SHALOM

The Kehilath Jeshurun bulletin makes its first appearance of the season with this issue. It hopes that all of its readers have had a pleasant and restful summer and are ready to resume their interest in its columns.

The bulletin will welcome items of interest that may be sent to it by its readers. It goes to press every Tuesday and material therefore should be in the synagogue office by that day.

SEAT RESERVATIONS FOR HIGH HOLIDAYS

The committee in charge of reservation of seats for the High Holidays is already in session every evening from 8 to 10 and on Sundays from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. In addition, the synagogue office is open from 9 to 5 daily and reservations can be made then too.

The High Holidays are falling late this year. New residents have come into our neighborhood. We are expecting that our seat sale will therefore be very active. We urge our members and our regular worshippers not to delay in making their reservations.

Invite your friends to worship with us. If you know of a newcomer to our neighborhood, send us his name and address. We shall be glad to contact him. Your friends and neighbors will be grateful to you for an opportunity to worship in a synagogue that preserves the traditional rituals embellished by all of the modern niceties.

RECORD ENROLLMENT AT RAMAZ

The Ramaz School opened its seventh academic year with an enrollment of over 160 students and with a teaching staff that includes many new appointees. All classes are now full and registration is closed except for the kindergarten which is still open to a few registrants.

Among the new features at Ramaz this year is the domestic science laboratory which has been equipped to the last detail and which will offer courses to the girls in all the home making arts. In addition to the usual course of domestic science, the girls will be taught the management of a modern kosher Jewish home. The whys and wherefores of the dietary laws, their rational validity and their practical utility in the maintenance of Jewish life will all form part of the course of study. The Ramaz domestic science laboratory and course are indeed unique in scope and purpose and they have already won the interest of many educators.

OUR AFTERNOON RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

For the children of our congregants there is available the Central Jewish Institute Talmud Torah as a three day a week Religious School. Registration is going on now and parents who are interested may consult either the Rabbi or Mr. Karni, principal of the Talmud Torah.

SISTERHOOD SAYS HELLO

The Kehilath Jeshurun Sisterhood welcomes all of its members back to a year of fruitful activity. The organization's program of work will soon be made known. In the meanwhile, those of our new friends who are not yet affiliated with us are cordially invited to join our splendid body of American Jewish women serving in so many areas of communal life.

GLAD TIDINGS OF THE SUMMER

Ann Rafsky, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Rafsky, and granddaughter of Mr. Harry Fishel, was married to Corporal Norman S. Frankel at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel on Sunday, September 5.

Joan Roeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Roeder, was married to Corporal David Moskowitz on July 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Margareten are grandparents anew through the birth of a girl to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin Nussbaum of Rochester, New York.

To all of them we convey our greetings and heartiest wishes of mazel tov. May gladness be their portion always.

BRUCE FISCHBERG BAR MITZVAH

Bruce Fischberg, son of our Men's Club's treasurer, Mr. William B. Fischberg and Mrs. Fischberg, will become bar-mitzvah in our synagogue this Saturday. We are happy indeed to have this Fischberg simcha in our midst and we wish the entire family ever increasing joy from young Bruce.

TO A NEW RECRUIT

A hearty welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gross, who have joined our congregational family during the summer. We wish them many years of pleasant association with us.

SORROWS OF THE SUMMER

To several of our congregants this summer brought experiences of sorrow and we extend to them our expressions of comfort.

Our dear Rabbi lost his beloved father after an extended illness. The funeral service was held in our synagogue. There are many indeed who will long remember the sweet and saintly old gentleman.

Joseph Strauss who, though affiliated with us but a short time, endeared himself greatly to all of us, departed this life on Tisha B'Av. We shall cherish reverent memories of that estimable and ideal Jewish layman.

Last week there passed from our midst Louis Robbins, former vice-president of the congregation and a devoted member for more than three decades. During his active years he made an admirable record of service to our House of God.

We also record with sorrow the death of Max Singer, beloved husband of Tina Singer and dear father of Fannie Bernard, both loyal members of our Sisterhood.

We stand with bowed heads in reverence for all the deceased. To the members of the bereaved families we express our profoundest sympathies. We pray that the Almighty may sustain them in their hour of sorrow and grant them happiness forever more.

SLICHTH MIDNIGHT SERVICES

May we remind you to reserve Saturday night, Sept. 25, 12:30 A. M. for our regular slichth service in the main synagogue. This service acts as a spiritual prelude to the High Holidays. We have modernized it so that it is intelligible to all. There is so much to pray for these days that no opportunity should be missed for communion with God. In the late hour of the night, while elsewhere our fellow men are being tormented by the agonies of war, let us assemble to pray for them and for ourselves. Decide, therefore, to attend slichth this year.
