WALTER DURANTY TO SPEAK AT THANKSGIVING SERVICES

We are proud to announce that Mr. Walter Duranty, world renowned correspondent, author and lecturer, will be the guest speaker at our Thanksgiving Services on November 25th next.

Those who will attend services that day have every reason to expect a most authentic message from one of the best informed men on foreign affairs.

The musical part of the service will be conducted by Cantor Fingeroth, assisted by the Oscar Julius Choir. Mr. Julius has one of the best choirs in the city and is known for his fine musical compositions.

All our friends should reserve Thanksgiving morning and arrange to be in the synagogue with their families for the Service.

FRED MARGARETEN IN CHARGE OF YEAR BOOK Israel Cummings Co-Chairman

Mr. Fred Margareten, successful chairman of our souvenir journals for many years, has been designated as chairman of the 1943 Year Book. Mr. Israel Cummings, one of our new members, will be his co-chairman.

The Year Book will contain advertisements, compliments, a memorial page, a victory page, a kiddie page and many other interesting features. Last year the Year Book netted close to $5,000. This year we are expecting to go far beyond that figure.

Ad blanks will shortly be in the mail and our ad-getters had better start training.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN WILL PREACH THIS SABBATH AT 10:30 A.M.

CONDOLENCES TO SOPHIE LANCE

Mrs. Saul J. Lance suffered the loss of her dear father who passed away last Monday in Hartford, Conn. We extend to her the heartfelt sympathies of the entire congregation.

HOLIDAY BOOK FUND GROWING

We are very grateful to Mr. Abbott Bernard for his donation of $50 towards the purchase of uniform books for all holidays. The fund is growing, but we are still short several hundred dollars in order to be able to obtain a supply that will meet the needs of our worshippers.

Mr. Bernard's gift was made in memory of his father.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The evening we have been waiting for and are looking forward to is to be on Monday, Nov. 15 at 8:30 P. M. in our social hall. Rabbi Lookstein will speak on "The Significance of Recent World Events in Jewish Life."

All members of the K. J. Sisterhood and their friends are invited to attend on that date and can truly anticipate an evening of cultural delight. Mrs. Cel. Silberman, Chairman of our Hospitality Committee, promises us a delicious snack after the meeting. Do come and bring your friends.

"CRIME AND ITS DETECTION"

Dr. Alexander O. Gettler was awarded his Ph.D. at Columbia University, 1912. He has served as instructor of chemistry and later as professor of toxicology in Bellevue Hospital and N.Y.U. from 1910 to date. In addition from 1915 to the present time he has been toxicologist to the Chief Medical Examiners Office, New York City.

The Hon. Burton B. Turkus, after a long and distinguished career at the Bar of the City of New York, was appointed Chief of the Homicide Division in the District Attorney's Office of Kings County in 1940. In that capacity, he prosecuted the "Murder Ring" and obtained the conviction of these notorious lawbreakers.

TWO MORE

Since the High Holiday season began, every week showed an increase in our congregational family. This week we are pleased to announce the receipt of the applications for membership from Mr. Alex Kommel and Mr. Jack Sommers.

Mr. Sommers of the Bernard family is no stranger to our congregation and as for Mr. Kommel, his sainted father was a member of the congregation and he, himself, grew up within the atmosphere of Kehilath Jeshurun. A hearty welcome to them both.

YOU NEED NOT BE A YIDDISHIST

To enjoy the Yiddish discourse delivered by Rabbi Lookstein every Saturday afternoon after mincha services, one need not be a fanatic Yiddishist. But, if one is interested in the traditional rabbinic discourse flavored by all of the familiar nuances, then he should not miss these discourses.

Rabbi Lookstein has been delivering these discourses for the past three years and they have been growing ever more popular. Men and women who have been attending them, have been finding them relaxing and instructive.
