ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-FIVE ATTEND MEMBERSHIP MEETING TWENTY-ONE NEW MEMBERS INDUCTED ETRA, LANCE, WINER AND WIENER REELECTED

The family of Kehilath Jeshurun met last Thursday at the Annual Meeting of the congregation and re-elected Max J. Etra as president, Saul J. Lance as vice-president, Abraham R. Winer, as treasurer and Abraham Wiener as secretary for the new year.

Twenty-one new members were inducted with appropriate ceremonies climaxed by a splendid address delivered by Mr. Samuel Levy. He told the inductees about the fine record of achievement that our congregation enjoys and the universal esteem in which it is held by American Jewry. He expressed confidence that the new members would help further the achievements and the prestige of the congregation.

A highlight of the meeting was the learned address delivered by Judge Bernard L. Shientag who outlined the functions of a synagogue and its significance to the totality of Jewish life. The address, replete with biblical quotations, was moving by its scholarship and inspirational character. It is expected that the addresses of Judge Shientag and Mr. Levy will shortly be printed and distributed among our members.

The presidential report of Max J.

Etra gave a picture of the congregation as it is and the plans for improvement and growth soon to be undertaken. The financial report by Abraham R. Winer, treasurer of the congregation, reflected gratifying accomplishments in the financial affairs of the congregation.

The following chairmen of standing committees delivered reports: Louis J. Singer, for the membership and Religious School committees; Mrs. Jacob Rudd spoke charmingly for the Sisterhood; Mr. Ira F. Weisman in a clever way reported for the Men's Club; Mr. Jacob H. Alpert for the House Committee; Mr. George Jacobs for the Cemetery Committee; and Rabbi Lookstein for the Ramaz School.

Mr. Harry Fischel was elected an honorary trustee for life in recognition of his long association with and service to the congregation. The following were elected to the Board of Trustees: Morris S. Galler, Charles B. Jacobs and Ira F. Weisman.

A touching moment was experienced when Rabbi Lookstein spoke of those of the congregational family who had gone to their eternal reward during the past year. The audience rose and stood in silent tribute to them.

An unusual feature of the meeting, which promises to become an institution, was the observance of anniversary celebrations by some of our members who had reached important milestones in their affiliation with the congregation. The following were the celebrants: Tenth Anniversary, Morris S. Galler; Twentieth Anniversary, Samuel Levy and Maxwell Shapiro; Thirtieth Anniversary, Morris Golde, Sol Hecht, Emanuel Kaplan, Samuel M. Kaplan and Abraham Liebovitz.

The closing address of the meeting was delivered by Rabbi Lookstein who spoke on "Two Decades at Kehilath Jeshurun," and outlined the varying fortunes of the congregation and the significant headway made during the last twenty years. He congratulated the officers, celebrants, inductees, Mr. Adler the ritual director and Cantor Robert R. Fingeroth who was elected for his ninth term as the cantor of the congregation.

The meeting closed with a social hour and the serving of delightful refreshments. "The best ever" was the general estimate of the meeting by all those who attended.

TRUSTEES TO MEET MAY 20th

The Board of Trustees will hold its next regular meeting on Thursday, May 20th, at 8:30, in the library. All Board members, old and new, are urged to attend for matters of pressing importance will be discussed.
