Join Our Congregational Family

Many of our new worshippers were deeply impressed by our High Holiday Services. They were moved by the general atmosphere of religious fellowship that prevails amongst us. A number of them declared their intention to affiliate themselves as members with our congregation.

We herewith extend a cordial invitation to all of them to join our congregational family. We know that they will be happy in our midst. With our synagogue service they are already familiar. They will be delighted with the Ramaz School for their children, or if they prefer, with the Afternoon Religious School that we sponsor at the Central Jewish Institute adjoining our synagogue. The women will find happy association with the congregation's Sisterhood and the men will enjoy the fraternal spirit of the Men's Club. Their sons and daughters will be welcome to the sociability of our Young Folks Society. And much more is available than can be actually put down on paper.

Mr. Louis J. Singer, Chairman of our Membership Committee, will be glad to communicate with all those who are interested in membership. A call to the synagogue office will receive prompt attention.

JACOB ALPERT IS BEREAVED

Mr. Jacob H. Alpert, comptroller of our congregation, sustained a grievous loss in the passing of his brother, Louis Alpert last Monday. Funeral services were held at the Riverside Memorial Chapel and burial took place at the Alpert family plot in New Haven, Conn.

We extend our heartfelt sympathies to our most loyal and highly respected comptroller. But recently he suffered a similar loss and the congregation fervently prays, therefore, that he may be spared all further sorrow for many years to come.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The Sisterhood meeting on Monday evening was an outstanding success. In spite of the inclement weather, a group of 50 women attended and enjoyed an evening of cultural delight. Mrs. Juliette Ashner reviewed the two outstanding books of the season: Carlson's "Under Cover" and Marquand's "So Little Time." In her own inimitable and charming manner our president read a report of last years accomplishments and spoke of future plans for our organization.

We were signally honored by the appearance of Mr. Ira F. Weisman, the dynamic president of the Men's Club, who spoke on the drive for the National War Fund. Several women volunteered to solicit funds for the most important National War Fund. We need more volunteers, so won't you please get in touch with Mr. Weisman at the synagogue office and leave your name?

We are indeed happy to welcome Mrs. Robert Wallach, Mrs. R. Kolker and Mrs. Benjamin Gottesman as new members.

Mrs. Louis J. Singer and Mrs. Benjamin Leifert, are Chairmen of our forthcoming Donor Luncheon to be held Tuesday, December 14th in the Wedgewood Room at the Waldorf. They promise us a gala afternoon on that date and are working very hard to make this the most outstanding affair we have ever had. Remember the date. The Donor tickets will be $12.50 and guest tickets $5.00. This will be the only important fund raising function of the year, so — get busy, you donors, and let us have a 100% attendance at this luncheon.

THE NATIONAL WAR FUND

The Men's Club, along with the representatives of the leading religious, civic and communal organizations of the Upper East Side, will take an active part in the National War Fund. Though we made an enviable record in the last U.S.O. drive, we aim to do even better in this one. We need your help.

KIDDUSH RECEPTION TO GROOMS OF THE LAW THIS SATURDAY

In honor of the Grooms of the Law, Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein, Max J. Etra and Saul J. Lance, a reception in the form of a Buffet Kiddush will be given at the close of service this Saturday in the social hall of the synagogue.

The ladies of the Sisterhood will act as hostesses and an hour of wholesome refreshment and sociability may be expected. All of our congregants are cordially invited.

BENEVOLENT FUND

Our Benevolent Fund contributors continue to grow! We gratefully acknowledge donations from Irwin B. Jacobs, Abraham Kirshon, Benjamin Leifert and Samuel Sacks.

FRANKFURTERS ARE FAVORITES!

Mr. Thomas Bornstein this time generously provided the Hospitality Committee with our favorite food — the tasty frankfurter. What would a social hour be without them?

TRUSTEE MEETING

The Board of Trustees of the congregation will meet in the library of the synagogue on Thursday, Nov. 4 at 8:30 p.m. At this meeting a report of the High Holiday seat sale and of the Kol Nidre night appeal will be made. The semi-annual accountant's report will also probably be ready by that date. In addition, an outline of the season's activities will be presented for discussion and action.

Every trustee and associate trustee is urged not to miss this meeting.

YOUNG FOLKS' STUDY GROUP TO RESUME SESSIONS

On Sunday, Nov. 7th at 11 A.M. the Young Folks' Study Group will resume its sessions for the new season. This Study Group, comprising young people of upper high school and college age, was organized by the Rabbi last year and met consistently every Sunday morning throughout the season. The experience was so enjoyable and profitable to the students that at their request the group will continue its subject of study for another season. The subject is "Jewish Post-Biblical History" and the instructor is Rabbi Lookstein.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON YIDDISH DISCOURSES

Every Saturday afternoon after Mincha service, Rabbi Lookstein delivers a discourse in Yiddish on the weekly portion. These discourses are extremely well received as is evidenced by the growing attendance of men and women at the Mincha service.

IS YOUR CHILD REGISTERED IN HEBREW SCHOOL?

A number of our children have already been enrolled in the Central Jewish Institute Talmud Torah. There are still many from whom we did not yet hear. Classes are already in full swing and to delay is to handicap your child unnecessarily. Consult the Rabbi or see Mr. Leon Karni, principal of the Talmud Torah without delay.
