

The Sisterhood Camp Fund has been augmented by a very generous contribution from Mr. Harold Freedman. Our sincere thanks to him and . . . we hope there will be others who will follow his excellent example. It will be remembered that this Fund will provide a summer vacation for a few underprivileged children.

CONGRATULATIONS

The congregation, Men's Club and Sisterhood join in extending sincere birthday wishes to Max J. Etra. May he enjoy many, many more years in health and happiness.

OUR BEST WISHES

To our member Dr. Maxwell Heckler who is ill at the Hospital for Joint Diseases . . . To Mrs. O. Garfein, mother of Alex Garfein, who is ill at the Lenox Hill Hospital . . . And to young Charles Rosen who is recuperating from a slight operation. We wish them all a complete and speedy recovery.

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING

This Bulletin will go to press before the Annual Membership Meeting takes place. In the next issue a full report will be given of all details. Watch for it!

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

The question has been asked, "In a world at war, what place has a Men's Club?" To those of us who have uninterruptedly participated in the far flung activities of our group, this is a rather startling query and so we hasten to reply.

As a matter of record, our organization's agenda, even before Pearl Harbor, was harnessed to the national defense program. We were then, even as we are now, effectively cooperating with the Jewish Welfare Board (USO) both in its administrative departments and field service. Ours was the first Men's Club to purchase surgical instruments for "Bundles for Britain"; we were among the early ones to raise funds for "China Relief"; we are registered members of the Fighting Free French organization; we have aided the Red Cross as blood donors and as a group contributor; we have from the start been a distributor and donator of Victory Kits to embarking soldiers. In addition to these activities we have steadfastly maintained our various benevolent services such as sending underprivileged children to a summer camp; a Ramaz School scholarship; housing our own Boy Scout Troop; aiding refugees and the unceasing fight against anti-semitism.

Likewise as individuals you will find that there is no segment of the war effort, from the fighting fronts to the purchasing of war bonds, to which we are not contributing. All of us are wholly committed to the unswerving policy of unstintingly giving of ourselves wherever and however we can do the most good. On the home front as well as abroad you may be sure that the K. J. Men's Club as a group and individually, are eagerly and loyally doing their full share in the United Nations Military effort.

If you feel that the above justifies our existence, won't you join with us and thus enable the group to achieve even greater results? A letter to the Synagogue, care of the Men's Club, or a telephone call, AT. 9-5760, will bring the desired information.

WHAT TWO GRANDCHILDREN DID FOR THEIR GRANDMOTHER

When Mrs. Charles Silberman passed away about a year ago, her two grandchildren, Elaine and Margery Wiener, daughters of our secretary, made a silent resolution. They planned to save whatever they could spare from their allowance in order to inscribe a plaque for their grandmother on the Memorial Tablet of our congregation. This week they brought a little box into the synagogue office. In pennies, nickels, dimes and a few bills they saved up the necessary $100.00 and asked that that plaque be ordered.
